On December 3, 2003, the Corporation terminated its existing line of credit through Silicon Valley Bank, and entered into an agreement for a new line of credit facility with Laurus Master Fund, Ltd. Under the terms of the agreement, the Corporation can borrow up to $7,500,000 based on eligible accounts receivable and inventory balances. Amounts due are secured by most assets of the Corporation. Payment of interest and principal can, under certain circumstances, be made with shares of the Corporation's capital stock at a conversion price that is in excess of the trading price of the stock over the ten trading days prior to execution of the agreement. In connection with the line of credit, the Corporation has issued warrants to Laurus to acquire 550,000 shares at exercise prices that are also in excess of the trading price of the stock over the ten trading days prior to execution of the agreement.
