SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

MacAndrews & Forbes beneficially owns, directly and indirectly, 37,544,640 shares of our Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share. NDX, a wholly-owned subsidiary of MacAndrews & Forbes, may pledge up to 12,192,398 of these shares to Natixis, New York Branch as collateral agent for itself and other secured creditors to secure the obligations of NDX in connection with certain loans, which loans are unrelated to MacAndrews & Forbes investment in us. MacAndrews & Forbes has requested we register the pledged shares to fulfill its obligation under the loans.

MacAndrews & Forbes may also from time to time pledge shares of Class A common stock to secured creditors to secure obligations in connection with future loans.

This prospectus and the registration statement of which it forms a part is not intended to be used, nor may it be used, by MacAndrews & Forbes to sell any shares. This prospectus and the registration statement of which it forms a part is solely for use by the Secured Parties and may only be used by the Secured Parties in the event they foreclose on the pledged shares. The Secured Parties include any lenders that may become party to the loans from time to time.

At June 30, 2010, MacAndrews & Forbes, which is wholly-owned by Ronald O. Perelman, beneficially owned (i) 37,544,640 shares of Class A common stock, (ii) all of the outstanding 3,125,000 shares of Class B common stock of Revlon and (iii) none of the outstanding Series A preferred stock of Revlon.

The shares of our Class A common stock covered by this prospectus were originally purchased by MacAndrews & Forbes in connection with our January 2007 $100 million rights offering of Class A common stock (including the related private placement to MacAndrews & Forbes) or were received by MacAndrews & Forbes pursuant to the Contribution and Stockholder Agreement, dated as of August 9, 2009 (as amended on September 23, 2009) in connection with our October 2009 exchange offer. Although the 12,192,398 shares covered by this prospectus were originally issued to certain affiliates of MacAndrews & Forbes, they have been or will be subsequently re-registered in the name of NDX or another subsidiary or affiliate of MacAndrews & Forbes.

All information in this prospectus regarding MacAndrews & Forbes, NDX, the Secured Parties and the related loans has been provided to us by MacAndrews & Forbes for use herein. The agreements governing NDX's loans provide that NDX will indemnify the applicable Secured Parties against any and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by them in connection with the transactions contemplated thereunder, including in connection with any sale of the pledged shares.

In the event the Secured Parties foreclose on all 12,192,398 pledged shares covered by this prospectus and assuming all such shares are sold, based on ownership information as of June 30, 2010, MacAndrews & Forbes would then beneficially own, directly and indirectly, 25,352,242 shares of our outstanding Class A common stock representing at such date approximately (i) 52% of our outstanding Class A common stock, (ii) 55% of our total outstanding common stock, (iii) 71% of the combined voting power of our outstanding common stock and (iv) 63% of the combined voting power of our outstanding shares of common stock and preferred stock.

REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT

Prior to the consummation of Revlon's initial public equity offering in February 1996, Revlon and Revlon Worldwide Corporation (which subsequently merged into REV Holdings Inc.), the then direct parent of Revlon, entered into a registration rights agreement (the Registration Rights Agreement), and in February 2003, MacAndrews & Forbes executed a joinder agreement to the Registration Rights Agreement, pursuant to which REV Holdings, MacAndrews & Forbes and certain transferees of Revlon's common stock held by REV Holdings (the Holders) had the right to require Revlon to register under the Securities Act all or part of the Class A common stock owned by such Holders, including, without limitation, shares of Class A common stock purchased by MacAndrews & Forbes in connection with the $50.0 million equity rights offering consummated by Revlon in 2003 and shares of Class A common stock issuable upon conversion of Revlon's Class B common stock owned by such Holders (a Demand Registration). In connection with the closing of a debt-for-equity exchange transaction in March 2004 and pursuant to a certain 2004 Investment Agreement, MacAndrews & Forbes executed a joinder agreement that provided that MacAndrews & Forbes would also be a Holder under the Registration Rights Agreement and that all shares acquired by MacAndrews & Forbes pursuant to the 2004 Investment Agreement are deemed to be registrable securities under the Registration Rights Agreement. This included all of the shares of Class A common stock acquired by MacAndrews & Forbes in connection with Revlon's $110 million rights offering of shares of its Class A common stock and related private placement to MacAndrews & Forbes, which was consummated in March 2006, and Revlon's $100 million rights offering of shares of its Class A common stock and related private placement to MacAndrews & Forbes, which was consummated in January 2007.

Revlon may postpone giving effect to a Demand Registration for a period of up to 30 days if Revlon believes such registration might have a material adverse effect on any plan or proposal by Revlon with respect to any financing, acquisition, recapitalization, reorganization or other material transaction, or if Revlon is in possession of material non-public information that, if publicly disclosed, could result in a material disruption of a major corporate development or transaction then pending or in progress or in other material adverse consequences to Revlon. In addition, the Holders have the right to participate in registrations by Revlon of its Class A common stock (a Piggyback Registration). The Holders will pay all out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with any Demand Registration. Revlon will pay any expenses incurred in connection with a Piggyback Registration, except for underwriting discounts, commissions and expenses attributable to the shares of Class A common stock sold by such Holders.

Revlon Class A common stock and Revlon Class B common stock

Each share of Revlon Class A common stock entitles the holder to one vote and each share of Revlon Class B common stock entitles the holder to ten votes at each annual or special meeting of Revlon's stockholders, in the case of any written consent of stockholders and for all other purposes on all matters being voted on by Revlon's stockholders. The holders of Revlon Class A common stock and Revlon Class B common stock vote as a single class on all matters submitted to a vote of Revlon's stockholders, except as otherwise provided by law. Neither the holders of Revlon Class A common stock nor the holders of Revlon Class B common stock have cumulative voting rights, preemptive rights or subscription rights.

The holders of Revlon Class A common stock and Revlon Class B common stock are entitled to receive dividends and other distributions as may be declared by Revlon's board of directors out of assets or funds legally available for that purpose, subject to the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock, and any other provision of Revlon's certificate of incorporation. Revlon's certificate of incorporation provides that if at any time a dividend or other distribution in cash or other property is paid on Revlon Class A common stock or Revlon Class B common stock, a like dividend or other distribution in cash or other property will also be paid on the Revlon Class B common stock or Revlon Class A common stock, as the case may be, in an equal amount per share.

Revlon's certificate of incorporation provides that if shares of Revlon Class A common stock are paid on Revlon Class A common stock and shares of Revlon Class B common stock are paid on Revlon Class B common stock in an equal amount per share of Revlon Class A common stock and Revlon Class B common stock, such payment will be deemed to be a like dividend or other distribution. Revlon, as a holding company, is dependent on the earnings and cash flow of, and dividends and distributions from, Products Corporation to pay its expenses and to pay any cash dividend or distribution on Revlon Class A common stock that may be authorized by its board of directors.

The terms of Products Corporation's bank credit agreements, Senior Subordinated Term Loan Agreement, dated January 30, 2008, between MacAndrews & Forbes and Products Corporation (as amended, the "Senior Subordinated Term Loan Agreement") and the indenture governing Products Corporation's 3/9% Senior Secured Notes due 2015 (the "Senior Secured Notes Indenture") currently restrict Products Corporation from paying dividends or making distributions to Revlon, except in limited circumstances as described under "Dividend Policy." In the case of any split, subdivision, combination or reclassification of Revlon Class A common stock or Revlon Class B common stock, the shares of Revlon Class B common stock or Revlon Class A common stock, as the case may be, will also be split, subdivided, combined or reclassified so that the number of shares of Revlon Class A common stock and Revlon Class B common stock outstanding immediately following such split, subdivision, combination or reclassification will bear the same relationship to each other as that which existed immediately prior to the split, subdivision, combination or reclassification.

In the event of Revlon's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of Revlon Class A common stock and the holders of Revlon Class B common stock will be entitled to receive assets and funds available for distribution after payments to creditors and to the holders of any preferred stock that may at the time be outstanding, in proportion to the number of shares held by them, respectively, without regard to class.

In the event of any corporate merger, consolidation, purchase or acquisition of property or stock, or other reorganization, in each case with a third party that is not an affiliate of Revlon, in which any consideration is to be received by the holders of Revlon Class A common stock or the holders of Revlon Class B common stock, the holders of Revlon Class A common stock and the holders of Revlon Class B common stock will receive the same consideration on a per share basis. However, if such consideration consists of any voting securities (or of options or warrants to purchase, or of securities convertible into or exchangeable for, voting securities), the holders of Revlon Class B common stock may receive, on a per share basis, voting securities with ten times the number of votes per share as those voting securities to be received by the holders of Revlon Class A common stock (or options or warrants to purchase, or securities convertible into or exchangeable for, voting securities with ten times the number of votes per share as those voting securities issuable upon exercise of the options or warrants, or into which the convertible or exchangeable securities to be received by the holders of Revlon Class A common stock may be converted or exchanged).

Revlon's certificate of incorporation provides that no person holding record or beneficial ownership of shares of Revlon Class B common stock, each referred to in this prospectus as a Class B Holder, which Class B Holder is currently MacAndrews & Forbes, may transfer, and Revlon will not register the transfer of, such shares of Revlon Class B common stock, except to a permitted transferee of such Class B Holder. A permitted transferee of, for example, a stockholder that is a corporation, is defined to include, among other things, a corporation, limited liability company or partnership controlled by such Class B Holder and other specified affiliates of a Class B Holder. In certain circumstances set forth in Revlon's certificate of incorporation, changes in ownership or control of a Class B Holder will also result in the conversion of such holder's Revlon Class B common stock into Revlon Class A common stock. Revlon's certificate of incorporation also provides that Revlon will not register the transfer of any shares of Revlon Class B common stock unless the transferee and the transferor of such Revlon Class B common stock have furnished such affidavits and other proof as Revlon reasonably may request to establish that the proposed transferee is a permitted transferee. In addition, upon any purported transfer of shares of Revlon Class B common stock not permitted under Revlon's certificate of incorporation, all shares of Revlon Class B common stock purported to be transferred will be deemed to be converted into shares of Revlon Class A common stock, and stock certificates formerly representing such shares of Revlon Class B common stock will from that time be deemed to represent the number of shares of Revlon Class A common stock as equals the number of shares of Revlon Class A common stock into which such shares of Revlon Class B common stock could be converted pursuant to Revlon's certificate of incorporation.

In the event that the aggregate number of shares of Revlon Class B common stock and Revlon Class A common stock held by the Class B Holders and their permitted transferees issued and outstanding at any time shall constitute less than ten percent of the total combined number of shares of Revlon Class A common stock and Revlon Class B common stock issued and outstanding at such time, then, without further action on the part of the Class B Holder or Revlon, all shares of Revlon Class B common stock then issued and outstanding will be deemed to be converted into shares of Revlon Class A common stock, and stock certificates formerly representing such shares of Revlon Class B common stock will from that time be deemed to represent such number of shares of Revlon Class A common stock as equals the number of shares of Revlon Class A common stock into which such shares of Revlon Class B common stock could be converted pursuant to Revlon's certificate of incorporation. In addition, each share of Revlon Class B common stock shall be convertible, at the option of its record holder, into one validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of Revlon Class A common stock at any time.

Any future issuance of additional authorized shares of Revlon Class A common stock may, among other things, dilute the earnings per share of the Revlon Class A common stock and the equity and voting rights of those stockholders holding Revlon Class A common stock at the time the additional shares are issued.

The transfer agent and registrar for Revlon Class A common stock is American Stock Transfer & Trust Company. Revlon Class A common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol REV.

Revlon Series A preferred stock

The Series A preferred stock ranks senior to the Class A common stock and Class B common stock with respect to dividend distributions and distributions upon any liquidation, winding up or dissolution of the Company. The Company may authorize, create and issue additional shares of preferred stock that may rank junior to, on parity with or senior to the Series A preferred stock with respect to dividend distributions and distributions upon liquidation, winding up or dissolution without the consent of the holders of the Series A preferred stock.

Holders of Series A preferred stock are entitled to receive, out of legally available funds, cumulative preferential dividends accruing at a rate of 12.75% of the liquidation preference (as described herein) annually, payable quarterly in cash.

Holders of Series A preferred stock are also entitled to receive upon a change of control (as defined below) transaction within three years of the consummation of the October 2009 exchange offer, a pro rata portion of the equity value received in such transaction, capped at an amount that would provide aggregate cash payments of $12.00 per share over the term of the Series A preferred stock. If the equity value received in the change of control transaction is greater than or equal to $12.00 per share, then each holder of preferred stock will be entitled to receive an amount equal to $12.00 minus the liquidation preference minus any paid and/or accrued and unpaid dividends on the Series A preferred stock. If the per share equity value received in the change of control transaction is less than $12.00, then each holder of preferred stock will be entitled to receive an amount equal to such per share equity value minus the liquidation preference minus any paid and/or accrued and unpaid dividends on the Series A preferred stock. If the per share equity value received in the change of control transaction does not exceed the liquidation preference plus any paid and/or accrued and unpaid dividends, then each holder of the Series A preferred stock will not be entitled to an additional payment upon any such change of control transaction.

In the event that the Company fails to pay any required dividends on our Series A preferred stock, the amount of such unpaid dividends will be added to the amount payable to holders of our Series A preferred stock upon redemption. In addition, during any period when the Company has failed to pay a dividend and until all unpaid dividends have been paid in full, the Company will be prohibited from paying dividends or distributions on any shares of stock that rank junior to the Series A preferred stock (including our common stock), other than dividends or distributions payable in shares of stock that rank junior to the Series A preferred stock.

Change of control is defined to mean any person, other than one or more Permitted Holders (as defined below), becoming the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the total voting power of the voting stock of Revlon; provided, however, that the Permitted Holders do not have the right or ability by voting power, contract or otherwise to elect or designate for election a majority of the board of directors (for the purposes of this definition, such other person will be deemed to beneficially own any voting stock of a specified corporation held by a parent corporation, if such other person beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of the voting power of the voting stock of such parent corporation and the Permitted Holders do not have the right or ability by voting power, contract or otherwise to elect or designate for election a majority of the board of directors of such parent corporation).

Permitted Holders is defined to mean Ronald O. Perelman (or in the event of his incompetence or death, his estate, heirs, executor, administrator, committee or other personal representative (collectively, heirs )), any person controlled, directly or indirectly, by Ronald O. Perelman or his heirs and any of his affiliates.

Holders of Series A preferred stock are entitled to one vote per share of Series A preferred stock, voting together with the Class A common stock and the Class B common stock as a single class, including, without limitation, as to votes on the election of directors. Holders of Series A preferred stock are entitled to vote on all matters submitted to a vote of the stockholders of the Company, except that holders of Series A preferred stock are not entitled to vote on any merger, combination or similar transaction in which the holders of the Series A preferred stock either retain their shares of Series A preferred stock or receive shares of preferred stock in the surviving corporation of such merger with terms identical to, or no less favorable in the aggregate to the holders of the Series A preferred stock than, the terms of the Series A preferred stock so long as, in any such case, the surviving or resulting corporation of any such merger, combination or similar transaction is not materially less creditworthy than the Company was immediately prior to the consummation of such transaction.

Holders of Series A preferred stock are entitled to a liquidation preference of $5.21 per share in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, plus an amount equal to the accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon. If the assets are not sufficient to pay the full liquidation price to both the holders of Series A preferred stock and holders of stock that rank on parity with the Series A preferred stock with respect to distributions and distributions upon liquidation, winding up or dissolution, the holders of both Series A preferred stock and such parity stock will share ratably in the distribution of assets.

The shares of Series A preferred stock do not have preemptive rights.

To the extent Revlon has lawfully available funds to effect such redemption, the Company is required to redeem the Series A preferred stock on the earlier of (i) the fourth anniversary of the issuance date, and (ii) the consummation of a change of control transaction. The Company does not have the right to redeem any shares of Series A preferred stock at its option. Each share of Series A preferred stock currently outstanding was issued on October 8, 2009.

So long as shares of the Series A preferred stock remain outstanding, if Revlon issues any shares of common stock or preferred stock to MacAndrews & Forbes or any of its affiliates at a price per share that is lower than the then-current fair market value on the date of such issuance, then an appropriate adjustment to the amount payable to the holders of Series A preferred stock upon a change of control transaction within three years of the consummation of the October 2009 exchange offer will be made to reflect the aggregate difference between the issuance price per share and such then-current fair market value. However, no adjustment will be made as a result of (i) any securities offerings by Revlon (including, any rights offering), in which the same security is offered to all holders of the applicable class of securities or series of stock on a pro rata basis, (ii) the declaration or payment of any dividends or distributions to the holders of all of then-outstanding classes of equity securities of Revlon on a pro rata basis, (iii) any issuance by reclassification of securities of Revlon, (iv) the issuance of any securities of Revlon (including upon the exercise of options or rights) or options or rights to purchase those shares pursuant to any present or future employee, director or consultant benefit plan, program or practice of or assumed by Revlon or any of its subsidiaries or as full or partial consideration in connection with any acquisition by Revlon or its subsidiaries, or (v) the issuance of any securities of Revlon pursuant to any option, warrant, right or exercisable, exchangeable or convertible security outstanding as of the date of initial issuance of the Series A preferred stock. The form of the adjustment will be determined in good faith by a majority of the independent members of Revlon's board of directors, and will be binding and conclusive on all holders of the Series A preferred stock.

Section 203 of the DGCL

Section 203 of the DGCL provides, in general, that a stockholder acquiring more than 15% of the voting power of a corporation subject to the statute (referred to in this prospectus as an Interested Stockholder) but less than 85% of the voting power of such corporation may not engage in certain business combinations (as defined in Section 203 of the DGCL) with the corporation for a period of three years subsequent to the date on which the stockholder became an Interested Stockholder unless (i) prior to such time the corporation's board of directors approved either the business combination or the transaction in which the stockholder became an Interested Stockholder or (ii) the business combination is approved by the corporation's board of directors and authorized by a vote of at least 66 % of the voting power of the corporation not owned by the Interested Stockholder. Revlon's certificate of incorporation contains a provision electing not to be governed by Section 203 of the DGCL.

DIVIDEND POLICY

In the past, we have not declared or paid cash dividends on our Class A common stock (or our Class B common stock) and we do not intend to pay cash dividends on our Class A common stock or Class B common stock in the foreseeable future. We intend to retain any future earnings for funding our growth and meeting our obligations.

We are a holding company with no business operations of our own. Our only material asset is all of the outstanding capital stock of Products Corporation, our wholly-owned operating subsidiary. We are dependent on the earnings and cash flow of, and dividends and distributions from, Products Corporation to pay our expenses incidental to being a public holding company. Products Corporation may not generate sufficient cash flow to pay dividends or distribute funds to us because, for example, Products Corporation may not generate sufficient cash flow or net income or state laws may restrict or prohibit Products Corporation from issuing dividends or making distributions unless Products Corporation has sufficient surplus or net profits, which Products Corporation may not have. Further, the terms of Products Corporation's bank credit agreements, the Senior Subordinated Term Loan Agreement and the Senior Secured Notes Indenture generally restrict Products Corporation from paying dividends or making distributions to us, except that Products Corporation is permitted to pay dividends and make distributions to us to enable us to pay expenses incidental to being a public holding company, including, among other things, professional fees such as legal, accounting and insurance fees, regulatory fees, such as SEC filing fees, NYSE listing fees and other expenses related to being a public holding company and, subject to certain limitations, to pay dividends, if any, on our outstanding securities or make distributions in certain circumstances to finance our purchase of our Class A common stock in connection with the delivery of such Class A common stock to grantees under the Third Amended and Restated Revlon, Inc. Stock Plan. This limitation therefore restricts our ability to pay dividends on our Class A common stock.

The delayed delivery contracts are expected to be subject only to certain conditions that may be set forth in any applicable prospectus supplement.

At the time that any particular offering of securities is made, to the extent required by the Securities Act, a prospectus supplement will be distributed, setting forth the terms of the offering. Any applicable prospectus supplement will include, to the extent applicable:

the terms of the offering;

the name or names of any underwriters, dealers or agents and the amount of shares underwritten or purchased by each of them, if any;

the public offering price or purchase price of the shares and an estimate of the proceeds to be received by the Secured Parties from any such sale;

any underwriting discounts or agency fees and other items constituting underwriters or agents compensation;

the anticipated delivery date of the shares covered by this prospectus, including any delayed delivery arrangements, including any commissions the Secured Parties may pay for solicitation of any such delayed delivery contracts; that the shares are being solicited and offered directly to institutional investors or others; and any discounts or concessions to be allowed or reallocated or to be paid to agents or dealers.

If underwriters are used in any sale by the Secured Parties of any of the shares covered by this prospectus, the shares may be either offered to the public through underwriting syndicates represented by managing underwriters, or directly by underwriters. Unless otherwise stated in any prospectus supplement, the obligations of the underwriters to purchase any shares will be conditioned on customary closing conditions and the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all of such shares, if any are purchased.

Underwriters, dealers and agents may at the time of any sale by the Secured Parties of the shares covered by this prospectus be entitled under agreements, if any, entered into with the Secured Parties and us to indemnification by the Lender selling stockholders and us against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribution with respect to payments which the underwriters, dealers and agents may be required to make. Underwriters, dealers and agents engaged by the Secured Parties may be customers of, engage in transactions with, or perform services in the ordinary course of business for the Secured Parties and/or their affiliates or us and/or our affiliates.

Our Revlon Class A common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange. However, no assurance can be given as to the continued listing, continued trading, liquidity or activity of trading in the shares offered by the Secured Parties pursuant to this prospectus, if any.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Under Section 145 of the DGCL, a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding (i) if such person acted in good faith and in a manner that such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and (ii) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he or she had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful. In actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, a corporation may indemnify such person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if such person acted in good faith and in a manner that such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which that person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or other such court shall deem proper. To the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defending any such action, suit or proceeding referred to above or any claim, issue or matter therein, such person is entitled to indemnification for expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith. A corporation may pay expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. Such expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by former directors and officers or other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the corporation deems appropriate. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for or granted pursuant to Section 145 is not exclusive of any other rights of indemnification or advancement of expenses to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled, and a corporation may purchase and maintain insurance against liabilities asserted against any former or current director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or a person who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, whether or not the power to indemnify is provided by the statute.

Item 16. Exhibits and Financial Statement Schedules.

(a) Exhibits

The exhibits to this Registration Statement are listed on the Exhibit Index on page II-6 hereof, which is incorporated by reference in this Item 16.

(b) Financial Statement Schedules:

All schedules for which provision is made in the SEC's applicable accounting regulations have been omitted because they are not required, amounts which would otherwise be required to be shown regarding any item are not material, are inapplicable, or the required information has already been provided elsewhere in this Registration Statement.

Item 17. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or

high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) of this section do not apply if the Registration Statement is on Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act, that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement; and

Paragraphs (1)(i), (1)(ii) and (1)(iii) of this section do not apply if the Registration Statement is on Form S-3 or Form F-3 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the Registration Statement.

Provided further, however, that paragraphs 1(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if this Registration Statement is for an offering of asset-backed securities on Form S-1 or Form S-3, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment is provided pursuant to Item 1100(c) of Regulation AB.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

4. That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the Registration Statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the Registration Statement;

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a Registration Statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of and included in the Registration Statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the Registration Statement relating to the securities in the Registration Statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a Registration Statement or prospectus that is part of the Registration Statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement or prospectus that is part of the Registration Statement will, as to the purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the Registration Statement or prospectus that was part of the Registration Statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date; and

(iii) Each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the Registration Statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the Registration Statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement or prospectus that is part of the Registration Statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the Registration Statement or prospectus that was part of the Registration Statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

5. That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities:

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the provisions of the registrant's articles of incorporation or by-laws or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
