Investment Description

Linked to the EURO STOXX 50® Index due January 6, 2021

Unlike ordinary debt securities, the Securities do not pay interest or repay a fixed amount of principal at maturity. Instead, the Securities provide for a Payment at Maturity that may be greater than, equal to or less than the Principal Amount of the Securities, depending on the performance of the Reference Asset from the Initial Level to the Final Level.

The Payment at Maturity will reflect the following terms:

o If the level of the Reference Asset increases:

You will receive the Principal Amount plus 200% participation in the upside performance of the Reference Asset, subject to the Maximum Redemption Amount of 152% of the Principal Amount of the Securities

o If the level of the Reference Asset is flat or decreases but the decrease is not more than 25%:

You will be repaid the Principal Amount

o If the level of the Reference Asset decreases by more than 25%:

You will have full downside exposure to the decrease in the level of the Reference Asset from the Starting Level, and you will lose more than 25%, and possibly all, of the Principal Amount.

Investors may lose a substantial portion, or all, of the Principal Amount

Any payments on the Securities are subject to TD's credit risk

You will have no right to the stocks comprising the Reference Asset (the "Reference Asset Constituents")

No periodic interest payments or dividends

No exchange listing; designed to be held to maturity

Our estimated value of the Securities on the Pricing Date is $960.70 per Security. The estimated value is expected to be less than the public offering price of the Securities. See "Additional Information Regarding Our Estimated Value of the Securities" on page P-27 of the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement.

The Securities have complex features and investing in the Securities involves a number of risks. See "Additional Risk Factors" beginning on page P-8 of the accompanying pricing supplement, "Additional Risk Factors Specific to the Notes" beginning on page PS-5 of the product prospectus supplement MLN-EI-1 dated June 30, 2016 (the "product prospectus supplement") and "Risk Factors" on page 1 of the prospectus dated June 30, 2016 (the "prospectus").

Investors should carefully review the accompanying pricing supplement, product prospectus supplement and prospectus.

We urge you to consult your investment, legal, tax, accounting and other advisors before you invest in the Securities.

¹ The Initial Level (the closing level of the Reference Asset on December 27, 2018).

² The “return” as used in this term sheet is the number, expressed as a percentage, that results from comparing the difference between the Payment at Maturity per $1,000 Principal Amount and $1,000.

³ This is the Threshold Level, which is equal to 75% of the Initial Level.

The above figures are for purposes of illustration only and may have been rounded for ease of analysis. The actual Payment at Maturity will depend on the actual Final Level and Maximum Redemption Amount.

* These calculations are hypothetical and should not be taken as an indication of the future performance of the Reference Asset as measured from the Pricing Date. We cannot give you assurance that the performance of the Reference Asset will result in a positive Percentage Change, or any positive return on your initial investment.

How the Payment at Maturity is Calculated

The Payment at Maturity will be determined as follows:

- If the Percentage Change is positive, then an investor will receive an amount per Security equal to the lesser of:
 - (i) Principal Amount + (Principal Amount x Percentage Change x Leverage Factor); and
 - (ii) the Maximum Redemption Amount.

If the Final Level is equal to or less than the Initial Level, but greater than or equal to the Threshold Level (the Percentage Change is 0% or negative but not below -25%), then an investor will receive an amount per Security equal to:
Principal Amount.

If the Final Level is less than the Threshold Level (the Percentage Change is negative and below -25%), then the investor will receive less than the Principal Amount, if anything, per Security, calculated using the following formula:
 $\text{Principal Amount} + (\text{Principal Amount} \times \text{Percentage Change})$.

If the Final Level is less than the Threshold Level, the investor will have full exposure to the decrease in the level of the Reference Asset and will lose more than 25%, and possibly all, of the Principal Amount. Specifically, investors will lose 1% of the Principal Amount for each 1% decrease from the Initial Level to the Final Level and may lose all of the Principal Amount.

Historical Performance of the Reference Asset

* The graph above sets forth the historical daily performance of the Reference Asset from January 1, 2008 through December 27, 2018. The graph is based upon actual daily historical closing levels of the Reference Asset. The dotted line represents the Threshold Level of 2,203.02, which is equal to 75% of the closing level of the Reference Asset on December 27, 2018.

We obtained the information regarding the historical performance of the Reference Asset used in calculating the graph above from Bloomberg® Professional Service (“Bloomberg”).

We have not conducted any independent review or due diligence of publicly available information obtained from Bloomberg. The historical performance of the Reference Asset should not be taken as an indication of its future performance, and no assurance can be given as to the Final Level of the Reference Asset. We cannot give you assurance that the performance of the Reference Asset will result in any positive return on your initial investment.

Selected Risk Considerations

The risks set forth below are discussed in detail in the “Additional Risk Factors” section in the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement, the “Additional Risk Factors Specific to the Notes” section in the product prospectus supplement and the “Risk Factors” section in the prospectus. Please review those risk disclosures carefully.

Principal at Risk. If the Final Level is less than the Threshold Level, investors in the Securities will lose more than 25%, and possibly all, of their Principal Amount. Specifically, if the Final Level is less than the Threshold Level, you will lose 1% of the Principal Amount of your Securities for each 1% that the Final Level is less than the Initial Level and may lose all of the Principal Amount. For example, if the Reference Asset has declined by 25.1% from the Initial Level to the Final Level, you will not receive any benefit of the contingent downside feature and you will lose 25.1% of the Principal Amount per Security.

The Securities Do Not Pay Interest and Your Return on the Securities May Be Lower Than the Return on a Conventional Debt Security of Comparable Maturity.
