The merger agreement has been approved by both Coca-Cola FEMSA’s and Grupo Tampico’s Board of Directors and is subject to the completion of confirmatory legal, financial, and operating due diligence and to customary regulatory and corporate approvals, among them, the approval of The Coca-Cola Company and the Comisión Federal de Competencia, the Mexican antitrust authority. Coca-Cola FEMSA will call for an extraordinary shareholders meeting at which it will ask for the approval of this merger and request the amendment of the Company’s by-laws to increase the number of board members from 18 to 21. Such increase will create the flexibility to accommodate new shareholders in connection with this or any future transaction.

The aggregate enterprise value of this transaction is Ps. 9,300 million. As a result of the merger, Grupo Tampico will receive 63.5 million newly issued KOF series L shares at a value of Ps. 103.20 per share, calculated on the average closing price of the KOF series L share over the last twenty-five trading days prior to the announcement of this agreement. The number of shares could be adjusted within agreed upon thresholds pending the completion of the due diligence process. In addition, Coca-Cola FEMSA will assume Ps. 2,747 million in net debt.

June 28, 2011

As a part of this agreement, Mr. Herman Fleishman and Mr. Robert Fleishman, President and Vice President, respectively, of Grupo Tampico will serve on a rotating basis, as director and alternate director, on the Board of Directors of Coca-Cola FEMSA. Page 1

“We are proud that our family’s legacy and heritage is joining forces with the largest independent Coca-Cola bottler in the world. We are confident that combining our bottling operations with Coca-Cola FEMSA, a geographically diversified business with outstanding growth prospects and a talented management team, will provide benefits to the shareholders, suppliers and customers of Coca-Cola FEMSA and Grupo Tampico. We believe that the combined scale of our businesses, the contiguity of our territories, and our shared best practices will contribute to the creation of value for all of our shareholders. Additionally, we are pleased to serve on Coca-Cola FEMSA’s Board of Directors, allowing us to contribute our expertise to the decision-making process of the Company,” said Mr. Herman Fleishman.

“We are enthusiastic to partner with the first franchise in the Mexican Coca-Cola bottling system. This merger will reinforce our Company’s leadership position in Mexico and Latin America. The talented team of professionals at Grupo Tampico’s beverage division and their passion for execution will certainly enhance our joint operations’ go-to-market capabilities, strengthen our diversified portfolio of geographies, and enable us to create value for our shareholders. Henry and Robert Fleishman will continue to play an important leadership role within the Mexican Coca-Cola bottling system and we are honored to have them join our Board of Directors,” said Carlos Salazar Lomelin, Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Grupo Tampico’s beverage division operates mainly in the states of Tamaulipas, San Luis Potosí, and Veracruz; as well as in parts of the states of Hidalgo, Puebla and Queretaro. Founded in 1912 by Mr. Leo Fleishman and his son Mr. Herman H. Fleishman as “La Pureza” bottling company in Tampico, Tamaulipas, it currently operates 4 bottling facilities and 25 distribution centers, serving more than
