State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Bowne & Co., Inc. (the Company) will be unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K (Form 10-K) for the year ended December 31, 2005 by March 16, 2006. The Company intends to restate its previously filed financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and prior. As discussed in further detail in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K dated March 16, 2006, these restatements result from the Company's correction of overstated current and deferred income tax liabilities, identified by the Company in connection with the preparation of the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005. The overstatements primarily arose due to a combination of excess current tax liabilities that had built up over time and differences between the income tax basis and the financial reporting basis of assets and liabilities. The Company is in the process of correcting these items in order to complete its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005. As a result of the foregoing, the Company will not be able to file its Form 10-K by March 16, 2006. The Company has discussed these matters with its independent registered public accountants, KPMG LLP.
