ITEM 3.01. NOTICE OF DELISTING OR FAILURE TO SATISFY A CONTINUED LISTING RULE OR STANDARD, TRANSFER OF LISTING.

Please refer to Item 8.01, which is incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS.

On March 9, 2009, Rite Aid Corporation (the "Company") issued a press release announcing that its Board of Directors has delayed effecting the Company's previously announced reverse stock split following the New York Stock Exchange's (the "NYSE") recent temporary suspension of its minimum share price listing rule (as discussed below). The suspension provides the Company with additional time and flexibility to regain compliance with the rule. The Company continues to be listed and trade as usual on the NYSE.

The objective of the reverse stock split is to ensure that the Company regains compliance with the NYSE minimum share price listing rule and maintains its listing on the NYSE. On October 17, 2008, the Company announced plans for either a 1-for-10, 1-for-15 or 1-for-20 reverse stock split after being notified by the NYSE that it was no longer in compliance with the share price rule (Rule 802.01C of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual). Stockholders approved the reverse stock split on December 2, 2008. On February 26, 2009, the NYSE announced that it is suspending application of the share price rule until June 30, 2009, which extends the Company's cure period to regain compliance. Per the rules of the recent suspension, the Company can now regain compliance by achieving the required $1.00 closing share price and $1.00 average closing share price over the preceding 30 consecutive days on any of the following dates: April 16, 2009; April 30, 2009; May 29, 2009; June 30, 2009; and August 17, 2009. Before the temporary suspension of the share price rule, the Company's cure period was to end on April 16, 2009.

The Board of Directors will determine the exchange ratio and timing of the reverse stock split, if implemented, prior to or immediately following the end of the suspension period based on market conditions, the Company's share price and NYSE rules at such time. The Board of Directors will base the decision upon its evaluation of when such action would be most advantageous to the Company and its stockholders.

A copy of the press release announcing the decision not to effect the reverse stock split at this time is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
