Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On May 20, 2003, Scientific Games Corporation (the "Company") engaged Deloitte & Touche LLP to serve as its new independent certified public accountant and dismissed KPMG LLP ("KPMG"). KPMG had served as the independent certified public accountant for the Company since fiscal 1984. The decision to change accountants was made by the Company's Audit Committee, was approved by the Board of Directors, and is effective immediately.

in the Company's Form 10-K filed on March 24, 2003 contained a separate paragraph stating that the Company had adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets", effective January 1, 2002.

During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 and the interim period between December 31, 2002 and May 20, 2003, there were no disagreements between the Company and KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement(s), if not resolved to KPMG's satisfaction, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its reports for such years, nor did any of the reportable events, as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K, occur during either of such fiscal years or during such interim period.

The Company has requested that KPMG provide it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with the foregoing statements, and, if not, the respects in which it does not agree. Such letter, when received, will be filed by amendment to this Form 8-K.

During the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 and the interim period between December 31, 2002 and May 20, 2003, neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf consulted Deloitte & Touche LLP with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, or any other matters or reportable events listed in Item 304(a)(2)(i) or (ii) of Regulation S-K.
