Deutsche Börse and SIX Group sign definitive agreement to make Deutsche Börse sole owner of Eurex/

Agreement is subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board of Deutsche Börse AG and the NYSE Euronext Board of Directors

On 7 June 2011, Deutsche Börse AG, SIX Group AG and SIX Swiss Exchange AG signed a definitive agreement for a transaction which would make Deutsche Börse the sole owner of the currently jointly owned Eurex Group and SIX Group a shareholder in the combined Deutsche Börse and NYSE Euronext entity. The agreement is still subject to the formal approval of the Supervisory Board of Deutsche Boerse AG and also, based on the Business Combination Agreement, the Board of Directors of NYSE Euronext; both approvals are scheduled for June 16, 2011. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Deutsche Boerse AG and the Chairman of the Board of Directors of NYSE Euronext, following discussions within their Boards, expressed their support for the transaction. The timing of the transaction is generally driven by the closing of the pending Deutsche Börse and NYSE Euronext combination. Under the agreement Deutsche Börse would receive 100% of all Eurex sales and profits instead of the 85% reflected in the consolidated accounts of Deutsche Börse Group today after closing of the transaction with economic effect as of 1 January 2012. In return, SIX Swiss Exchange AG would receive a consideration of 295 million in cash and 295 million in shares of the combined Deutsche Börse and NYSE Euronext entity. The shares of the combined entity will be shares held by Deutsche Börse as the result of the tender of Deutsche Börse treasury shares into shares of the combined entity. The financial terms reflect an agreement relating to the resolution of all rights and obligations of both parties under the current contractual framework of Eurex and its existing 2014 termination provisions.

Reto Francioni, Chief Executive Officer of Deutsche Börse said: We are very pleased to have reached a fair agreement with our Swiss partners that positions Eurex for continued successful development. With this step Eurex can grow more sustainably and dynamically and contribute its strength in the combined Deutsche Börse and NYSE Euronext group. At the same time we are pleased that a valued and interesting partner will take a stake in the new combined group. This shows that the combination of Deutsche Börse and NYSE Euronext is already offering interesting possibilities for third parties to participate in this decisive move for the future of both partners.

Prof. Dr. Peter Gomez, Chairman of the Board of Directors of SIX GROUP: Created a decade ago, Eurex has been a pioneer in derivatives markets globally and is arguably the most impressive success story of any cross-border merger in the exchange sector so far. With this step, we contribute to the new positioning of Eurex in the transatlantic combination.

Gregor Pottmeyer, Chief Financial Officer of Deutsche Börse, added: The transaction will be immediately accretive after closing and the straight forward ownership and governance set-up of Eurex in the future should help position the joint derivatives business of Deutsche Börse and NYSE Euronext for a multiple re-rating to reflect the earnings power and high quality of cash flows of a global leader in derivatives.

As a result of the agreement with SIX Group AG and SIX Swiss Exchange AG, Deutsche Börse expects an immediate net income accretion after closing of the transaction, which is anticipated in 2012. On a pro forma basis for the first quarter 2011 the transaction would have resulted in 26.1 million incremental sales revenue, 17.4 million additional EBIT, and a 15.0 million higher net income. The net income number includes a preliminary assumption of a 2.5 million potential quarterly amortization charge which is still subject to an assessment of the purchase price allocation. Closing of the transaction will occur after consummation of the Deutsche Börse and NYSE Euronext transaction which is expected for year-end 2011. However, the definitive agreement between SIX Group AG, SIX Swiss Exchange AG and Deutsche Börse AG is not contingent on the consummation of the Deutsche Börse and NYSE Euronext combination.

Under the terms of the agreement, Deutsche Börse AG will indirectly purchase the 50 percent stake of SIX Swiss Exchange AG in Eurex Zurich AG. At the same time, the contractual arrangements resulting in an entitlement of 15% of economic benefits of Eurex to SIX Swiss Exchange AG will be terminated. As a result Deutsche Börse will become the sole shareholder of Eurex Zurich AG and thereby the sole shareholder of Eurex Group. Further, Deutsche Börse will have exclusive rights to the Eurex brand and Eurex software. The transaction also comprises the indirect participation of SIX Group in International Securities Exchange Holdings, Inc., Direct Edge Holdings, LLC and European Energy Exchange AG. Eurex will continue to run the Swiss derivatives market through Eurex Zurich AG.
