Item 1.01. Entry into Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 22, 2016, Exterran Corporation (“Exterran” or the “Company”) entered into that certain First Amendment, Consent and Waiver to Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the “First Amendment”) by and among Exterran Energy Solutions, L.P. (“EESLP”), the Company, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent, and the lenders party thereto. The First Amendment waives and modifies certain provisions under the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of October 5, 2015 (the “Credit Agreement”), by and among EESLP, as borrower, the Company, as a guarantor, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent, and various financial institutions as lenders, as a result of the events described under Item 4.02 below related to the Company’s Belleli Energy subsidiary (“Belleli”) and its respective subsidiaries (including, without limitation, the need for the Company to restate its previously issued financial statements as described below).

Under the First Amendment, the lenders waive, among other things, (1) any potential event of default arising under the Credit Agreement as a result of the potential inaccuracy of certain representations and warranties regarding the Company’s prior period financial information and previously delivered compliance certificate for the 2015 fiscal year and (2) any requirement that EESLP or the Company make any representations and warranties as to the Company’s prior period financial statements and other prior period financial information. These waivers terminate on June 30, 2016, unless on or prior to that date, the Company delivers replacement financial information for its 2015 audited financial statements, together with a replacement compliance certificate demonstrating the Company’s compliance for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 with the financial covenants set forth in the Credit Agreement.

The First Amendment also extends to no later than June 30, 2016 the deadline by which the Company is required to deliver to the lenders its quarterly report for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2016 to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the related compliance certificate demonstrating compliance with the financial covenants set forth in the Credit Agreement.

The First Amendment also amends the Credit Agreement to, among other things:

provide that LIBOR loans will bear interest at the adjusted LIBOR rate plus 2.75% and base rate loans will bear interest at the Base Rate plus 1.75% until June 30, 2016 (or, if earlier, the date we deliver replacement financial information for the Company’s 2015 audited financial statements, together with a replacement compliance); and add a condition precedent to the borrowing of loans that, after giving effect to the application of the proceeds of each borrowing, the Company’s consolidated cash balance (as defined in the First Amendment) will not exceed $30,000,000 plus certain other amounts.

The Company is not aware, and has not been made aware, that there has been any breach of representation, breach of covenant or event of default under the Credit Agreement. However, the Company believed it was prudent to obtain the waivers and consents contained in the First Amendment as a precautionary measure to allow for the orderly completion of the internal investigation described below.

As of March 31, 2016, the Company had approximately $190 million in outstanding borrowings and approximately $80 million in outstanding letters of credit under its revolving credit facility. As of that date, taking into account guarantees through letters of credit, the Company had undrawn capacity of approximately $410 million under its revolving credit facility.

The foregoing description of the First Amendment does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the First Amendment, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 4.02. Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review.

During the preparation of its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2016, senior management of the Company identified possible errors relating to the application of percentage-of-completion accounting principles to specific engineering, procurement and construction (“EPC”) projects in the Middle East by its Belleli subsidiary during 2015. Belleli is headquartered in Mantova, Italy, and the Company’s Eastern Hemisphere operations are based in Dubai.

Management promptly reported the matter to the Audit Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors, which immediately retained counsel, who in turn retained a forensic accounting firm, to initiate an internal investigation.

On April 21, 2016, the Company's management and the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors determined, based on the preliminary results of the internal investigation, that the Company's consolidated and combined financial statements for 2015 and related report of independent registered public accounting firm should no longer be relied upon as a result of material errors, and possible irregularities, relating to the accounting for certain Belleli EPC contracts. Accordingly, Exterran's consolidated and combined financial statements for 2015 will be restated.

While management believes the errors identified to date, related to Belleli's application of percentage-of-completion accounting principles to certain EPC projects in the Middle East, materially affect only the 2015 consolidated and combined financial statements, the Audit Committee's internal investigation remains ongoing, and it is possible that additional errors affecting other periods, including interim periods, could be identified. As a result, management has not determined whether any other financial statements should be restated or the amounts of any required adjustments to its previously reported financial statements. Following the completion of the internal investigation, the Company will file amended periodic reports for any periods being restated.

The Company's management and the Audit Committee have discussed the matters disclosed in this report with Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Company's independent accountants.

Exterran has notified the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange of the events described in this report.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.
