Item 8.01 Other Events.

On April 14, 2008, Illumina, Inc. (the "Company") entered into Change in Control Severance Agreements (the "Agreements") with Gregory F. Heath, the Company's Senior Vice President and General Manager, Diagnostics, and Joel McComb, the Company's Senior Vice President and General Manager, Life Sciences, respectively.

Pursuant to these Agreements, if a "covered termination" (as defined in the Agreements) of the employee's employment occurs in connection with a "change in control" (as defined in the Agreements) of the Company, then the employee is generally entitled to the following benefits:

- a severance payment equal to the employee's annual base salary plus the greater of (a) the employee's then-current annual target bonus or other target incentive amount and (b) the annual bonus or other incentive paid or payable to the employee for the most recently completed fiscal year;
- a lump sum payment of the employee's earned but unpaid compensation;
- continuance, for 12 months following termination, of certain medical and other benefits and perquisites;
- continuance of the employee's indemnification rights and liability insurance;
- automatic vesting of the employee's unvested stock options and equity or equity-based awards; and
- certain professional outplacement services.

A "covered termination" generally includes termination by the Company other than for "cause" (as defined in the Agreements) or termination by the employee for "good reason" (as defined in the Agreements). To constitute a "covered termination," the termination must occur within two years following the change in control or, in certain circumstances, may occur after a definitive agreement to effect a change in control is entered into but before the change in control is effected.

Payments due by the Company to the employee pursuant to the Agreements will not be "grossed up" to reduce or eliminate the effect of the "golden parachute" or other tax provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. Any obligation to pay such taxes remains an obligation of the employee. However, payments due to an employee pursuant to the Agreements generally will be reduced to the extent that the reduction will result in a greater after-tax benefit to the employee.

The above description of the Agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to the forms of Agreements, which the Company intends to file as exhibits to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the second quarter of 2008.
