Section 1—Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 19, 2019, The Toro Company (“Toro”) entered into a term loan credit agreement (the “Term Loan Credit Agreement”) with certain lenders, Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent, (the “Administrative Agent”), and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as syndication agents (together, the “Syndication Agents”). The Term Loan Credit Agreement provides for an aggregate credit commitment of up to $500 million to Toro consisting of: (a) a three-year unsecured term loan credit facility up to an aggregate principal amount of $200 million (the “Three-Year Facility”) and (b) a five-year unsecured term loan credit facility up to an aggregate principal amount of $300 million (the “Five-Year Facility” and, collectively with the Three-Year Facility, the “Facilities”).

Subject to customary closing conditions, funds are available under the Term Loan Credit Agreement (a) to finance Toro’s acquisition of The Charles Machine Works, Inc. and its subsidiaries, including the payment of costs, fees and expenses related to such acquisition and (b) for general corporate purposes. Loans under the Facilities are available in U.S. Dollars.

In addition to certain initial fees payable to the Administrative Agent, the Syndication Agents and their respective affiliates, Toro is obligated to pay (a) an administrative agency fee to the Administrative Agent annually in advance and (b) beginning 90 days after the execution of the Term Loan Credit Agreement, provided that Toro has not requested that the lenders fund the loans under the Facilities, a ticking fee based on the daily average of undrawn commitments under the Facilities, which is payable to the lenders on the earlier of (i) the date the loans under the Facilities are funded and (ii) the termination or expiration of the commitments. At the option of Toro, any loan under the Facilities will bear interest at a variable rate generally based on LIBOR or an alternative variable rate based on the highest of the Bank of America prime rate, the federal funds rate or a rate generally based on LIBOR, in each case depending on the leverage ratio (as measured quarterly and defined as the ratio of (a) total indebtedness to (b) consolidated EBIT (earnings before interest and taxes) plus depreciation and amortization expense) and debt rating of Toro, each as identified in the Term Loan Credit Agreement. Interest is payable quarterly in arrears. Beginning with the last business day of the thirteenth (13th) calendar quarter ending after the loans under the Facilities are funded, Toro will make quarterly amortization payments on the Five-Year Facility equal to 2.50% of the aggregate principal amount of the loans funded under such Facility.

The Term Loan Credit Agreement contains customary covenants regarding Toro and its subsidiaries, including, without limitation: financial covenants, such as the maintenance of minimum interest coverage and maximum leverage ratios; and negative covenants, which, among other things, limit dividends, disposition of assets, consolidations and mergers, liens and other matters customarily restricted in such agreements. Most of these restrictions are subject to certain minimum thresholds and exceptions. The Term Loan Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default, including, without limitation, payment defaults, material inaccuracy of representations and warranties, covenant defaults, bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings, cross-defaults to certain other agreements, and change of control.

Bank of America Merrill Lynch, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC served as joint lead arrangers and joint bookrunners for the Facilities, for which they each received customary compensation. In addition, the Administrative Agent, the Syndication Agents and certain of the other lenders and their respective affiliates have in the past performed, and may in the future from time to time perform, investment banking, financial advisory, lending and/or commercial banking services for Toro and its subsidiaries, for which service they have in the past received, and may in the future receive, customary compensation and reimbursement of expenses.

The foregoing description of the Term Loan Credit Agreement is a summary of the material terms of such agreement, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains not only historical information, but also forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act, and that are subject to the safe harbor created by those sections. In addition, Toro or others on its behalf may make forward-looking statements, including statements relating to the pending merger of The Charles Machine Works, Inc. (the "Merger"), from time to time in oral presentations, including telephone conferences and/or web casts open to the public, in press releases or reports, on our web sites or otherwise. Statements that are not historical are forward-looking and reflect expectations and assumptions. Forward-looking statements are based on Toro's current expectations of future events, and often can be identified in this report and elsewhere by using words such as "expect," "strive," "looking ahead," "outlook," "guidance," "forecast," "goal," "optimistic," "anticipate," "continue," "plan," "estimate," "project," "believe," "should," "could," "will," "would," "possible," "may," "likely," "intend," "can," "seek," "potential," "pro forma," or the negative thereof and similar expressions or future dates. The forward-looking statements in this report about the Merger include Toro's expectations with regard to the use of the Term Loan Credit Agreement in connection with financing the Merger and the timing of the potential closing of the Merger. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected or implied. The following are some of the factors known to Toro that could cause Toro's actual results to differ materially from what Toro has anticipated in its forward-looking statements: delays in completing the Merger and the risk that the Merger may not be completed at all; business disruption during the pendency of and following the Merger; failure to satisfy closing conditions necessary to obtain funding under the Term Loan Credit Agreement; and general adverse business, economic or competitive conditions. For more information regarding these and other uncertainties and factors that could cause Toro's actual results to differ materially from what it has anticipated in its forward-looking statements or otherwise could materially adversely affect its business, financial condition or operating results, see Toro's most recently filed Annual Report on Form 10-K, Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors" and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, Part II, Item IA, "Risk Factors". All forward-looking statements included in this report are expressly qualified in their entirety by the foregoing cautionary statements. Toro cautions readers not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement which speaks only as of the date made and to recognize that forward-looking statements are predictions of future results, which may not occur as anticipated. Actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements and from historical results, due to the risks and uncertainties described above, the risks described in Toro's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors" and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, Part II, Item 1A, "Risk Factors," as well as others that Toro may consider immaterial or does not anticipate at this time. The foregoing risks and uncertainties are not exclusive and further information concerning Toro and its businesses, including factors that potentially could materially affect Toro's financial results or condition, may emerge from time to time. Toro undertakes no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect actual results or changes in factors or assumptions affecting such forward-looking statements. Toro advises you, however, to consult any further disclosures it makes on related subjects in its future Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and Current Reports on Form 8-K that Toro may file with or furnish to the SEC.
