TD Bank Financial Group Pleased with Positive Ameritrade Shareholder Voting Results

January 5, 2006, Toronto: TD Bank Financial Group (TDBFG) is pleased with the results of the Ameritrade shareholder vote held yesterday, in which shareholders approved the proposals necessary to complete the acquisition of TD Waterhouse USA by Ameritrade Holding Corporation to create TD Ameritrade. In connection with the transaction, TD Waterhouse Canada will also acquire Ameritrade's Canadian brokerage operations. The deal is expected to close on January 24th, 2006.

"We are pleased that Ameritrade shareholders strongly supported the proposed transaction. The new TD Ameritrade will be a powerful industry leader whose expertise will deliver an even stronger client-focused offer," said Ed Clark, President and CEO, TD Bank Financial Group. "For TD shareholders, this is an excellent complement to TD's U.S. personal and commercial banking operations of TD Banknorth and extends our opportunities for further growth in the U.S.," he added.

Under the terms of the shareholders agreement for this transaction, following completion of the transaction TD is required to tender for approximately 7.9% of the outstanding Ameritrade shares at a price of at least USD $16 per share which, if successful, would bring TD's ownership of the new TD Ameritrade to 39.9%, the maximum currently allowable under the terms of the deal.

"At the time the transaction was initiated, we wanted to add value to the deal by agreeing to offer to buy shares at what was a premium to market at the time. Clearly, the market has been supportive of this transaction as witnessed by the increase in the Ameritrade stock price," noted Clark. "At present, we don't intend to offer more than USD $16 per share. Once TD has fulfilled this obligation, we will be free to buy shares in the market place up to 39.9%, as appropriate," he added.

Under the terms of the transaction, TDBFG will be represented by 5 directors on the new 12 member TD Ameritrade board of directors, which allows TD to actively contribute to TD Ameritrade's strategic direction as it grows and strengthens the TD brand in the U.S. The five directors will be:

- Ed Clark, President and CEO, TD Bank Financial Group
- Marshall Cohen, member, TDBFG Board of Directors
- Dan Marinangeli, Executive Vice President, Corporate Development, TDBFG
  - Bill Prezzano, member, TDBFG Board of Directors
  - Fred Tomczyk, Vice Chair, Corporate Operations, TDBFG
