Item 5.04. Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans.

The Business Combination Agreement, dated December 18, 2017, by and among Chicago Bridge & Iron Company (CB&I), McDermott International, Inc. (McDermott) and the other parties thereto contemplates that CB&I and McDermott will combine their business pursuant to a series of transactions (the Combination). As part of the Combination, participants in the Chicago Bridge and Iron Savings Plan and the Lutech Resources, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan (the 401(k) Plans) have been advised that they will be unable to conduct transactions with respect to the CB&I common stock fund portion of their 401(k) Plan during the period of time that is required to give effect to the transactions required to complete the Combination (such period, the Blackout Period). The Blackout Period will begin as of May 7, 2018 and is expected to end within 21 business days following the completion of the Combination.

On April 22, 2018, CB&I sent a notice to its directors and executive officers (the Notice) informing them of certain trading restrictions that will apply during the Blackout period. Pursuant to Section 306 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and Regulation BTR (Blackout Trading Restriction), during the Blackout Period, CB&I's directors and executive officers will be prohibited from directly or indirectly purchasing, selling, acquiring or transferring any shares of CB&I common stock or derivative securities acquired in connection with their service or employment as a director or executive officer of CB&I, subject to certain exceptions. The directors and executive officers will be notified of any changes to the dates of the Blackout Period, including if the Blackout Period is shortened or extended, and when the Blackout Period ends.

Inquiries concerning the Notice or the Blackout Period, including the beginning and ending dates of the trading restrictions, may be directed without charge to:
