Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 16, 2008, Sino Clean Energy Inc., a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the "Agreement"), with two institutional and accredited investors (the "Purchasers") pursuant to which the Company sold to the Purchasers $800,650 in aggregate principal amount of 18% secured convertible debentures due September 15, 2009 (the "Debentures"), and warrants to purchase up to 5,337,667 shares of the common stock of the Company (the "Warrants"), in a private placement pursuant to Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Transaction"). The Transaction closed on September 16, 2008 (the "Closing Date"). Net proceeds, exclusive of expenses of the Transaction, from the sale were $775,650, after we reimbursed the lead Purchaser $25,000 for certain due diligence expenses. The Company also issued a warrant to Ancora Securities, Inc., as finder's fee, to purchase up to 267,100 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.25 per share and to expire on September 15, 2010.

The Agreement includes customary representations and warranties by each party thereto. The following is a brief description of such additional terms and conditions of the Agreement and the Transaction that are material to the Company:

- Within 90 calendar days from the Closing Date, the Company covenants and agrees to (a) have a board of directors of at least five members, a majority of which shall be independent directors; (b) retain the services of a new chief financial officer who, among other qualifications, is fluent in English; and (c) engage the services of a new auditing firm as specified in the Agreement.
 - Within one year from the Closing Date, the Company covenants and agrees to apply for the listing of its common shares for trading on one of the following exchange or market: the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange, the NASDAQ Global Select Market, the NASDAQ Global Market, or the NASDAQ Capital Market (each a "Subsequent Market").
 - At their options, the Purchasers are entitled to liquidated damages from the Company of the full principal amount of the Debentures plus 18% if, at any time until the first anniversary of the Closing Date, (a) a governmental body of the People's Republic of China ("PRC") takes action adversely affecting the Transaction or suspending the business operations of the Company's affiliate companies in the PRC, which action cannot be corrected by the Company within a 60-day period; or (b) if the auditing firm to be retained by the Company pursuant to the Agreement or the Company's US legal counsel resigns due to a dispute with the Company; provided that the Debentures and Warrants are returned to the Company for cancellation.
 - Within one year from the Closing Date, if the Company offers, sells or otherwise dispose of any of its equity securities or their equivalents (with certain exceptions as set forth in the Agreement), then the Purchasers have a preemptive right to purchase such equity securities or equivalents in an amount that the common shares underlying their then outstanding Debentures and Warrants bear to the then total outstanding common shares.
 - If at any time after the Closing Date the Company files a registration statement pursuant to an offering of the Company's common stock or its equivalent, then the Company is obligated to include the common shares underlying the Purchasers' then outstanding Debentures and Warrants in such registration statement, provided that the amount of such shares that the Company is obligated to include shall not exceed the amount imposed under Rule 415 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act").

The Debentures bear interest at 18% per year and mature one year from the Closing Date (the “Maturity Date”), provided that the principals and interests are due immediately upon an event of default, as such term is defined in the Debentures. The Debenture holders have the right at any time to convert all or part of the outstanding principal amount of the Debentures and any accrued and unpaid interest into common shares of the Company at the then effective conversion price, initially being $0.15 per share. However, if the Company completes a Qualifying Financing Transaction (as defined in the Debentures) and the listing of its common stock on a Subsequent Market on or before the Maturity Date, all interests due under the Debentures are waived and all of the outstanding principal amount of the Debentures will automatically convert into common shares. The Debentures are secured by a personal guarantee from the Chairman of the Company.

The Warrants entitle each Purchaser to purchase up to a number of common shares (the “Warrant Shares”) equal to 100% of the number of common shares that would be issuable upon conversion of the Debenture purchased by such Purchaser in the Transaction. The Warrants have an initial exercise price of $0.15 per share. 25% of the Warrant Shares vest and are immediately exercisable at the Closing Date. Thereafter, up to 5% of the Warrant Shares shall vest and become exercisable at the end of every one-month period beginning on October 31, 2008, until the sooner of the listing of the Company’s common stock on a Subsequent Market, or the repayment in full of the Debentures, or until 100% of the Warrant Shares are vested. Any portion of the Warrant Shares not vested prior to the earlier of the Subsequent Market listing or repayment of the Debentures shall be deemed void. The Warrants are exercisable for a period of three years from the Closing Date.

The initial conversion price of the Debentures is subject to adjustments should the Company issue more shares of common stock or securities convertible into common stock, including rights, options or warrants to subscribe for common shares, for less than the initial conversion price and without offering the same to the Purchasers. In the case of adjustments to the conversion price, the conversion price shall be adjusted to the consideration received or receivable by the Company for each share of common stock issued or issuable. The initial conversion price of the Debentures and the initial exercises price of the Warrants are also subject to adjustment for other customary adjustment events such as any stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or other similar transaction.

In connection with the Transaction, the Company’s Chairman, entered into an escrow agreement (the “Escrow Agreement”) with the Purchasers pursuant to which he has agreed to place a certain number of the Company’s common shares that he owns into escrow (the “Escrow Shares”). Under the terms of the Escrow Agreement, one-half of the Escrow Shares will be released back to the Chairman if the Company meets certain financial milestones described in the Escrow Agreement at the end of fiscal year ended December 31, 2008; otherwise, these Escrow Shares will be distributed to the Purchasers in proportion to each Purchaser’s purchase price for its Debenture and Warrant. Likewise, the remaining half of the Escrow Shares will be released back to the Chairman if the Company meets certain financial milestones described in the escrow agreement at the end of fiscal year ended December 31, 2009; otherwise, these Escrow Shares will be proportionately distributed to the Purchasers.

The foregoing summary of the Debentures, Warrants and related agreements is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Agreement, the form of the Debenture, the form of Warrant and the Escrow Agreement included as exhibits hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
