Section 1 – Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 30, 2019, The Toro Company (“Toro”) entered into a note purchase agreement (the “Note Purchase Agreement”) with the purchasers named therein pursuant to which Toro agreed to issue and sell, and the purchasers agreed to purchase, an aggregate principal amount of $100 million of Toro’s 3.81% Series A Senior Notes due June 15, 2029 (the “Series A Notes”) and $100 million of its 3.91% Series B Senior Notes due June 15, 2031 (the “Series B Notes” and, together with the Series A Notes, the “Notes”). Subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, the Notes may be issued under the Note Purchase Agreement at any time on or prior to June 27, 2019. The Notes will be issued in a private placement to certain “accredited investors” pursuant to Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”).

The Notes will be senior unsecured obligations of Toro. Interest on the Notes will be payable semiannually on the 15th day of June and December in each year, commencing on December 15, 2019.

Toro will have the right to prepay all or a portion of any series of Notes upon notice to the holders for 100% of the principal amount so prepaid plus a make-whole premium, as set forth in the Note Purchase Agreement, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of prepayment. In addition, at any time on or after the date that is 90 days prior to the maturity date of the applicable series of Notes, Toro will have the right to prepay all of such series of Notes for 100% of the principal amount so prepaid, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of prepayment. Upon the occurrence of certain change of control events, holders of the Notes will have the right to require that Toro purchase such holder’s Notes in cash at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of repurchase.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of Toro, as well as certain customary covenants, including, without limitation, financial covenants, such as the maintenance of minimum interest coverage and maximum leverage ratios, and other covenants, which, among other things, provide limitations on transactions with affiliates, merger, consolidation and sale of assets, liens and priority debt. The Note Purchase Agreement also contains customary events of default (subject in certain cases to specified cure periods), including, but not limited to, non-payment, breach of covenants, material inaccuracies of representations and warranties, cross defaults, and bankruptcy or other insolvency events.

Toro expects to use the proceeds from the Notes to repay indebtedness under its existing senior unsecured revolving credit facility and for general corporate purposes.

The Notes will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and may not be offered or sold absent registration under the Securities Act, or pursuant to an applicable exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws.

The foregoing description of the Note Purchase Agreement is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.

Section 2— Financial Information

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The information included, or incorporated by reference, in Item 1.01 of this Current Report is incorporated by reference into this Item 2.03 of this Current Report on Form 8-K.
