SUPPLEMENT TO THE PROXY STATEMENT
FOR THE 2009 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON APRIL 27, 2009

The following information supplements and amends the proxy statement (the "Proxy Statement") of American Express Company (the "Company," "we," "us," or "our") furnished to shareholders of the Company in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board of Directors" or the "Board") for the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and for any adjournment or postponement thereof (the "Annual Meeting"). The Annual Meeting is scheduled to be held on Monday, April 27, 2009, at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Time, at the American Express Service Center, 7701 Airport Center Drive, Greensboro, North Carolina 27409. This supplement to the Proxy Statement (this "Supplement") is being filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on April 15, 2009. THE PROXY STATEMENT CONTAINS IMPORTANT ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND THIS SUPPLEMENT SHOULD BE READ IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE PROXY STATEMENT.

Only shareholders of record on the close of business on February 27, 2009 are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Peter Lindner, a former employee of the Company, has filed a preliminary proxy statement with the SEC indicating his intention to solicit proxies from the Company's shareholders in an effort to gain a seat on the Company's Board of Directors. Mr. Lindner's preliminary proxy statement also indicates an intention to solicit proxies in favor of his proposal relating to the Company's Code of Conduct for Employees (the "Lindner Proposal").

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Mr. Lindner's employment with the Company was terminated in 1998. Since that time, he has pursued, through a variety of means, a number of personal grievances against the Company, including commencing a lawsuit against the Company. In the past, Mr. Lindner has made statements to the Company about his desire to become a member of the Board of Directors. Mr. Lindner states that he owns approximately 800 of the Company's common shares.

In the fall of 2008, the Company received communications from Mr. Lindner that indicated his desire to become a director. At that time, Mr. Lindner also submitted the Lindner Proposal for inclusion in the Proxy Statement. The Company believed that, under the federal proxy rules, the Lindner Proposal could properly be omitted from the Proxy Statement and, in accordance with the procedures of Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Company requested that the Staff of the SEC concur with the Company's view. On December 30, 2008, Mr. Lindner again requested that he be selected as one of the Board's nominees for director. The Nominating and Governance Committee considered Mr. Lindner's qualifications and determined not to select him as one of the Board's nominees.

On January 22, 2009, the Company received a "no action" letter from the Staff of the SEC concurring with the Company's view that the Lindner Proposal could properly be omitted from the Proxy Statement. Mr. Lindner subsequently requested the Staff of the SEC to reconsider its position and, by letter dated April 8, 2009, the Staff advised Mr. Lindner that it found no basis to reconsider its position.

On March 17, 2009, the Company commenced mailing the Proxy Statement to its shareholders.

On March 30, 2009, Mr. Lindner filed a preliminary proxy statement with the SEC indicating his intention to solicit proxies in favor of his election to the Board and in favor of the Lindner Proposal.

On April 6, 2009, Mr. Lindner requested the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York to issue a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction prohibiting the Company from implementing any proxy or ballot, or taking any action based on any proxy or ballot, that does not include the Lindner Proposal. At a hearing on April 14, 2009, the Court denied Mr. Lindner's request for a temporary restraining order and set a hearing on his request for a preliminary injunction for April 23, 2009.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

The Lindner Proposal

The Lindner Proposal is a proposal to amend the Company's Code of Conduct for Employees to include mandatory penalties for non-compliance. As was disclosed in the Proxy Statement, the Board's designated proxyholders have discretionary authority to vote the proxies solicited by the Company on the Lindner Proposal and intend to exercise their discretion to vote "AGAINST" the Lindner Proposal.

Voting Standards

Election of Directors. In accordance with the Company's Amended Certificate of Incorporation, majority voting applies for election of directors, except in contested director elections. An election is contested if there are more nominees than positions on the Board to be filled at the meeting of shareholders as of the fourteenth day prior to the date on which the Company files its definitive proxy statement with the SEC. On March 2, 2009 (fourteen days prior to the date that the Company filed the Proxy Statement with the SEC), the Company was unaware that Mr. Lindner intended to solicit proxies for his election to the Board of Directors. Accordingly, as disclosed in the Proxy Statement, the election of directors at the 2009 Annual Meeting requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not considered as votes cast and will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors. Depending on the timing and extent of the solicitation by Mr. Lindner, the New York Stock Exchange may take the position that the election of directors is not a "routine" matter, in which case brokers and other nominees may not vote shares with respect to the election of directors without receiving instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares.

Lindner Proposal. Adoption of the Lindner Proposal, like the other shareholder proposals that are on the Company's agenda at the Annual Meeting, requires the approval of the majority of the votes cast. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not considered as votes cast and will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the Lindner Proposal.

Participants in the Solicitation

Under applicable SEC regulations, members of the Board and certain officers and employees of the Company are "participants" with respect to the Company's solicitation of proxies in connection with the Annual Meeting. Certain information concerning these "participants" is set forth in the Proxy Statement and in Annex A hereto.

Solicitation of Proxies; Expenses

As a result of Mr. Lindner's intended proxy solicitation, we will incur additional costs in connection with our solicitation of proxies. We have retained Morrow & Co. LLC ("Morrow"), 470 West Avenue, Stamford, Connecticut 06902, to assist us in the solicitation of proxies for a fee of $17,500 plus out-of-pocket expenses. Proxies may be solicited by mail, telephone, facsimile, telegraph, the Internet, e-mail, newspapers and other publications of general distribution and in person. If Mr. Lindner commences an actual solicitation of proxies, Morrow expects that approximately 10 of its employees would assist in the solicitation. Our expenses related to the solicitation of proxies from shareholders this year will exceed those normally spent for an annual meeting of shareholders. Such additional costs are expected to aggregate to approximately $75,000 (exclusive of costs relating to Mr. Lindner's litigation described above, which costs cannot be predicted at this time). These additional solicitation costs are expected primarily to include the increased fees of outside counsel. To date, we have incurred substantially all of these additional solicitation costs.

Important Notice Regarding the Availability of Proxy Materials for the Shareholder Meeting to Be Held on April 27, 2009
