Item 1.01 Entry into Material Definitive Agreements

On March 20, 2017, Socket Mobile, Inc. (the "Company") completed a Business Financing Modification Agreement by and between the Company and Western Alliance Bank, parent of Bridge Bank (the "Bank"), to extend the expiration date of a revolving credit line agreement for the domestic (U.S. based) portion of the line for one additional year to February 27, 2019. The domestic portion of the credit line is $2,000,000. Cash and qualified receivables must be no less than 1.75 times outstanding borrowings under the line. The Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants. The line is secured by all of the Company's assets, including intellectual property.

The international portion of the credit line is $500,000, expires on February 27, 2018 and was not changed. The international portion of the line includes certain accounts receivable guarantees from EXIM Bank.

The Company initially entered into the revolving credit line agreement with Bridge Bank as reported in a Form 8-K dated March 7, 2014 for an initial two year period ended February 27, 2016. The Company subsequently reported extensions of the credit line agreement on Form 8-K's dated March 23, 2015 and February 26, 2016.

The foregoing description of the modification to the revolving credit line with the Bank does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Business Financing Modification Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
