LETTER TO GLOBAL EMPLOYEES

Dear Bausch + Lomb Colleagues,

Today we announced plans to acquire ISTA Pharmaceuticals, a move that will further accelerate the transformation of Bausch + Lomb and take us another important step forward on our Action Agenda. By combining our US Pharmaceuticals business with ISTA, we will strengthen our ability to bring meaningful medical advances to the many physicians and patients we serve.

ISTA is an excellent strategic fit with Bausch + Lomb. The combination of our two companies will add more than $150 million in top line annualized sales upon consummation of the deal, and we expect it to be EBITDA accretive in the first full year after close. We have a shared commitment to customers; complimentary product portfolios; and the combination will nearly double the number of mid-to-late stage innovations in our D&R pipeline. What's more, our two companies already enjoy a strong working relationship because we have been manufacturing nearly all of ISTA's current products on their behalf for many years.

The consummation of our agreement with ISTA is subject to U.S. antitrust approval and other customary closing conditions, including ISTA shareholder approval, and therefore we will continue to operate independently until those approvals are obtained. However, there is work to do ahead of any combination so I have asked Dan Wechsler, EVP and President of our Pharmaceutical Business to establish an integration team to manage the pre-combination and integration activities.

I'd like to express my sincere thanks to all of our Bausch + Lomb colleagues who have worked tirelessly to make today's news possible. Our agreement with ISTA further demonstrates our commitment to investing for the long-term especially in opportunities that can help grow our top-line, bottom-line and pipeline. It also gets us that much closer to becoming the BEST global eye health company.

Best Regards,

Brent
