Stifel Financial Corp (the "Company") was not able to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the calendar year ended December 31, 2007 within the prescribed time period, as the process of preparing the Company's financial statements for the period ended December 31, 2007 took longer than expected as a result of its acquisitions and the change in its filing status to a "bank holding company," which required additional time for management to compile and verify the data required to be included in the report because of such change. As a result, the Company was unable to complete its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 on or before the filing deadline with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 29, 2008 without unreasonable effort or expense.

The Company anticipates filing its Annual Report on Form 10-K no later than the 15th calendar day following the prescribed due date.
