Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On December 8, 2008, Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”) and Home Federal Bank (the “Bank”) announced that Fred H. Helpenstell, M.D., a director of the Company and the Bank, will not stand for re-election at the Company’s Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on January 16, 2009 and will also not stand for re-election as a director of the Bank. Dr. Helpenstell’s retirement will be effective on January 16, 2009. Dr. Helpenstell has served as a director of the Company since its formation in 2004 and has served as a director of the Bank since 1991. During his service as a director of the Company, Dr. Helpenstell has served on the Company’s Compensation and Nominating Committees. In connection with his announcement of his intention not to stand for re-election, Dr. Helpenstell did not cite any disagreement with the Company.

Concurrent with Dr. Helpenstell’s retirement and as recommended by the Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, Senator Brad J. Little will be a nominee to the Company’s Board of Directors at the Company’s Annual Meeting of Stockholders on January 16, 2009.

Senator Little represents the citizens of Gem and Northern & Western Canyon Counties comprising District 11 in the Idaho State Senate as Majority Caucus Chairman. In the Senate, he serves in the Resources and Environment and State Affairs committees. Senator Little has served on the interim Treasure Valley Transportation and Natural Resource Committees and chaired the Property Tax Interim Committee. He serves as Vice Chair on the Emmett School Foundation and on the Idaho Endowment Fund Investment Board, which manages a nearly billion dollar fund. He also serves on the Investment Committee of the University of Idaho Foundation.

Mr. Little operates a family cattle, farming, real estate and investment business in Idaho’s Treasure Valley and has been active in Idaho and national sheep and public land organizations, including efforts to resolve both the livestock grazing and timber management controversies on federal lands. He recently served as Vice Chair of the Idaho Community Foundation, Idaho’s only statewide philanthropic foundation where he served on the Investment Committee. He is past chairman of the American Sheep Industry Public Lands Committee, the Idaho Association of Commerce and Industry, and Idaho Business Week, a program that teaches free enterprise to High School students. He has been director of the American Sheep Industry Resource Council, Public Lands Council, the Idaho Range Land Committee, High Country News (a west-wide environmental news foundation), and the University of Idaho Foundation. Mr. Little also is the past president of the Idaho Woolgrowers Association and has also served on the City of Boise’s “Foothills Open Space Steering Committee.”

Senator Little is a director of Performance Design LLC a small manufacturing company in Boise and holds B.S. in Agri-Business from the University of Idaho.

A news release announcing these events is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference herein.

HOME FEDERAL BANCORP, INC.
ANNOUNCES THAT DR. FRED H. HELPENSTELL IS RETIRING FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Nampa, ID (December 8, 2008) – Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”) (Nasdaq GSM: HOME), the parent company of Home Federal Bank (the “Bank”), today announced that Fred H. Helpenstell will not stand for re-election as a director of the Company or the Bank at their respective annual meetings of stockholders and will retire from service at the conclusion of the Company’s annual meeting. The Nominating Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors has identified and unanimously recommended Senator Brad J. Little to fill the vacancy created by Mr. Helpenstell’s resignation and to stand for election for a three year term as a director of the Company at its annual meeting. Mr. Little also will stand for election at the Bank’s annual meeting. The Company’s Annual Meeting of Stockholders will be held on Friday, January 16, 2009, at 3:00 p.m. at the Nampa Civic Center located at 311 3rd Street South, Nampa, Idaho.

Len E. Williams, the Company’s President and Chief Executive Officer, and Daniel L. Stevens, the Chairman of the Company’s Board, stated jointly, “Fred’s service as a board member and commitment to Home Federal during his seventeen years of service has been outstanding. Our Company, board, employees and stockholders are indebted to him for his many contributions to the Company.”

Mr. Williams and Mr. Stevens added, “We are pleased to have a businessman and public servant of Brad Little’s caliber agree to serve on our board. Senator Little’s service in the Idaho Legislature and significant involvement in the business and agricultural communities of the Treasure Valley will make him a valuable contributor to the strength and growth of our Company.”
