PRESS RELEASE

Rome, 22 January 2004 - In regard to the exercise price for the Warrant Azioni Ordinarie Telecom Italia ex Olivetti 1999-2004 warrants, (formerly known as Warrant Tecnost 1999-2004 warrants), Telecom Italia wishes to state the following:

Warrant Azioni Ordinarie Telecom Italia ex Olivetti 1999-2004 rules include a price escalator mechanism. This yields a monthly change in the unit price for subscription shares upon exercise. The unit share subscription price has chiefly been affected by application to the initial price (€2.8 for the subscription of each Tecnost share):

- of a 15% increase on an annual basis, between 20 August 1999 and the date upon which requests to subscribe conversion shares become effective (the tenth trading day in the month following the month in which requests are presented, prior to 31 May 2004; 30 June 2004 for requests presented between 1 and 20 June 2004, which is the option expiry date);

- of the following adjustments:

to the subscription ratio, in view of the 1:1.12 share swap ratio applied at the time of the Olivetti/Tecnost merger;
2.
to the price, a €0.159 reduction as a result of the paid Olivetti capital increase undertaken between 19 February 2001 and 9 March 2001;
3.
to the price, a €0.133 reduction as a result of the paid Olivetti capital increase undertaken between 5 November 2001 and 23 November 2001;
4.
to the subscription ratio, in view of the 1:0.471553 ratio at which Olivetti shares were replaced by shares in "new" Telecom Italia during the redistribution of share capital of absorbing company Olivetti following the merger through incorporation of Telecom Italia.

The Monte Titoli stock exchange organization is informed on a monthly basis of the unit subscription price per ordinary share. This price is also published on the company web site, in the Investor Relations section.

That stated, at the present time, in application of the above criteria and in view of the stock market trading calendar up until the warrant expiry date, the unit subscription price per ordinary share may be calculated as follows:

- January 2004
€9.308

•

February 2004

€9.415

•

March 2004

€9.551

•

April 2004

€9.660

•

May 2004

€9.783

•

June 2004 (until expiry date: 20 June 2004)

€9.847

Cautionary Statement for Purposes of the "Safe Harbor" Provision of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

The Private Securities Litigation reform Act of 1995 provides a "safe harbor" for forward-looking statements. The Press Release included in this Form 6-K contains certain forward looking statements and forecasts reflecting management's current views with respect to certain future events. The ability of the Telecom Italia Group to achieve its projected results is dependant on many factors which are outside of management's control. Actual results may differ materially from those projected or implied in the forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking information involves risks and uncertainties that could significantly affect expected results and are based on certain key assumptions.

Edgar Filing: TELECOM ITALIA S P A - Form 6-K

The following important factors could cause the Telecom Italia Group's actual results to differ materially from those projected or implied in any forward-looking statements:

- the continuing impact of increased competition in a liberalized market, including competition from global and regional alliances formed by other telecommunications operators in the core domestic fixed-line and wireless markets of the Telecom Italia Group;
- the ability of the Telecom Italia Group to introduce new services to stimulate increased usage of its fixed and wireless networks to offset declines in its fixed-line business due to the continuing impact of regulatory required price reductions, market share loss and pricing pressures generally;
- the ability of the Telecom Italia Group to achieve cost-reduction targets in the time frame established or to continue the process of rationalizing its non-core assets;
- the impact of regulatory decisions and changes in the regulatory environment;
- the impact of the slowdown in Latin American economies and the slow recovery of economies generally on the international business of the Telecom Italia Group focused on Latin America and on its foreign investments and capital expenditures;
- the continuing impact of rapid changes in technologies;
- the impact of political and economic developments in Italy and other countries in which the Telecom Italia Group operates;
- the impact of fluctuations in currency exchange and interest rates;
- Telecom Italia's ability to continue the implementation of its 2002-2004 Industrial Plan, including the rationalization of its corporate structure and the disposition of Telecom Italia's interests in various companies;
- the ability of the Telecom Italia Group to successfully achieve its debt reduction targets;
- Telecom Italia's ability to successfully roll out its UMTS networks and services and to realize the benefits of its investment in UMTS licenses and related capital expenditures;
- Telecom Italia's ability to successfully implement its internet strategy;
- the ability of the Telecom Italia Group to achieve the expected return on the significant investments and capital expenditures it has made in Latin America and in Europe;
- the amount and timing of any future impairment charges for Telecom Italia's licences, goodwill or other assets; and

Edgar Filing: TELECOM ITALIA S P A - Form 6-K

- the impact of litigation or decreased mobile communications usage arising from actual or perceived health risks or other problems relating to mobile handsets or transmission masts.

The foregoing factors should not be construed as exhaustive. Due to such uncertainties and risks, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the group will achieve its projected results.
