ITEM 8.01: Other Events.

On March 17, 2016, The Nasdaq Stock Market filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission Form 25-NSE to formally delist from the Nasdaq Global Select Market Emmis Communications Corporation's (the "Company" or "our") 6.25% Series A Non-Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock (formerly listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "EMMSP") ("Preferred Stock"). The delisting will take effect on March 28, 2016. Thus, pursuant to our articles of incorporation, each outstanding share of Preferred Stock will be automatically converted on April 4, 2016, into our Class A Common Stock at a ratio of 2.80 shares of Class A Common Stock for each share of Preferred Stock.

Note to this Form 8-K: Certain statements included in this report which are not statements of historical fact, including but not limited to those identified with the words "expect," "will" or "look" are intended to be, and are, by this Note, identified as "forward-looking statements," as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Such statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company to be materially different from any future result, performance or achievement expressed or implied by such forward-looking statement. Such factors include, among others:

- general economic and business conditions;
- fluctuations in the demand for advertising and demand for different types of advertising media;
- our ability to service our outstanding debt;
- competition from new or different media and technologies;
- loss of key personnel;
- increased competition in our markets and the broadcasting industry, including our competitors changing the format of a station they operate to more directly compete with a station we operate in the same market;
- our ability to attract and secure programming, on-air talent, writers and photographers;
- inability to obtain (or to obtain timely) necessary approvals for purchase or sale transactions or to complete the transactions for other reasons generally beyond our control;
- increases in the costs of programming, including on-air talent;
 - fluctuations in the market price of publicly traded or other securities;
- new or changing regulations of the Federal Communications Commission or other governmental agencies;
 - enforcement of rules and regulations of governmental and other entities to which the Company is subject;
- changes in radio audience measurement methodologies;
- war, terrorist acts or political instability; and
- other factors mentioned in documents filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Emmis does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements because of new information, future events or otherwise.

Signatures.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized.
