Notes

2019

(1) Per US$1,000 or €1,000, as applicable. The Total Consideration includes an early tender premium equal to US$30.00 per US$1,000 principal amount for each series of US dollar denominated Old Notes accepted for purchase, and €30.00 per €1,000 principal amount for each series of Euro denominated Old Notes accepted for purchase.

(2) After applying such proration factor, all 2019 Notes tendered by holders that were entitled to a credit or return of a portion of tendered 2019 Notes that was less than the minimum denomination of US$2,000, were accepted without proration.

Because the purchase of Old Notes validly tendered in the Tender Offers would cause PGF to purchase an aggregate principal amount of Old Notes that would result in an aggregate amount to be received by holders, net of accrued interest, in excess of US$3.0 billion (the "Tender Cap"), based on the US dollar exchange rate described herein, PGF has accepted for purchase all tendered 3.500% Global Notes due February 2017, 3.250% Global Notes due March 2017, Floating Rate Global Notes due March 2017, 2.750% Global Notes due January 2018, 5.875% Global Notes due March 2018, 4.875% Global Notes due March 2018, 3.000% Global Notes due January 2019 and Floating Rate Global Notes due January 2019, only US$936,093,000 principal amount of the tendered 2019 Notes and none of the tendered 3.25% Global Notes due April 2019. PGF will pay holders of 2019 Notes tendered on or prior to the Early Tender Date on a pro rata basis according to the pro ration procedures described in the Offer to Purchase (as defined below). The early settlement date on which PGF will make payment for Old Notes accepted in the Tender Offers is expected to be July 25, 2016 (the “Early Settlement Date”).

Holders of Old Notes who tender after the Early Tender Date will not have any of their Old Notes accepted for purchase. Any tendered Old Notes that are not accepted for purchase will be returned or credited without expense to the holder’s account.

Holders of Old Notes that validly tendered on or prior to the Early Tender Date and whose Old Notes have been accepted for purchase are entitled to receive the total consideration set forth in the table above, which includes an early tender premium as set forth therein, and to receive accrued and unpaid interest on their accepted Old Notes from the last interest payment date to, but not including, the Early Settlement Date. The total cash payment to purchase the accepted Old Notes will be approximately US$3,041.6 million, based on the US dollar exchange rate described herein, including accrued and unpaid interest. Old Notes that have been validly tendered cannot be withdrawn, except as may be required by applicable law.

The Tender Offers will expire at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on August 3, 2016.

The exchange rate used in translating Euro into US dollars was US$1.1005 per Euro, the applicable exchange rate as of 2:00 p.m., New York City time on July 20, 2016, as reported on Bloomberg screen page “FXIP” under the heading “FX Rate vs. USD.”

The Tender Offers are being made pursuant to the offer to purchase dated July 7, 2016 (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the “Offer to Purchase”), and the related letter of transmittal dated July 7, 2016 (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the “Letter of Transmittal”), which set forth in more detail the terms and conditions of the Tender Offers.
