Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 6, 2016, Jeffrey A. Davis, former Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer of Darden Restaurants, Inc. (the "Company"), entered into a separation letter agreement (the "Separation Letter") with the Company which will become effective after a statutory seven day revocation period expires on April 13, 2016. Under the terms of the Separation Letter, Mr. Davis releases the Company from all actual or potential claims or liabilities, with certain exceptions, and reaffirms that Mr. Davis will protect the confidential information and trade secrets of the Company for a period of five years, will not disparage the Company for a period of twelve months, will refrain from competing with the Company for a period of twelve months and will not solicit the Company's vendors, suppliers or licensees for a period of twelve months.

As consideration for Mr. Davis' entry into the Separation Letter, the Company will, among other things, (i) provide Mr. Davis with a lump sum payment of $1,080,000 before taxes and withholdings, (ii) provide Mr. Davis with a lump sum payment of $9,400 related to the end of eligibility for medical, dental and vision benefits and all other Company welfare benefits, (iii) provide Mr. Davis with career transition services for a period of up to twelve months after his separation date at a value of up to $30,000 and (iv) transfer the Company's ownership in his Company car to Mr. Davis.
