Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective January 1, 2018, The Sherwin-Williams Company ( Sherwin-Williams ) adopted The Sherwin-Williams Company Key Employee Separation Plan (the Plan ). The Plan is administered by the Compensation and Management Development Committee (the Committee ) of the Board of Directors of Sherwin-Williams, and the Committee may delegate its authority thereunder pursuant to the terms of the Plan.

Under the Plan, executive officers and other key employees of Sherwin-Williams who are selected to participate in the Plan generally are entitled, subject to execution and non-revocation of a release of claims, to certain severance payments and benefits in the event their employment is involuntarily terminated by Sherwin-Williams for reasons other than cause, death, or disability, including: (i) a cash severance amount equal to a factor (two, in the case of the Chief Executive Officer (John G. Morikis), and one and one-half, in the case of each of the Senior Vice President Corporate Planning, Development and Administration (Sean P. Hennessey), Senior Vice President Finance and Chief Financial Officer (Allen J. Mistysyn), and President, The Americas Group (Robert J. Davisson)) multiplied against such participant's annual base salary plus target annual incentive bonus for the year of termination; (ii) a pro-rata annual incentive bonus based on the portion of the year the participant was employed with Sherwin-Williams and its subsidiaries (and subject to the attainment of the applicable performance goals); (iii) continuation of medical and dental coverage benefits until the earlier of: (a) reaching the age of 65, (b) the date similar benefits are provided by another employer, or (c) the expiration of the otherwise applicable COBRA continuation period; (iv) reasonable outplacement assistance for expenses actually incurred as approved by Sherwin-Williams; and (v) continued vesting of equity awards (two years, in the case of Mr. Morikis, and 18 months, in the case of each of Messrs. Hennessey, Mistysyn, and Davisson), with performance-based equity awards continuing to be subject to the attainment of the applicable performance goals. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a participant will not be entitled to severance payments and benefits under the Plan if the participant has entered into a severance, change in control, or other employment agreement with Sherwin-Williams that provides for the payment of severance compensation relating to employment termination and the participant is entitled to payment thereunder.

The Committee generally has authority to amend or terminate the Plan, except, as to any participant, within the 90-day period immediately prior to a change in control in any manner adverse to the interests of such participant (without such participant's consent).

The foregoing description of the Plan does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Plan, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
