Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

As described below, on July 22, 2005, Modine Manufacturing Company (“Modine”) completed the previously announced spin off of its aftermarket business on a debt-free and tax-free basis to its shareholders and immediate merger of the spun off business into Transpro, Inc. (“Transpro”) to form a combined company named Proliance International, Inc.

Effective July 22, 2005, pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 31, 2005, among Modine, Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. and Transpro, Inc. (the “Merger Agreement”), and as amended June 16, 2005, Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. was merged with and into Transpro, with Transpro surviving the merger as the combined company. For accounting purposes, Transpro is considered the acquirer of Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. Upon effectiveness of the merger, Transpro changed its name to Proliance International, Inc.

In connection with and immediately prior to the merger, Modine spun-off its aftermarket business by distributing shares of Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. common stock to holders of Modine common stock of record as of July 21, 2005, on a one share-for-one share basis (the “Distribution”) pursuant to the terms of the Contribution Agreement, dated as of January 31, 2005, by and among Modine, Modine, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Modine, Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc., and Transpro.

Modine shareholders retain their Modine common shares and, in the merger, received 0.235681 of a share of common stock of the combined company in exchange for each share of Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. common stock issued to them in the Distribution. Immediately following the merger, Modine shareholders owned approximately 52% of Proliance International’s common stock on a fully diluted basis, and Transpro’s pre-merger shareholders owned the other 48%.

Modine received rulings from the Internal Revenue Service to the effect that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Distribution will generally be tax-free to Modine and the shareholders of Modine, and Modine shareholders will generally not recognize taxable gain or loss in the merger (except with respect to cash received by Modine shareholders in lieu of a fractional share interest in common stock of the combined company).

Modine is not aware of any material relationship between Transpro and Modine or any of its affiliates, any director or officer of Modine or any associates of any such director or officer that existed at the date of the Distribution and the merger, except as disclosed herein and in the proxy statement/prospectus-information statement included in Transpro’s Registration Statement on Form S-4 (Registration No. 333-124527) and previously distributed to Modine shareholders.

The foregoing description of the merger, the Merger Agreement, the letter agreement amending the Merger Agreement and the Contribution Agreement, is qualified in its entirety by reference to such agreements and the press release issued by Modine on July 22, 2005, copies of which are filed herewith as Exhibits 2.1, 2.2, 2.3 and 99.1, respectively, and each of such exhibits is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.06 Material Impairments.

As previously disclosed in Modine’s Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 26, 2005, in accordance with applicable accounting requirements, Modine expects to be able to classify its aftermarket business as a discontinued operation in the second quarter of fiscal 2006. At that time, Modine expects to record a non-cash, after-tax charge to discontinued operations of approximately $40-55 million to reflect the difference between the value which Modine shareholders received in the new company, a function of the stock price of Transpro, Inc. at the closing, and the asset carrying value of Modine’s aftermarket business. The terms of certain agreements relative to the above-described transaction (such as those relating to supply, licensing and transitional services) were agreed upon immediately prior to or on July 22, 2005. As a result, Modine is in the process of completing, but has not yet completed its analysis relating to the classification of the aftermarket business and cannot state definitively at this time that the business will be classified as a discontinued operation. Upon completion of its analysis, Modine will promptly make any necessary filings to ensure appropriate public disclosure.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(b) Pro forma financial information.

Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information of Modine is included herein. The presentation of this financial information is consistent with the current status of Modine's analysis of the classification of the aftermarket business as described in Item 2.06 above.
