Investing in foreign securities presents certain risks, such as currency fluctuations, political and economic changes, and market risks. Any fund that concentrates in a particular segment of the market will generally be more volatile than a fund that invests more broadly.

Semi-Annual Report

June 30, 2012

The New Germany

Fund, Inc.

LETTER TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

Dear Shareholder,

For the six months ended June 30, 2012, the New Germany Fund's total return in U.S. dollars (USD) was 9.67% based on net asset value and 9.80% based on market price. During the same period, the total return of the Fund's benchmark, the Midcap Market Performance Index, was 12.35%.¹

The sectors contributing positively to the Fund in the period were industrials, driven by good performance from stock picks in the aerospace and defense segments, and consumer staples, which benefited from the defensively positioned packaged food.² For the market overall, the sectors and industries outperforming during the April/May correction were food and beverages, health care and consumer staples.

The sectors and segments detracting most from performance in April/May were financials, construction and information technology. The positive performers were mostly related to the German real estate industry, which is benefiting from low interest rates and rising real estate prices. The biggest sector detractors for the Fund during the period were information technology, dragged down by weakness in the systems software and computer hardware segments, and consumer discretionary, where on a relative basis to the benchmark, the Fund underperformed even though it did not own some of the stocks in the cable and satellite and auto parts and equipment segments, which impacted the overall market.³

In the semi-annual period, the fund's stock selection in industrials, specifically in aerospace and defense companies including MTU Aero Engines Holding AG, and consumer staples including the food company Suedzucker AG, contributed positively to the funds performance. The fund's relative performance versus the benchmark suffered in large part due to two stocks included in the fund's benchmark, but not owned by the fund. The first was Sky Deutschland, a satellite TV company, which rose more than 100% in the first half year and the second was Rhön-Klinikum, a Germany-based provider of health care services which represented a 2% position in the benchmark, and whose stock price increased close to 50% due to a takeover bid on April 26 from its German competitor, Fresenius.

After a strong start for equity markets during the first few months of the year, markets overall began correcting well into April and May, with a bottom seen in early June. Ongoing political uncertainty during the period, aggravated by worries about the outcome of the Greek and French elections, deepened the already existing tensions in the European sovereign bond market. Furthermore, many European markets noticed significant declines in the Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI), a leading economic indicator, to the mid-40 levels, which is consistent with a decline of gross domestic product (GDP) growth in the second quarter.^{4,5} Concurrently, slowing growth in China and the U.S. also negatively affected the markets.

While the key German economic numbers during the first quarter were strong, they too slowed markedly in the second quarter. The most important German index, the Ifo Business Climate Index (Ifo Index), peaked in April and had a sharp setback in May and June, falling to levels last seen in Q1 2010.⁶ The Ifo index, which gives a good indication of the six-month outlook, also fell to levels last seen in October 2011. This is further evidence that the European sovereign debt crisis is increasingly affecting the German export outlook, which has remained very firm thus far.⁷ Germany's unemployment rate remains low at 6.7%, though the reduced Ifo index indicates slower hiring going forward. On the back of strong salary hikes in many industries early in the year, German consumer confidence, as measured by the German Consumer Confidence Index (GfK), was able to hold up very well, falling only marginally from Q1 highs and suggesting the German consumer outlook remains firm.⁸

Economic Outlook

The German equity market, like the markets in the rest of Europe, should continue to be dominated by the European sovereign debt crisis as well as the global growth slowdown, which significantly affects the German export-driven economy. For equity markets to move significantly higher, investors will need to gain more confidence in a more permanent resolution to the European debt crisis. This could result from significant policy action on one or more fronts: a banking union, a fiscal union, continued European Central Bank bond-buying, an enlargement of the LTRO (long-term refinancing operations) program or, best of all, from an improvement in the global economy.

While the structural trends for deleveraging in the developed world are likely to continue to drag on global growth for years to come, a cyclical upswing could materialize in the second half of the year, given the falling oil prices as well as lower prices for other commodities. These declines should lower inflationary pressure and give debt-burdened consumers some relief. Lower inflationary pressure also helps central banks ease monetary policy, especially in emerging markets, and both could stimulate world growth in the second half of the year so long as the European crisis is contained.

On April 27, 2012, the Fund's non-fundamental limit on investments in equity or equity-linked securities of non-German companies in any single Western European country was increased from 10% to 15% of total assets to provide the portfolio manager with greater flexibility.

The Fund's discount to net asset value averaged 10.24% for the six months ended June 30, 2012, compared with a discount of 9.00% for the same period a year earlier. During the period, the Fund continued to repurchase shares in the open market. In addition, on January 31, 2012, the Fund announced the extension of its Discount Management Program for another two years. Please see Note 7 for details regarding the Fund's share repurchases and Discount Management Program.

This Fund is diversified, but primarily focuses its investments in Germany, thereby increasing its vulnerability to developments in that country. Investing in foreign securities presents certain risks, such as currency fluctuations, political and economic changes and market risks. Any fund that concentrates in a particular segment of the market will generally be more volatile than a fund that invests more broadly.

Closed-end funds, unlike open-end funds, are not continuously offered. Shares, once issued, are traded in the open market. Shares of closed-end funds frequently trade at a discount to net asset value. The price of the Fund's shares is determined by a number of factors, several of which are beyond the control of the Fund. Therefore, the Fund cannot predict whether its shares will trade at, below, or above net asset value.

The Fund has elected to be subject to the statutory calculation, notification and publication requirements of the German Investment Tax Act (Investmentsteuergesetz) (the "Act") for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011 and intends to elect to be subject to the Act for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2012. This election allows investors based in Germany to invest in the Fund without adverse tax consequences.

INTERVIEW WITH THE LEAD PORTFOLIO MANAGER — RAINER VERMEHREN

Question: Germany has repeatedly revised its expected fiscal revenue projections upward. How does this fit with current economic expectations?

Answer: Germany's finance minister, Wolfgang Schäuble, can indeed count on receiving higher tax revenues than what official sources were estimating just two months ago. New calculations by the German Institute for Economic Research (DIW) show that the German state is expected to collect €597.5 billion in taxes this year and €620.8 billion in 2013, surpassing previous estimates by €1 billion and € 2.7 billion, respectively, even after taking into consideration a €2 billion planned personal income tax break for 2013. Rising wages partly explain this trend, signaling higher disposable income for individuals, which could result in higher consumption. The latest readings from the German Consumer Confidence Index (GfK) support this argument.¹ In sharp contrast to this development, however, are the recent readings from the Ifo Business Climate Index, which have fallen back to levels last seen in Q1 2010.² In summary, while the current German consumer climate remains firm, the business outlook has started to roll over.

Question: Have earnings for the mid-cap market segment, the focus universe for this fund, continued their positive development from the past quarter?

Answer: On a relative basis, earnings estimates for the MDAX (the German index of 50 mid-cap stocks that rank below the large-cap DAX index) have been excellent, increasing by 2.7% and 3.5% over the last three-month and six-month periods, respectively. In comparison, the broad STOXX Europe 600 Index saw one of the strongest downturns in the period, falling by 2.6% and 7.0% over the past three-month and six-month periods, respectively.³ Finland, Greece, Portugal and Spain saw double-digit declines, while earnings estimates for German companies overall have fared better than the European average. Earnings estimates for the larger-capitalized DAX index also held up quite well, falling by only 2.2% over the past quarter.⁴ The strongest German industries in the period in terms of 2012 earnings expectations upgrades include food and beverages, automobiles, and pharmaceuticals and health care. Total earnings growth in 2012 for the MDAX is expected to be 13.5%, which seems achievable if the Euro crisis is contained.

1 The German Consumer Confidence Index (GfK) is a monthly survey of more than 2,000 consumer interviews by GfK, a market research organization, on behalf of the EU commission, which gauges consumer sentiment about personal spending patterns, inflationary expectations and opinions on economic outlook.

2 The Ifo Business Climate Index is a monthly survey that queries German firms on the current German business climate as well as their expectations for the next six months.

3 The STOXX Europe 600 Index consists of a fixed number of 600 components, representing large-, mid- and small-capitalization companies across 18 countries of the European region: Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and the United Kingdom.

4 The Midcap Market Performance Index is a total-return index that is composed of various mid-cap securities across all sectors of the MDAX and TecDAX. MDAX is a total-rate-of-return index of 50 mid-cap issues that rank below the DAX. DAX is a total-rate-of-return index of 30 selected German blue chip stocks traded on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange. TecDAX is a total-return index that tracks the 30 largest and most liquid issues from the various technology sectors of the Prime Segment beneath the DAX.

Index returns assume reinvestment of dividends and, unlike fund returns, do not reflect any fees or expenses. It is not possible to invest directly in an index.

Fair Value Measurements

Various inputs are used in determining the value of the Fund's investments. These inputs are summarized in three broad levels. Level 1 includes quoted prices in active markets for identical securities. Level 2 includes other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds and credit risk). Level 3 includes significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments). The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the inputs used as of June 30, 2012 in valuing the Fund's investments. For information on the Fund's policy regarding the valuation of investments, please refer to the Security Valuation section of Note 1 in the accompanying Notes to Financial Statements.

† Total return based on net asset value reflects changes in the Fund's net asset value during each period. Total return based on market value reflects changes in market value during each period. Each figure includes reinvestments of dividend and capital gain distributions, if any. These figures will differ depending upon the level of any discount from or premium to net asset value at which the Fund's shares trade during the period.

 Annualized.

* Not Annualized. The ratio for the six-months ended June 30, 2012 has not been annualized since the Fund believes it would not be appropriate because the Fund's dividend income is not earned ratably throughout the fiscal year.

NOTE 1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The New Germany Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") was incorporated in Maryland on January 16, 1990 as a non-diversified, closed-end management investment company. The Fund commenced investment operations on January 30, 1990. The Fund became a diversified fund on October 26, 2007.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements. The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Security Valuation: The Fund calculates its net asset value per share for publication at 11:30 a.m., New York time.

Various inputs are used in determining the value of the Fund's investments. These inputs are summarized in three broad levels. Level 1 includes quoted prices in active markets for identical securities. Level 2 includes other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, and credit risk). Level 3 includes significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments). The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

Equity securities are valued at the most recent sale price or official closing price reported on the exchange or over-the-counter market on which they trade prior to the time of valuation and are categorized as Level 1 securities. Securities for which no sales are reported are valued at the calculated mean between the most recent bid and asked quotations on the relevant market or, if a mean cannot be determined, at the most recent bid quotation.

Money market instruments purchased with an original or remaining maturity of sixty days or less, maturing at par, are valued at amortized cost, which approximates value, and are categorized as Level 2. Investments in open-end investment companies are valued at their net asset value each business day and are categorized as Level 1.

Securities and other assets for which market quotations are not readily available or for which the above valuation procedures are deemed not to reflect fair value are valued in a manner that is intended to reflect their fair value as determined in accordance with procedures approved by the Board and are generally categorized as Level 3. In accordance with the Fund's valuation procedures, factors used in determining value may include, but are not limited to, the type of the security; the size of the holding; the initial cost of the security; the existence of any contractual restrictions on the security's disposition; the price and extent of public trading in similar securities of the issuer or of comparable companies; quotations or evaluated prices from broker-dealers and/or the appropriate stock exchange (for exchange-traded securities); an analysis of the company's or issuer's financial statements; an evaluation of the forces that influence the issuer and the market(s) in which the security is purchased and sold and with respect to debt securities; the maturity, coupon, creditworthiness, currency denomination, and the movement of the market in which the security is normally traded. The value determined under these procedures may differ from published values for the same securities.

Disclosure about the classification of the fair value measurements is included in a table following the Fund's Schedule of Investments.

Securities Transactions and Investment Income: Investment transactions are accounted for on a trade date plus one basis for daily net asset value calculations. However, for financial reporting purposes, investment security transactions are reported on trade date. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date net of foreign withholding taxes. Certain dividends from foreign securities may be recorded subsequent to the ex-dividend date as soon as the Fund is informed of such dividends. Realized gains and losses from investment transactions are recorded on an identified cost basis and may include proceeds from litigation.

Securities Lending: The Fund lends securities to certain financial institutions. The Fund retains beneficial ownership of the securities it has loaned and continues to receive interest and dividends paid by the issuer of securities and to participate in any changes in their market value. The Fund requires the borrowers of the securities to maintain collateral with the Fund consisting of either cash or liquid, unencumbered assets having a value in excess of the value of the securities loaned. When the collateral falls below specified amounts, the lending agent will use its best effort to obtain additional collateral on the next business day to meet required amounts under the security lending agreement. The Fund may invest the cash collateral into a joint trading account in an affiliated money market fund pursuant to Exemptive Orders issued by the SEC. Deutsche Investment Management Americas Inc. receives a management fee (0.11% annualized effective rate as of June 30, 2012) on the cash collateral invested in the affiliated money fund. The Fund receives compensation for lending its securities either in the form of fees or by earning interest on invested cash collateral net of borrower rebates and fees paid to a lending agent. Either the Fund or the borrower may terminate the loan. There may be risks of delay and costs in recovery of securities or even loss of rights in the collateral should the borrower of the securities fail financially. The Fund is subject to all investment risks associated with the reinvestment of any cash collateral received, including, but not limited to, interest rate, credit and liquidity risk associated with such investments.

Foreign Currency Translation: The books and records of the Fund are maintained in United States dollars.

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currency are translated into United States dollars at the 11:00 a.m. midpoint of the buying and selling spot rates quoted by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. Purchases and sales of investment securities, income and expenses are reported at the rate of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions. The portion of both realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments that results from fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates is not separately disclosed but is included with net realized and unrealized gain/appreciation and loss/depreciation on investments.

At June 30, 2012, the exchange rate was Euro 1.2690 to U.S. $1.00.

Contingencies: In the normal course of business, the Fund may enter into contracts with service providers that contain general indemnification clauses. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet been made. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss to be remote.

Taxes: No provision has been made for United States Federal income tax because the Fund intends to meet the requirements of the United States Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its taxable income to its shareholders.

Additionally, based on the Fund's understanding of the tax rules and rates related to income, gains and transactions for the foreign jurisdictions in which it invests, the Fund will provide for foreign taxes, and where appropriate, deferred foreign taxes.

Under the Regulated Investment Company Modernization Act of 2010, net capital losses may be carried forward indefinitely, and their character is retained as short-term and/or long-term. Previously, net capital losses were carried forward for eight years and treated as short-term losses. As a transition rule, the Act requires that post-enactment net capital losses be used before pre-enactment net capital losses.

At December 31, 2011, the Fund had a net tax basis capital loss carryforward of approximately $5,499,000 of pre-enactment losses, which may be applied against any realized net taxable capital gains of each succeeding year until fully utilized or until December 31, 2017, the expiration date, whichever occurs first.

In addition, from November 1, 2011 to December 31, 2011, the Fund elects to defer qualified late year losses of approximately $1,040,000 of net realized long-term capital losses and approximately $1,124,000 of net ordinary losses. As permitted by tax regulations, the Fund intends to elect to defer these losses and treat them as arising in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012.

The Fund has reviewed the tax positions for the open tax years as of December 31, 2011 and has determined that no provision for income tax is required in the Fund's financial statements. The Fund's federal tax returns for the prior three fiscal years remain open subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

THE NEW GERMANY FUND, INC.

Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders: The Fund records dividends and distributions to its shareholders on the ex-dividend date. Income and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with United States federal income tax regulations which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. These differences primarily relate to investments in foreign denominated investments, investments in foreign passive investment companies, recognition of certain foreign currency gains (losses) as ordinary income (loss) and certain securities sold at a loss. As a result, net investment income (loss) and net realized gain (loss) on investment transactions for a reporting period may differ significantly from distributions during such period. Accordingly, the Fund may periodically make reclassifications among certain of its capital accounts without impacting the net asset value of the Fund.

NOTE 2. INVESTMENT ADVISORY AND ADMINISTRATION AGREEMENTS

The Fund is party to an Investment Advisory Agreement with Deutsche Asset Management International GmbH ("DeAMI"). The Fund also is party to an Administration Agreement with Deutsche Investment Management Americas Inc. ("DIMA"). DeAMI and DIMA are affiliated companies.

Prior to February 1, 2012, the Fund was party to a Management Agreement with DIMA that provided DIMA with a fee, computed weekly and payable monthly, at the annual rates of 0.65% of the Fund's average weekly net assets up to $100 million, 0.55% of such assets in excess of $100 million and up to $500 million, 0.50% of such assets in excess of $500 million. The Investment Advisory Agreement provided DeAMI with a fee, computed weekly and payable monthly, at the annual rates of 0.35% of the Fund's average weekly net assets up to $100 million and 0.25% of such assets in excess of $100 million

Pursuant to the Management Agreement, DIMA was the corporate manager and administrator of the Fund and, subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors and pursuant to recommendations made by DeAMI, determined the suitable securities for investment by the Fund. DIMA also provided office facilities and certain administrative, clerical and bookkeeping services for the Fund. Pursuant to the Investment Advisory Agreement, DeAMI, in accordance with the Fund's stated investment objective, policies and restrictions, made recommendations to DIMA with respect to the Fund's investments and, upon instructions given by DIMA as to suitable securities for investment by the Fund, transmitted purchase and sale orders and selects brokers and dealers to execute portfolio transactions on behalf of the Fund.

For the one-month period ended January 31, 2012, the combined fee pursuant to the Management and Investment Advisory Agreements was equivalent to an annualized effective rate of 0.87% of the Fund's average daily net assets.

Effective February 1, 2012, the Fund's Investment Advisory Agreement with DeAMI was replaced with a new Investment Advisory Agreement pursuant to which DeAMI assumed the investment advisory function previously performed by DIMA, and the Fund's Management Agreement with DIMA was replaced with an Administration Agreement pursuant to which DIMA continues to provide all of the non-investment advisory services to the Fund that it historically provided pursuant to the Management Agreement. There were no changes to services provided to the Fund, or the total expenses payable by the Fund, as a result of this reorganization of contracts. The new Investment Advisory Agreement provides DeAMI with a fee, computed weekly and payable monthly, at the annual rate of 0.80% of the Fund's average weekly net assets up to and including $100 million, 0.60% of such assets in excess of $100 million and up to and including $500 million, and 0.55% of such assets in excess of $500 million. The Administration Agreement provides DIMA with a fee, computed weekly and payable monthly, of 0.20% of the Fund's average weekly net assets.

Accordingly, for the five-month period February 1, 2012 through June 30, 2012, the combined fee pursuant to the

THE NEW GERMANY FUND, INC.

Investment Advisory Agreement and the Administration Agreement was equivalent to an annual effective rate of 0.88% of the Fund's average daily net assets.

NOTE 3. TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

DWS Investments Service Company ("DISC"), an affiliate of DIMA, is the transfer agent, dividend-paying agent and shareholder service agent of the Fund. Pursuant to a sub-transfer agency agreement between DISC and DST Systems, Inc. ("DST"), DISC has delegated certain transfer agent and dividend-paying agent paying functions to DST. DISC compensates DST out of the shareholder servicing fee it receives from the Fund. For the six months ended June 30, 2012, the amount charged to the Fund by DISC aggregated $8,869, of which $1,037 is unpaid.

Deutsche Bank AG, the German parent of DIMA and DeAMI, and its affiliates may receive brokerage commissions as a result of executing agency transactions in portfolio securities on behalf of the Fund, that the Board determined were effected in compliance with the Fund's Rule 17e-1 procedures. For the six months ended June 30, 2012, Deutsche Bank AG and its affiliates did not receive brokerage commissions.

Certain officers of the Fund are also officers of either DIMA or DeAMI.

The Fund pays each Director who is not an "interested person" of DIMA or DeAMI retainer fees plus specified amounts for attended board and committee meetings.

The Fund may invest uninvested cash balances in Central Cash Management Fund, which is managed by DIMA. The Fund indirectly bears its proportionate share of the expenses of Central Cash Management Fund. Central Cash Management Fund does not pay DIMA an investment management fee. Central Cash Management Fund seeks a high level of current income consistent with liquidity and the preservation of capital.

NOTE 4. PORTFOLIO SECURITIES

Purchases and sales of investment securities, excluding short-term investments, for the six months ended June 30, 2012, were $17,242,685 and $18,875,938, respectively.

NOTE 5. INVESTING IN FOREIGN MARKETS

Foreign investments may involve certain considerations and risks as a result of, among others, the possibility of political and economic developments the level of governmental supervision and regulation of foreign securities markets. In addition, certain foreign markets may be substantially smaller, less developed, less liquid and more volatile than the major markets of the United States. Any fund that focuses in a particular segment of the market will generally be more volatile than a fund that invests more broadly.

NOTE 6. CAPITAL

During the six months ended June 30, 2012 and the year ended December 31, 2011, the Fund purchased 363,994 and 638,482 of its shares of common stock on the open market at a total cost of $5,229,776 and $10,279,327, ($14.37 and $16.10 average per share), respectively. NOTE 7. TENDER OFFER AND SHARE REPURCHASES

On July 20, 2010, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved a series of up to four consecutive semi-annual tender offers each for up to 5% of the Fund's outstanding shares at a price equal to 98% of net asset value ("NAV"). Under the Fund's Discount Management Program, the Fund is required to conduct a tender offer if its shares

The first measurement period commenced September 1, 2010 and expired on November 24, 2010 and the second measurement period commenced on March 7, 2011 and expired on May 27, 2011. The third measurement period commenced on August 29, 2011 and expired on November 18, 2011. During each of these measurement periods the Fund's shares traded at an average discount to NAV of less than 10%. Therefore, the Fund was not required to conduct a tender offer.

The fourth measurement period commenced on March 5, 2012 and expired on May 25, 2012. During the measurement period the Fund's shares traded at an average discount to NAV of 10.51%. Therefore, the Fund was required to conduct a tender offer which commenced on July 25, 2012 and will expire on August 22, 2012. The Fund is offering to repurchase up to 863,598 of the Fund's outstanding shares of common stock (which represents 5% of the Fund's outstanding shares as of July 10, 2012) at a price equal to 98% of the net asset value per share on August 23, 2012.

On January 31, 2012, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved a new Discount Management Program (The "New Program") on the same terms as the Fund's current program. Pursuant to the New Program, the Fund's Board of Directors approved a series of up to four consecutive semi-annual tender offers each for up to 5% of the Fund's outstanding shares of common stock at a price equal to 98% of NAV. The Fund will conduct a tender offer if its shares trade at an average discount to NAV of more than 10% during the applicable twelve-week measurement period. On July 18, 2012, the Fund announced that the next measurement period will commence on September 10, 2012 and will expire on November 30, 2012.

On July 18, 2011 the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved an extension to the current repurchase authorization permitting the Fund to repurchase up to 900,000 shares, during the period August 1, 2011 through July 31, 2012. The Fund repurchased 610,695 shares from August 1, 2011 through June 30, 2012 under this authorization. Under the terms of the previous repurchase authorization, the Fund repurchased 615,227 shares, from August 1, 2010 through July 31, 2011 out of an authorized amount of 950,000 shares. Also, on July 18, 2012, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors has approved the extension of the current repurchase authorization permitting the Fund to repurchase up to 900,000 shares during the period August 1, 2012 through July 31, 2013.

Repurchases will be made from time to time when they are believed to be in the best interest of the Fund. There can be no assurance that the Fund's repurchases or Discount Management Program will reduce the spread between the market price of the Fund's shares and its NAV per share.

Monthly updates concerning the Fund's repurchase program are available on its web site at www.dws-investments.com.

NOTE 8. CONCENTRATION OF OWNERSHIP

From time to time, the Fund may have a concentration of several shareholder accounts holding a significant percentage of shares outstanding. Investment activities of these shareholders could have a material impact on the Fund. At June 30, 2012, there were 3 shareholders that held approximately 23%, 13% and 5%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the Fund.

The Fund's directors unanimously approved the investment advisory agreement between the Fund and Deutsche Asset Management International GmbH ("DeAMI") (the "Agreement") at a meeting held on January 30, 2012. The fund's directors simultaneously approved an administration agreement (the "Administration Agreement") with Deutsche Investment Management Americas Inc. ("DIMA"), an affiliate of DeAMI. Prior to the effective date of the Agreement and the Administration Agreement, which was February 1, 2012, DIMA served as the Fund's manager, providing administrative and investment advisory services to the Fund. There were no changes in the total fees payable by, or the services received by, the Fund as a result of the changes to the contractual arrangements approved by the Fund's directors.

In preparation for the meeting, the directors had requested and evaluated extensive materials from DeAMI, including performance and expense information for other investment companies with similar investment objectives derived from data compiled by Lipper Inc. ("Lipper"). Prior to voting, the directors reviewed the proposed approval of the Agreement with management and with experienced counsel who are independent of DeAMI and received a memorandum from such counsel discussing the legal standards for their consideration of the proposed approval. The directors also discussed the proposed approval in a private session with counsel at which no representatives of DeAMI were present. In reaching their determination relating to approval of the Agreement, the directors considered all factors they believed relevant, including the following:

1. information comparing the Fund's performance to other investment companies with similar investment objectives and to an index;
2. the nature, extent and quality of investment advisory and other services rendered by DeAMI;
3. payments received by DeAMI from all sources in respect to the Fund and all investment companies in the Deutsche family of funds;
4. the costs borne by, and profitability of, DeAMI and its affiliates (including DIMA) in providing services to the Fund and to all investment companies in the Deutsche family of funds;
5. comparative fee and expense data for the Fund and other investment companies with similar investment objectives;
6. the extent to which economies of scale would be realized as the Fund grows and whether fee levels reflect these economies of scale for the benefit of investors;
7. DeAMI's policies and practices regarding allocation of the Fund's portfolio transactions, including the extent, if any, to which DeAMI benefits from soft dollar arrangements;
8. the Fund's portfolio turnover rates compared to those of other investment companies with similar investment objectives;
9. fall-out benefits which DeAMI and its affiliates receive from their relationships with the Fund;
10. information concerning the programs established by DeAMI with respect to compliance, risk management, disclosure and ethics;
11. the professional experience and qualifications of the Fund's portfolio management team and other senior personnel of DeAMI and
12. the terms of the Agreement.

The directors also considered their knowledge of the nature and quality of the services provided by DIMA and DeAMI to the Fund gained from their experience as directors of The European Equity Fund, Inc. and, where relevant, The Central Europe and Russia Fund, Inc. and, where relevant, other Deutsche funds, their confidence in DeAMI's integrity and competence gained from that experience and DeAMI's responsiveness to concerns raised by them in the past, including DeAMI's willingness to consider and implement organizational and operational changes designed to improve investment results and the services provided to the Fund.

In their deliberations, the directors did not identify any particular information that was all-important or controlling, and each director attributed different weights to the various factors.

The directors determined that the overall arrangements between the Fund and DeAMI, as provided in the Agreement, were fair and reasonable in light of the services performed, expenses incurred and such other matters as the directors considered relevant in the exercise of their reasonable judgment. The directors further determined that they were satisfied that the services provided by DeAMI to the Fund represented good value for the money payable to it by the Fund.

The material factors and conclusions that formed the basis for the directors' reaching their determination to approve the Agreement (including their determinations that DeAMI should continue in its role as investment adviser for the Fund, and that the fees payable to DeAMI pursuant to the Agreement are appropriate) were separately discussed by the directors.

Nature, Extent and Quality of Services Provided By DeAMI

The directors noted that, under the Agreement, DeAMI, in accordance with the Fund's investment objectives, policies and limitations, makes all decisions with respect to suitable securities for investment by the Fund and transmits purchase and sale orders and selects brokers and dealers to execute portfolio transactions on behalf of the Fund. DeAMI pays all of the compensation of the Fund's directors and officers who are interested persons of DeAMI.

The directors considered the scope and quality of services provided by DeAMI under the Agreement and noted that the scope of services provided had expanded over time as a result of regulatory and other developments. The directors noted that, for example, DeAMI is responsible for maintaining and monitoring its own and the Fund's compliance programs, and these compliance programs have in recent years been refined and enhanced in light of evolving regulatory requirements. The directors also considered the commitment of DeAMI to, and the programs established by it with respect to, compliance, risk management, disclosure and ethics. The directors considered the quality of the investment research capabilities of DeAMI and the other resources it has dedicated to performing services for the Fund. The quality of the advisory services provided also were considered. The directors concluded that, overall, they were satisfied with the nature, extent and quality of services provided (and expected to be provided) to the Fund under the Agreement.

Costs of Services Provided and Profitability to DeAMI

At the request of the directors, DeAMI provided information concerning the profitability of its investment advisory and investment company activities and financial condition based on historical information for 2009 and 2010. Similar information was provided for DIMA. The directors noted that the profitability information reflected the contractual arrangements in effect in 2009 and 2010 and that such arrangements differ from those proposed for approval at the January 30, 2012 meeting. The directors recognized that the changes to the fee arrangements reflected in the advisory and administration agreements being considered would result in significant changes in the revenues to DeAMI and DIMA from their provision of services to the Fund compared to revenues in prior periods. The directors reviewed the assumptions and methods of allocation used by DeAMI and DIMA in preparing Fund specific profitability data. DIMA stated its belief that the methods of allocation used were reasonable, but it noted that there are limitations inherent in allocating costs to multiple individual advisory clients served by organizations such as DIMA and DeAMI where each of the advisory clients draws on, and benefits from, the research and other resources of the Deutsche Bank organization.

The directors recognized that it is difficult to make comparisons of profitability from fund advisory contracts because comparative information is not generally publicly available and is affected by numerous factors, including the structure of the particular adviser, the types of funds it manages, its business mix, numerous assumptions regarding allocations and the adviser's capital structure and cost of capital. In considering profitability information, the directors considered the effect of possible fall-out benefits on DeAMI's expenses, including the fact that there were no affiliated brokerage commissions.

The directors noted that DeAMI does not utilize soft dollars to receive third party research from brokers that execute purchases and sales of securities for the Fund, and that it has policies to prohibit consideration of the sale of shares of Deutsche funds when selecting broker dealers to execute portfolio transactions for the Fund or other Deutsche funds. They further noted that DeAMI may allocate brokerage to receive research generated by executing brokers.

The directors recognized that DeAMI should, as a general matter, be entitled to earn a reasonable level of profits for the services it provides to the Fund and, based on their review, concluded that DeAMI's level of profitability from its relationships with the Fund were not excessive. The directors noted that they would request and receive profitability information reflecting the terms of the agreement in connection with future continuances of the agreement.

Investment Results

In addition to the information received by the directors for the meeting, the directors receive detailed performance information for the Fund at each regular board meeting during the year and also receive monthly performance information. The directors reviewed information showing the Fund's performance compared to that of other investment vehicles compiled by Lipper (a total of 18 funds, (consisting of exchange-traded funds, open-end funds and single-country funds). The directors also reviewed information showing performance of the Fund's benchmark index currently the Germany Midcap Market Performance Index of 80 stocks.

The comparative information showed that the Fund ranked in the bottom quartile in 2011 but in the second quartile in the three-year period, and the top quartile in the five-year period, ending December 31, 2011 and that its investment performance exceeded the median and average for the three-, five- and 10-year periods ended December 31, 2011. While the Fund underperformed the benchmark in 2011, it outperformed the benchmark, often by substantial amounts, in seven of the nine years ended 2011. Taking into account these comparisons and the other factors considered, the directors concluded that the Fund's investment results over time were satisfactory.

Management and Investment Advisory Fees and Other Expenses

The directors considered the investment advisory fee rates payable by the Fund to DeAMI under the agreement. The directors recognized that it is difficult to make comparisons of advisory fees because there are variations in the services that are included in the fees paid by other funds. The directors also considered the representation by DeAMI that it does not manage any institutional accounts that are similar to the Fund, and its review of the reasons that it does not consider institutional fee rates to be relevant to the consideration of appropriate fee rates payable by investment companies such as the Fund. The Fund's expense comparison group consisted of 38 closed end country funds and ETFs. The directors reviewed information comparing the combined management and advisory fees payable under the Agreement and the Administration Agreement for this purpose, noting that DeAMI and DIMA are affiliated companies and that although the fees payable under the agreement and the administration agreement differed from those in the management and investment advisory agreements that were in effect during the historical periods, the combined fees payable under both sets of agreements was identical. Since comparative fee and expense information was not available for the year ended December 31, 2011, the directors reviewed comparative expense information for the year ended December 31, 2010. The directors noted that the Fund's effective management and advisory fee rate of 0.874% was below the average and median of the comparison group. The directors noted that the Fund's effective fee rate reflects the effect of breakpoints. The directors also considered the Fund's total expense ratio in comparison to the fees and expenses of funds within the comparison group. The directors also noted that the Fund's expense ratio was in the lowest quartile of the comparison group. Management explained that this difference was principally the result of the Fund's relatively low management and investment advisory fee and the Fund's relatively large asset base. The directors concluded that the Fund's expense ratio was satisfactory.

Economies of Scale

The directors noted that the investment advisory fee schedule in the Agreement contains breakpoints that reduce the fee rate on assets above specified levels. The directors recognized that breakpoints may be an appropriate way for DeAMI to share its economies of scale with some funds that have substantial assets or that may grow materially over the next year. However, they also recognized that there is no direct relationship between the economies of scale realized by funds and those realized by DeAMI as assets increase, largely because economies of scale are realized (if at all) by DeAMI across a variety of products and services, and not only in respect of a single fund. Having taken these factors into account, the directors concluded that the breakpoint arrangements in the Agreement were acceptable under the Fund's circumstances.

During the first measurement period, the Fund's shares traded at an average discount to NAV of less than 10%. Therefore, the Fund was not required to conduct a tender offer.
