INTERNATIONAL SPECIALTY PRODUCTS SPECIAL COMMITTEE AND SAMUEL J. HEYMAN REACH AGREEMENT ON GOING PRIVATE PROPOSAL AT PRICE OF $10.30 PER SHARE

WAYNE, NJ - NOVEMBER 7, 2002 - International Specialty Products Inc. (NYSE: ISP) announced today that a Special Committee of its Board of Directors and its majority stockholder, Samuel J. Heyman, have reached an agreement on a going private transaction in which the holders of ISP's publicly traded shares would receive $10.30 in cash per share.

The agreement followed a determination by the Special Committee that the transaction consideration is fair to ISP's public shareholders. The Special Committee, which consists of ISP directors who are not officers of ISP, has been negotiating with Mr. Heyman regarding his previously announced proposal of $10 per share. Lehman Brothers Inc. served as financial advisor to the Special Committee.

The transaction is expected to proceed as a merger and is subject to the approval by ISP's Board of Directors and execution of a definitive merger agreement. ISP's Board of Directors is expected to meet to consider approval of a definitive merger agreement within the next few days. If the merger agreement is approved by ISP's Board as anticipated, completion of the merger will be subject to certain closing conditions, including approval by holders of a majority of ISP's shares and holders of a majority of the votes cast by holders of shares not beneficially owned by Mr. Heyman or the directors or officers of ISP.

The transaction has a value of approximately $130 million. Mr. Heyman currently beneficially owns approximately 80.9% of ISP's outstanding shares of stock.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND WHERE TO FIND IT.

In connection with the proposed transaction, ISP will file a proxy statement with the SEC. Investors and security holders are advised to read the proxy statement when it becomes available, because it will contain important information. Investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of the proxy statement (when available) and other documents filed by ISP with the SEC at the SEC's web site at <http://www.sec.gov>. Free copies of the proxy statement, once available, and the company's other filings with the SEC may also be obtained from ISP by directing a request to ISP Shareholder Relations Department, 1361 Alps Road, Wayne, New Jersey 07470, Telephone: 1-800-526-5315. ISP, its directors and certain executive officers may be deemed under the rules of the SEC to be "participants in the solicitation" of proxies from the security holders of ISP in favor of the transaction.

Information about the directors and executive officers of ISP and their ownership of ISP common stock is set forth in the proxy statement, dated April 12, 2002, for ISP's 2002 annual meeting of stockholders, as filed with the SEC on Schedule 14A. Investors and security holders of ISP may obtain additional information regarding the interests of the "participants in the solicitation" by reading the proxy statement relating to the transaction when it becomes available.
