PART II
INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT

In accordance with General Instruction E to Form S-8, the contents of Quidel's Registration Statement on Form S-8 (Registration No. 333-35355) previously filed by us with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 11, 1997, relating to the General

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL") provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise, against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 145(b) of the DGCL provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person acted in any of the capacities set forth above, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he or she acted under similar standards to those set forth above, except that no indemnification may be made in respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine that despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to be indemnified for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 145 of the DGCL further provides that to the extent a director or officer of a corporation has been successful in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsection (a) and (b) of Section 145 or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith; that indemnification provided for by Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the indemnified party may be entitled; and that the corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a director or officer of the corporation against any liability asserted against such officer or director and incurred by him or her in any such capacity or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liabilities under Section 145.

Article 10 of Quidel's Certificate of Incorporation provides for indemnification of directors, officers, employees and other agents to the maximum extent permitted by the DGCL. As permitted by Section 102(b) (7) of the DGCL, our Bylaws provide that we shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of us), and whether brought by a third party or by us or in the right of us, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of us or subsidiary of us or is or was serving at the request of us as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of us, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. No indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to Quidel unless and only to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction has determined upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court has deemed proper.

To the extent that a person who may be entitled to indemnification has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in the Bylaws, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith. Expenses incurred in defending or settling a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding by an individual who may be entitled to indemnification shall be paid by us in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount if it ultimately is determined that no indemnification is owed.

To implement the provisions of the DGCL, our Certificate of Incorporation and our Bylaws, we have entered into Indemnification Agreements with each of our directors and officers. The provisions of the Indemnification Agreements parallel the portions of the Bylaws described above. Under the Indemnification Agreements, however, our indemnification obligation does not apply under these additional circumstances: (a) claims where the officer or director (a) is adjudged to be liable to us (unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines that indemnification is proper); (b) initiated or brought the claim voluntarily (except certain proceedings to establish or enforce a right to indemnification); (c) has instituted any proceedings to enforce or interpret the Indemnification Agreements, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions in the proceeding was not made in good faith or was frivolous; (d) is paid directly under an insurance policy maintained by us; or (e) is required to account for profits in fact made from the purchase or sale of securities of us under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act. Absent the Indemnification Agreements, the indemnification that might be available to directors and officers could be changed by amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. In the event of changes, after the date of such Indemnification Agreements, in any applicable law, statute or rule which expands the right of a Delaware corporation to indemnify a member of its board of directors or an officer, such changes shall be, ipso facto, within the purview of the rights and obligations under the Indemnification Agreements. We may seek directors and officers liability insurance against the cost of defense, settlement or payment of a judgment under certain circumstances.
