- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

☒Yes ☐No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Registrant's Form 10-Q, when filed, will report an unaudited consolidated net loss of approximately $0.7 million for the three months ended June 30, 2002, compared to unaudited consolidated net income of approximately $5.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2001. The net loss for the three months ended June 30, 2002 includes the affect of a business interruption at a manufacturing facility in the Company's Chemical Business resulting from high winds and a likely tornado (amount not presently determinable); lower profit margins relating to the sales of agricultural products by the Company's Chemical Business (approximately $0.9 million); and, reduced sales of explosive products in the Company' Chemical Business as a result of license revocation which occurred in the first quarter of 2002 (approximately $1.5 million). The net income for the three months ended June 30, 2001 included a gain resulting from termination of certain firm purchase commitments of approximately $2.3 million.
