Since the Call Option is cash-settled, the applicable Reporting Person did not acquire, dispose or otherwise transact in any shares of common stock. The applicable Reporting Person entered (1) into the Call Option on December 9, 2016. Pursuant to the terms of the Call Option, which are further described in footnote 6, the counterparty to the Call Option paid to the applicable Reporting Person an amount in cash upon settlement. The amount paid in cash reflects the increase in the price per share of the Issuer's common stock from the Call Option's exercise price of $32 per share.

Pursuant to Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the applicable Reporting Person was deemed for Section 16 purposes to have acquired common stock upon exercise at $32 per share and was deemed for Section 16 purposes to have disposed common stock to (2) the counterparty at $50 per share, which represents the capped upside participation price of the Call Option to the applicable Reporting Person. However, because the Call Option was cash-settled, the applicable Reporting Person did not actually acquire, dispose or otherwise transact in any shares of common stock.

The securities listed include 196,660 shares held directly by IBP Holding Company and 4,027,819 shares held directly by PJAM IBP (3) Holdings, Inc. The Call Option has a capped upside participation price to the applicable Reporting Person of $50 (the "Cap Price"). Upon cash settlement of the Call Option, the applicable Reporting Person could receive an amount equal to the product of (1) number of shares (6) underlying the Call Option multiplied by (2) the difference between (A) the lower of (i) the Cap Price and (ii) the reference price (which is the average of the closing prices of the underlying shares as reported by the New York Stock Exchange at the expiration time on the valuations dates) and (B) the exercise price. The valuation dates consisted of the expiration date and the nineteen business days immediately preceding the expiration date.
