Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On March 26, 2003, the Registrant issued a press release announcing it will be making a presentation to the investment community at the Deutsche Bank 2003 Basic Industries Conference in New York City on Monday, March 31, at 9:00 a.m. EST. The full text of the press release, which is set forth in Exhibit 99.1 hereto, is not filed but is furnished pursuant to Regulation FD.

During the Registrant's forthcoming presentation at the Deutsche Bank 2003 Basic Industries Conference, a representative of the Registrant intends to provide information that the Registrant has recently received advance notice of awards for multiple projects in The People's Republic of China (China). The monetary value of these preliminary orders, where certain terms and conditions are still being finalized, are estimated to range between $25 to $30 million dollars. The Registrant intends to communicate that these preliminary orders will not be included in its firm backlog at the end of its current fiscal quarter ending March 29, 2003, but anticipates that those orders, along with other preliminary orders it has announced, will be included in its firm bookings, and realized as revenue, in subsequent periods. The Registrant is also pursuing a significantly larger volume of business within China as part of a multi-year gas turbine power plant program underway in China. The Registrant will not be providing any details of the business opportunities in China on a segment basis prior to its scheduled April 28, 2003 earnings announcement.

Forward Looking Statements

Statements contained in this filing regarding the Registrant's or management's expectations, predictions or beliefs, including statements concerning the expectations about the preliminary orders for the projects in China and the pursuit of additional business in China, are forward looking statements within the meaning of U.S. federal securities laws. These forward looking statements are subject to a number of risks, assumptions and uncertainties that could cause the Registrant's actual results to differ materially from those projected. For example, the preliminary orders are subject to the negotiation of the definitive terms and conditions, and there can be no assurances that the Registrant will successfully receive a firm order for these projects, the dollar amount of firm orders actually obtained or the timing of such orders and the realization of revenues therefrom. Information concerning some of the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in, or implied by, the forward looking statements are set forth under "Risk Factors" in the Registrant's Form 10-K for the period ending December 28, 2002, and other reports on file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
