Item 4.02 Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review

On or about February 12, 2009, the Tirex Corporation (the Corporation) filed a quarterly Report on Form 10-Q relating to its financial condition and the results of operations for the three and six month periods ended December 31, 2008. In this report, the Corporation mistakenly stated that the financial statements had been reviewed by our independent accountants, as they had done for the three-month period ending September 30, 2008. In fact, the Corporation did not receive a Review Report from its independent accountants and the statement to this effect was inadvertently not included; the statement from the 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2008, confirming independent review of the September 30 report, was incorrectly carried over into the Corporation's 10-Q filed on February 12, 2009.

The Corporation will file an amended Form 10-Q concurrent with this Form 8-K. Thus, investors cannot rely on the financial statements as having been reviewed by our independent accountants.

The Corporation has opened discussions with its independent accountant, who made us aware of the incorrect disclosure and its effect of non-reliance in a letter to the Corporation dated May 20, 2009, to provide a Review Report for the period ended December 31, 2008. Once such a report will become available, an amended Form 10-Q for that period will be filed.

Management is of the opinion that there are no material differences in the financial statements of September 30, 2008 and those of December 31, 2008.
