The Asset Sale (see page 13)

On January 24, 2011, our Board of Directors at a special meeting adopted and approved the Asset Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, we intend to sell and Arthrex intends to purchase substantially all of the Company's assets, consisting of all of the assets of our Reconstructive Division. We will sell substantially all of our assets to Arthrex in exchange for cash consideration of $9,960,000 plus the value of our inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to our Reconstructive division calculated as of the closing date, the assumption by Arthrex of certain executory liabilities of the Company under contracts being assumed by Arthrex, and the payment of a royalty equal to 5% of net sales of our Reconstructive Division products being acquired pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, to be paid in cash on a quarterly basis for a term up to and including the 20th anniversary of the closing date. Following the execution of the Asset Purchase Agreement, we received a $250,000 deposit from Arthrex to be credited against the cash consideration due at closing. From the cash consideration paid at closing, $900,000 will be deposited with an escrow agent for a period of twelve months from the closing date to be used for any adjustments to the value of our inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to our Reconstructive Division and for post closing indemnification claims which may be asserted by Arthrex with respect to losses, damages, costs, expenses, suits, actions or obligations related to unassumed liabilities and payment of certain taxes. We estimate that the value of our inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to our Reconstructive Division as of the closing date will be approximately $4.7 million. The assets excluded from the Asset Sale include the assets of our Spine Division, cash and cash equivalents, all receivables and accounts receivable, prepaid items and deposits, and real property leases and leasehold improvements.

If the proposed Asset Sale is consummated:

The Company will continue to be a public company;

The Company intends to find a buyer for the Company's assets in its Spine Division and consummate such sale as soon as possible following the Asset Sale;

The Company's common stock will continue to trade on the OTC Bulletin Board; and

The Company will use the proceeds from the Asset Sale to pay: (i) accrued salaries and payroll taxes, (ii) sums due to certain creditors, (iii) transaction expenses, and (iv) working capital purposes.

Spine Division Sale (see page 13)

On January 24, 2011, our Board of Directors at a special meeting adopted and approved the Spine Division Sale, which is the future sale of all of the assets of our Spine Division on terms and conditions to be determined by the Board of Directors of Cardo Medical in the future.

Reasons For The Asset Sale and The Spine Division Sale (see page 17)

The Board of Directors and management of the Company have concluded that based on the Company's losses from operations, negative cash flows from operations, accumulated deficit and limited cash to fund future operations, as well as its recent reduction in workforce, the Company's inability to raise additional funds and its review of strategic and liquidity alternatives, it would be in the Company's best interest to sell substantially all of the Company's assets at a fair price. In addition, for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company recorded net losses of approximately $5.1 million and $5.7 million, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company recorded losses of approximately $11.1 million and $3.8 million, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company's accumulated deficit totaled approximately $11.2 million and $6.1 million, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company accumulated deficit totaled approximately $22.2 million and $9.9 million, respectively. The Company has also received a going concern opinion from its independent auditors for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008. As a result, the Board of Directors and management decided that it is in the best interest of the Company to pursue a sale transaction for all of the assets of its Reconstructive Division to Arthrex, and to obtain the authorization to sell in the future all of the assets of its Spine Division.

Opinion Of Inverness Advisors Regarding the Asset Sale (see page 25)

On January 24, 2011, Inverness Advisors, a division of KEMA Partners LLC, our financial advisor (Inverness), rendered its oral opinion to our Board of Directors and subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the various considerations, assumptions and limitations set forth in its opinion, the Consideration (as defined therein) to be received by Cardo and its affiliate Cardo Medical, LLC in the Asset Sale was fair, from a financial point of view, to Cardo. The Asset Sale is also referred to as the Transaction in this Information Statement.

The analyses undertaken and matters considered by Inverness in rendering its opinion are summarized in the section of this information statement entitled Opinion of Our Financial Advisor, and the full text of the written opinion of Inverness is attached to this information statement as Annex C. We encourage you to read the opinion carefully in its entirety for a complete description of the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Inverness in rendering its opinion. The opinion was directed to our board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation by Inverness to our board of directors or any other person as to any matter relating to the asset purchase agreement or the Transaction.

The Name Change (see page 13)

On January 24, 2011, our Board of Directors at a special meeting adopted and approved, subject to the closing of the Asset Sale, an amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation to change our name to Tiger X Medical, Inc. Pursuant to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, immediately after the closing, we are required to change our name, logos, trade dress, trade names, trademarks, service marks and the like to new names that are reasonably satisfactory to Arthrex and do not use the words Cardo or any variation thereof. The Name Change will not become effective until the closing of the Asset Sale.

Approval of the Board of Directors and Stockholders (see page 13)

The Board of Directors of Cardo Medical, after careful consideration, has adopted and approved the Asset Purchase Agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby, the Spine Division Sale, and the Name Change and has recommended that Cardo Medical's stockholders vote for the adoption and approval of these items. Immediately following the execution of the Asset Purchase Agreement on January 24, 2011, stockholders holding 58% of Cardo Medical's shares of common stock outstanding executed a written consent in lieu of a stockholders meeting approving the Asset Purchase Agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby, the Spine Division Sale, and the Name Change.

Use of Proceeds (see page 18)

The Asset Purchase Agreement provides that, at closing, we will receive a total cash consideration of $9,960,000 plus the value of our inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to our Reconstructive Division calculated as of the closing date. From the cash consideration paid at closing, $900,000 will be deposited with an escrow agent for a period of twelve months from the closing date to be used for any adjustments to the value of the our inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to our Reconstructive Division and for post closing indemnification claims which may be asserted by Arthrex with respect to losses, damages, costs, expenses, suits, actions or obligations related to unassumed liabilities and payment of certain taxes. The Company anticipates that approximately $2.5 million will be used to pay: (i) accrued salaries and payroll taxes, (ii) sums due to certain creditors (iii) transaction expenses and (iv) working capital purposes.

Table of Contents

Structure of the Company After the Asset Sale (see page 17)

After completion of the Asset Sale, the Company will hold:

cash and cash equivalents in the approximate amount of $11.3 million, excluding $900,000 held in escrow; accounts receivable in the approximate amount of $450,000; and the limited liability company interests of Cardo Medical, LLC.

After the Asset Sale, our ongoing operations will consist of our Spine Division operations, the collection of accounts receivable, the collection of royalty payments pursuant to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, and the payment of any liabilities.

Consulting Agreements After The Asset Sale (see page 17)

It is anticipated that Dr. Andrew Brooks, Michael Kvitnitsky, and Derrick Romine will each enter into a consulting agreement with Arthrex at or prior to the closing of the Asset Sale. The consulting agreements for Messrs. Kvitnitsky and Romine have a term of three (3) months, which may be extended by mutual agreement of Arthrex and the consultant thereunder. Mr. Kvitnitsky will receive monthly compensation of $18,333.33 for consulting fees and $1,783.33 for monthly benefits. Mr. Romine will receive monthly compensation of $15,000.00 for consulting fees and $1,550.00 for monthly benefits. Each consulting agreement provides that the consultant will not compete with Arthrex during the term of the agreement, will not disclose any confidential information of Arthrex and will assign any inventions to Arthrex that were created during the term of the consulting agreement and that relate to Arthrex's business or were created in connection with the consulting services or using Arthrex's property. The agreements permit the consultant to (i) continue as a consultant to, or director, officer or employee of, Cardo Medical and/or its subsidiaries in connection with the Spine Division Sale, provided that such involvement does not materially interfere with the performance of his duties under the consulting agreement, or (ii) own, directly or indirectly, any equity securities (including stock options) of Cardo Medical that he holds as of the date of the Asset Purchase Agreement. The consulting agreement with Dr. Brooks will be on such terms as are mutually agreed upon by Dr. Brooks and Arthrex.

Dissenters' Rights (see page 31)

The stockholders of the Company are not entitled to seek dissenters' or appraisal rights under Delaware law in connection with the Asset Sale, the Spine Division Sale, or Name Change.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences (see page 31)

The Asset Sale will be treated by the Company as a taxable transaction for federal income tax purposes. It is anticipated that any gain resulting from the Asset Sale will be offset against the Company's net operating loss carryforwards. However, utilization of these carryforwards generates an alternative minimum tax for federal income tax purposes. At this time, we are unable to determine the alternative tax liability generated due to the utilization of these carryforwards.

If the Spine Division Sale is consummated in the future, the Spine Division Sale will be treated by the Company as a taxable transaction for federal income tax purposes. It is anticipated that any gain from the Spine Division Sale will be offset against the Company's net operating loss carryforwards. As noted above, the utilization of these carryforwards generates an alternative minimum tax for federal tax purposes. At this time, we are not able to estimate the alternative tax liability which will be generated due to the utilization of these carryforwards in connection with the Spine Division Sale.

Accounting Treatment (see page 31)

Upon completion of the Asset Sale, we will remove from our consolidated balance sheet all of the assets of our Reconstructive Division sold to Arthrex and will reflect therein the effect of the receipt and the use of the proceeds of the Asset Sale. We will record a gain on the sale of assets to Arthrex equal to the difference between the purchase price received and the book value of the assets sold in our consolidated statement of operations.

Table of Contents

If the Spine Division Sale is consummated in the future, we will remove from our consolidated balance sheet the assets of our Spine Division and will reflect therein the effect of the receipt and the use of the proceeds of the Spine Division Sale. We will record a gain or loss, as applicable, on the sale of the assets of our Spine Division equal to the difference between the purchase price received and the book value of the assets sold in our consolidated statement of operations.

Government Approval (see page 31)

Except for compliance with the applicable regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with this Information Statement and of the Delaware General Corporation Law in connection with the Asset Sale, the Spine Division Sale, and the Name Change, we are not required to comply with any federal or state regulatory requirements, and no federal or state regulatory approvals are required in connection with Asset Sale, the Spine Division Sale, or the Name Change.

Interests of the Continuing Stockholders (see page 33)

Following the Asset Sale, the Spine Division Sale and the Name Change, the current stockholders of the Company will continue to own 100% of the outstanding common stock of the Company.

In order to lawfully close on the proposed Asset Sale, authorize the Spine Division Sale, and effect the Name Change, Delaware law requires that a majority of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Asset Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, the Spine Division Sale, and the Name Change. The stockholders voting in favor of the Asset Purchase Agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby, the Spine Division Sale, and the Name Change represent 58% of the shares outstanding, or a majority of the outstanding shares. Therefore, management concluded that because approving a transaction by the written consent of stockholders can be accomplished quicker than distributing a notice of meeting and proxy statement, and conducting a stockholders meeting, management and the Board of Directors decided not to conduct a meeting of stockholders. Instead, promptly following the execution of the Asset Purchase Agreement, stockholders owning approximately 58% of the shares signed a written consent approving the Asset Purchase Agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby, the Spine Division Sale, and the Name Change.

Q. What Are The Terms Of The Asset Purchase Agreement?

A. On January 24, 2011, our Board of Directors at a special meeting, adopted and approved the Asset Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is included as Appendix A to this Information Statement, pursuant to which we intend to sell, and Arthrex intends to purchase, substantially all of our assets, consisting of all of the assets of our Reconstructive Division. Pursuant to the asset purchase agreement, we will sell substantially all of our assets to Arthrex in exchange for cash consideration of $9,960,000 plus the value of our inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to our Reconstructive Division calculated as of the closing date, the assumption by Arthrex of certain executory liabilities of the Company under contracts being assumed by Arthrex, and the payment of a royalty equal to 5% of net sales of our Reconstructive Division products acquired pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, to be paid in cash on a quarterly basis for a term up to and including the 20th anniversary of the closing date. Following the execution of the Asset Purchase Agreement, we received a $250,000 deposit from Arthrex to be credited against the cash consideration due at closing. From the cash consideration paid at closing, $900,000 will be deposited with an escrow agent for a period of twelve months from the closing date to be used for any adjustments to the value of our inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to our Reconstructive Division and for post closing indemnification claims which may be asserted by Arthrex with respect to losses, damages, costs, expenses, suits, actions or obligations related to unassumed liabilities and payment of certain taxes. We estimate the value of our inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to our Reconstructive Division as of the closing date will be approximately $4.7 million. The assets excluded from the Asset Sale include the assets of our Spine Division, cash and cash equivalents, all receivables and accounts receivable, prepaid items and deposits, and real property leases and leasehold improvements.

Q. Why Is The Company Selling Its Assets?

A. The Board of Directors and management of the Company have concluded that based on the Company's losses from operations, negative cash flows from operations, accumulated deficit and limited cash to fund future operations, as well as its recent reduction in workforce, and its review of strategic and liquidity alternatives, it would be in the Company's best interest to sell substantially all of the Company's assets at a fair price. In addition, for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company recorded net losses of approximately $5.1 million and $5.7 million, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company recorded losses of approximately $11.1 million and $3.8 million, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company's accumulated deficit totaled approximately $11.2 million and $6.1 million, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company accumulated deficit totaled approximately $22.2 million and $9.9 million, respectively. The Company has also received a going concern opinion from its independent auditors for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008. As a result, the Board of Directors and management decided that it is in the best interest of the Company to pursue a sale transaction for all of the assets of its Reconstructive Division to Arthrex, and to obtain the authorization to sell in the future all of the assets of its Spine Division.

Q. What Factors Were Considered By Management And The Board Of Directors In Deciding To Sell Substantially All Of The Company's Assets?

Management and the Board of Directors considered a number of factors before deciding to execute the Asset Purchase Agreement, including but not limited to, the following:

the Company's losses from operations, negative cash flows from operations, accumulated deficit and limited cash to fund future operations, as well as its recent reduction in workforce;

the terms and conditions of the proposed Asset Sale;

Q. What Are The Income Tax Consequences Of The Asset Sale?

A. The Asset Sale will be treated by the Company as a taxable transaction for federal income tax purposes. See Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences.

In accordance with this provision, we obtained the written consent in lieu of a meeting of stockholders representing a majority of the total issued and outstanding shares of voting stock of the Company approving the Asset Purchase Agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby, the Spine Division Sale, and the Name Change. As a result of the action of the majority of the Company's stockholders, we are not soliciting proxies, and there will be no further stockholder action on the Asset Purchase Agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby, the Spine Division Sale, or the Name Change.

Holders of record of the Company's Common Stock, are entitled to notice of the action taken by written consent approving the Asset Purchase Agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby, the Spine Division Sale, and the Name Change.

Background Of The Asset Sale

As discussed in our press release from October 7, 2010 announcing company-wide layoffs, we explored ways to raise additional capital during 2010 and were unsuccessful. As mentioned in the press release, we continued to seek alternative sources of capital, including the selling of some or all of our assets, as well as exploring strategic alliances.

As a result of our press release, representative from Arthrex called Dr. Brooks to inquire about a potential sale of our assets. On October 15, 2010, Cardo Medical's management met with the management of Arthrex in Naples, Florida, for preliminary discussions, including an overview of our business and a product review.

During the week of October 18, 2010, we met with various investment banking firms, including Inverness Advisors, a division of KEMA Partners LLC (Inverness), to discuss the potential engagement of one of the firms as our financial advisor.

On October 19, 2010, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting during which the board of directors approved the engagement of Inverness on such terms as management deemed appropriate. On October 20, 2010, Inverness and members of our management initiated discussions regarding potential buyers, the sale process, transaction issues and market conditions.

On October 31, 2010, we engaged Inverness to provide investment banking services as we explored our strategic alternatives, including a sale of equity or assets.

Throughout October and November 2010, Inverness worked with potential parties interested in purchasing us, including both financial and strategic buyers. During this period, approximately 29 parties were contacted, either telephonically, by email or by both methods of communication. Of those contacted, ten parties expressed an interest in and executed mutual non-disclosure and confidentiality agreements (NDAs) and subsequently began the due diligence process.

On November 4, 2010, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting during which management and Inverness provided an update on the status of on-going discussions with Arthrex as well as the status of the various other on-going discussions.

On November 11, 2010, prospective purchasers were directed to submit preliminary proposals by November 29, 2010.

On December 3, 2010, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting during which management and Inverness provided a process update, summarized the three preliminary indications of interest that had been received by us. Inverness was directed to allow the three parties to proceed with due diligence.

On December 11, 2010, prospective purchasers were directed to submit revised proposals and their comments to the first draft of the asset purchase agreement that had been prepared by Cardo's counsel by December 22, 2010.

On December 23, 2010, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting during which management and Inverness provided a process update, summarized the revised proposal from Arthrex, one preliminary indication of interest that was received by us on December 21, 2010 and the three preliminary indications of interest that had been received by us previously. Our board decided to continue negotiations with Arthrex, primarily because their proposal involved substantially all of our assets and their proposal resulted in a higher purchase price compared to the other indications of interest received.

Throughout the remainder of 2010 and the beginning of 2011, we held due diligence meetings and follow up sessions with representatives of Arthrex. We continued to negotiate with Arthrex the terms and conditions of the transaction and the proposed asset purchase agreement. On December 27, 2010, we responded to Arthrex's first round of comments to the asset purchase agreement.

During late December 2010, Arthrex's management observed certain surgical procedures involving our products. Furthermore, during the first week of January 2011, Dr. Andrew Brooks performed a laboratory demonstration of our products with Arthrex management in Naples, Florida.

On January 7, 2011, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting during which management and Inverness provided a process update with respect to the Arthrex negotiations and due diligence process.

On January 12, 2011, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting during which management and Inverness provided a process update with respect to the Arthrex negotiations and counsel to the Company updated the board of directors on the status of the open issues under the asset purchase agreement, including a discussion of open issues and timing of the transaction. Additionally, Inverness made a presentation to the board of directors with respect to its preliminary valuation analysis for the transaction as it was proposed at that time, including a selected public companies analysis, selected precedent transaction analysis, discounted cash flow analysis and other analysis.

Senior management of Arthrex and the Company met in our New Jersey location during the week of January 17, 2011 to address business diligence and open issues regarding the transaction.

On January 21, 2011, as a result of the status of diligence and negotiations, our management and Arthrex's management discussed changing the structure of the transaction from substantially all of the Company's assets for both its reconstructive division and spine division to substantially all of the Company's assets for only its reconstructive division.

On January 24, 2011, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting during which management updated the board of directors on the negotiations with Arthrex and presented management's recommendation that the board of directors approve Cardo entering into the agreement with Arthrex. Inverness made an updated presentation to the board of directors with respect to its valuation analysis for the proposed revised transaction, including a selected public companies analysis, selected precedent transaction analysis and discounted cash flow analysis. At the meeting, representatives of Inverness also delivered Inverness's oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing that as of January 24, 2011, and based upon and subject to the various considerations, assumptions and limitations set forth in its opinion, the Consideration (as defined therein) to be received by Cardo and its affiliate Cardo Medical in the transaction was fair, from a financial point of view, to Cardo. Thereafter, the Cardo board of directors, having taken into consideration the information presented and discussed, approved and adopted the asset purchase agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, approved the filing of the name change to Tiger X Medical, Inc. immediately after the closing of the asset sale and approved the sale of all of the assets of the Spine Division on the terms and conditions to be determined by the Board of Directors as soon as practicable after the closing of the transactions contemplated by the asset purchase agreement, and voted to recommend that the majority stockholders of Cardo approve the foregoing.

Reasons For The Asset Sale And The Spine Division Sale

The Board of Directors and management of the Company have concluded that based on the Company's losses from operations, negative cash flows from operations, accumulated deficit and limited cash to fund future operations, as well as its recent reduction in workforce, the Company's inability to raise additional funds and its review of strategic and liquidity alternatives, it would be in the Company's best interest to sell substantially all of the Company's assets at a fair price. In addition, for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company recorded net losses of approximately $5.1 million and $5.7 million, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company recorded losses of approximately $11.1 million and $3.8 million, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company's accumulated deficit totaled approximately $11.2 million and $6.1 million, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company accumulated deficit totaled approximately $22.2 million and $9.9 million, respectively. The Company has also received a going concern opinion from its independent auditors for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008. As a result, the Board of Directors and management decided that it is in the best interest of the Company to pursue a sale transaction for all of the assets of its Reconstructive Division to Arthrex, and to obtain the authorization to sell in the future all of the assets of its Spine Division.

Special Factors Regarding the Asset Sale

There are many factors that our stockholders should consider in reviewing the information contained in this Information Statement. Such factors include, but are not limited to, those set forth below and elsewhere in this Information Statement.

We will continue to incur claims, liabilities and expenses, which will reduce the realizable value of our remaining assets.

We will continue to incur the expenses of complying with public company reporting requirements.

We have an obligation to continue to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, even though compliance with such reporting requirements is economically burdensome.

Assets Subject To Sale

The assets to be sold to Arthrex consist of substantially all of our assets, consisting of all the assets of our Reconstructive Division, and include the following:

assets, properties and rights used primarily in connection with the reconstructive joint devices business;

Use of Proceeds

The Asset Purchase Agreement provides that, at closing, we will receive a total cash consideration of $9,960,000 plus the value of our inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to the Reconstructive Division calculated as of the closing date. From the cash consideration paid at closing, $900,000 will be deposited with an escrow agent for a period of twelve months from the closing date to be used for any adjustments to the value of the our inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to our Reconstructive Division and for post closing indemnification claims which may be asserted by Arthrex with respect to losses, damages, costs, expenses, suits, actions or obligations related to unassumed liabilities and payment of certain taxes. The Company anticipates that approximately $2.5 million will be used to pay: (i) accrued salaries and payroll taxes, (ii) sums due to certain creditors and (iii) transaction expenses.

Structure Of The Company After The Asset Sale

After completion of the Asset Sale, the Company will hold:

cash and cash equivalents in the approximate amount of $11.3 million, excluding $900,000 held in escrow; and accounts receivable in the approximate amount of $450,000.

After the Asset Sale, our ongoing operations will consist of our Spine Division operations, the collection of accounts receivable, the collection of royalty payments pursuant to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, and the payment of any liabilities. The Company intends to find a buyer for the Company's assets in its Spine Division and consummate such sale as soon as possible following the Asset Sale.

Consulting Agreements After The Asset Sale

It is anticipated that Dr. Andrew Brooks, Michael Kvitnitsky, and Derrick Romine will each enter into a consulting agreement with Arthrex at or prior to the closing of the Asset Sale. The consulting agreements for Messrs. Kvitnitsky and Romine have a term of three (3) months, which may be extended by mutual agreement of Arthrex and the consultant thereunder. Mr. Kvitnitsky will receive monthly compensation of $18,333.33 for consulting fees and $1,783.33 for monthly benefits. Mr. Romine will receive monthly compensation of $15,000.00 for consulting fees and $1,550.00 for monthly benefits. Each consulting agreement provides that the consultant will not compete with Arthrex during the term of the agreement, will not disclose any confidential information of Arthrex and will assign any inventions to Arthrex that were created during the term of the consulting agreement and that relate to Arthrex's business or were created in connection with the consulting services or using Arthrex's property. The agreements permit the consultant to (i) continue as a consultant to, or director, officer or employee of, Cardo Medical and/or its subsidiaries in connection with the Spine Division Sale, provided that such involvement does not materially interfere with the performance of his duties under the consulting agreement, or (ii) own, directly or indirectly, any equity securities (including stock options) of Cardo Medical that he holds as of the date of the Asset Purchase Agreement. The consulting agreement with Dr. Brooks will be on such terms as are mutually agreed upon by Dr. Brooks and Arthrex.

Table of ContentsTerms of the Asset Purchase Agreement

The following is a summary of the significant provisions of the Asset Purchase Agreement. To fully understand the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement, you should carefully read in its entirety the copy of the Asset Purchase Agreement that is included as Appendix A to this Information Statement and is incorporated herein by reference.

Purchase Price

The Asset Purchase Agreement provides that at closing Arthrex will (i) pay to the Company $9,960,000 in cash plus the value of the Company's inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to the Reconstructive Division calculated as of the closing date, (ii) assume certain executory liabilities of the Company under contracts being assumed by Arthrex, and (iii) pay to the Company a royalty equal to 5% of the net sales of the Company's Reconstructive Division products acquired pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement (as discussed below), in cash, on a quarterly basis, for a period up to and including the 20th anniversary of closing. The Company estimates the value of the inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to the Reconstructive Division to be $4.7 million. Following the execution of the Asset Purchase Agreement, Arthrex delivered to the Company a $250,000 deposit, which amount will be credited against the cash consideration at closing.

Royalty

As partial consideration for the purchase of the assets of our Reconstructive Division pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, Arthrex shall pay Cardo Medical an amount equal to 5% of net sales of the products of our Reconstructive Division acquired pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, and any successor products or improvements, alterations or derivations thereof that utilize certain intellectual property acquired from the Company. The royalty shall be paid in cash on a quarterly basis, for a period up to and including the 20th anniversary of the closing under the Asset Purchase Agreement. Net sales means the consolidated net sales of Arthrex and its subsidiaries (including any licensing fees and/or royalties) attributable to the sales of such products less commissions, returns, customer allowances and rebates, collection losses and customer discounts. In the event of a sale, transfer or other disposition, directly or indirectly (including by merger, asset sale, equity sale, consolidation, reorganization or otherwise) by Arthrex of the right to sell or manufacture any such products, Arthrex shall cause the purchaser to assume the obligations of Arthrex to pay the royalty with respect to such products.

Arthrex shall have a right to set-off against the payment of the Royalty due to Cardo Medical hereunder solely to the extent of any and all out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including amounts paid in settlement and reasonable attorneys fees and expenses) incurred in good faith after consultation with counsel and paid by Arthrex, arising out of claims by unaffiliated third parties alleging infringement of intellectual property rights to the extent based on intellectual property acquired pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement. If it is ultimately determined that such amounts were not due to Arthrex, then any royalty to which Arthrex exercised its right of set-off shall be paid to Cardo Medical and shall bear interest at a rate equal to 8% per annum. Until such time as the royalty has achieved a net present value of $3,000,000, using a discount rate of 8% per annum, Arthrex agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to promote the sale of such products. Notwithstanding the foregoing, control of all business decisions concerning the business acquired and such products shall be the absolute right of Arthrex.

Purchase Price Adjustment

At least two (2) business days prior to the closing, the Company and Arthrex shall agree upon a good faith estimate of the value of the Company's inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to the Reconstructive Division calculated as of the closing date, and based on such estimate, the estimated cash consideration payable at closing. With respect to property, plant and equipment, the Company and Arthrex have agreed that such value will be the net book value of such assets as of the closing, prepared in accordance with GAAP. With respect to inventory, the Company and Arthrex have agreed that such value will be the gross cost value of the saleable and non-obsolete finished goods inventory, work in process and packaging material of the Reconstructive Division business as of the closing, without inclusion of a reserve for slow moving inventory.

Table of Contents

Following the closing, the Company and Arthrex will prepare a final determination of such value. If the parties cannot agree, they will submit the dispute to an independent accounting firm for resolution pursuant to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement. If such value, as finally determined, exceeds the estimated value at closing, then Arthrex will pay to the Sellers such excess. If such value as finally determined is less than the estimated value at closing, then an amount equal to such shortfall will be paid by the Sellers to Arthrex from the escrow account.

Escrow

At closing, Arthrex, the Company and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as escrow agent, shall enter into an Escrow Agreement, pursuant to which Arthrex will withhold $900,000 from the purchase price paid at closing and shall deposit the escrow amount with the escrow agent for a period of 12 months. This amount will be held to satisfy any purchase price adjustments as a result of any disputes regarding the value of the Company's inventory and property, plant and equipment relating to the Reconstructive Division and any claims for indemnification that Arthrex may have with respect to unassumed liabilities and taxes.

The Company has agreed to defend, indemnify and hold harmless Arthrex and its affiliates, successors and assigns from and against any and all losses, damages, costs, expenses, suits, actions, claims, deficiencies, liabilities or obligations related to, caused by or arising from any Excluded Liabilities or certain Taxes, as such terms are defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement. Opinion of Inverness Advisors

On October 31, 2010, Cardo Medical, Inc. engaged Inverness Advisors, a division of KEMA Partners LLC (Inverness) to provide it with financial advisory services and a fairness opinion in connection with a possible merger, sale or other strategic business combination. On January 24, 2011, Inverness rendered its oral opinion to our Board of Directors and subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the various considerations, assumptions and limitations set forth in its opinion, the Consideration (as defined below) to be received by Cardo and its affiliate Cardo Medical, LLC (collectively with Cardo, Sellers) in the Transaction was fair, from a financial point of view, to Cardo. As used in this information statement and in the opinion, the term

Consideration means the assumption by Arthrex of the Assumed Liabilities (as defined in the asset purchase agreement), the payment of the Royalty (as defined in the asset purchase agreement) by Arthrex to Cardo and the payment of cash proceeds equal to the sum of U.S. $9,960,000 plus the Closing Asset Value (as defined in the asset purchase agreement) by Arthrex to Sellers, subject to adjustment as provided for in the asset purchase agreement.

Table of Contents

The full text of the written opinion of Inverness, dated as of January 24, 2011, is attached to this information statement as Annex C. The opinion sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Inverness in rendering its opinion. We encourage you to read the entire opinion carefully. Inverness's opinion was directed to Cardo's Board of Directors and addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Consideration pursuant to the Transaction to Cardo as of the date of the opinion. It did not address any other aspects of the Transaction and does not constitute a recommendation to the Board of Directors of Cardo or any other person as to any matter relating to the asset purchase agreement or the Transaction. The summary of the opinion of Inverness set forth in this information statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Inverness, among other things:

reviewed a draft of the asset purchase agreement dated January 21, 2011, including the financial terms and conditions set forth therein;

reviewed Cardo's audited financial results for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, Cardo's unaudited financial statements for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and a preliminary draft of Cardo's unaudited statement of operations for the quarter ended December 31, 2010;

reviewed certain other business, operating and financial data of Cardo and the reconstructive division of Sellers (the Division), prepared and furnished to Inverness by Cardo's management, including certain financial forecasts, projections and analyses for the Division prepared and furnished to Inverness by Cardo's management for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2010 through 2013 (the Forecasts);

held discussions with the senior management team of Cardo concerning the business, past and current operations, financial condition and future prospects of the Division, the effects of the Transaction on the financial condition and future prospects of Cardo, and certain other matters Inverness believed necessary or appropriate to Inverness's inquiry;

compared the financial performance of the Division with that of certain other companies whose securities are traded in public markets that Inverness deemed relevant;

compared the financial terms of the Transaction with the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of other transactions that Inverness deemed relevant;

reviewed Cardo's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, and Cardo's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2010;

reviewed certain other publicly available business, operating and financial information of Cardo and the Division; and made such other studies and inquiries, and reviewed such other data, and considered such other factors as Inverness deemed, in its sole judgment, to be necessary, appropriate or relevant.

In arriving at its opinion, Inverness assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information supplied or otherwise made available to it by Cardo and all publicly-available financial and other information regarding Cardo and its affiliates reviewed by Inverness, and did not independently verify any such information or assume any responsibility or liability therefor. With regard to all of the foregoing information, Inverness relied upon the assurances of the senior management team of Cardo that all such information was complete and accurate in all material respects and that they were unaware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information incomplete or misleading in any material respect. Except as set forth in the opinion, and without limiting any of the various considerations, assumptions and limitations set forth therein, Cardo imposed no other instructions or limitations on Inverness with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion.

Inverness was not requested to conduct and did not conduct a physical inspection of the properties or facilities of Cardo, nor did Inverness conduct any valuation or appraisal of any of the Purchased Assets (as defined in the asset purchase agreement) or any other assets or liabilities of Sellers, nor were any such valuations or appraisals provided to Inverness. Inverness did not evaluate the solvency of either Seller under any state, federal or other laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters, and did not undertake independent analysis of any pending or threatened litigation, regulatory action, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities, to which Sellers or any of their affiliates is a party or may be subject, and at the direction of Cardo and with its consent, Inverness's opinion made no assumption concerning, and therefore did not consider, the possible assertion of claims, outcomes or damages arising out of any such matters.

Table of Contents

With respect to the Forecasts provided to Inverness by Cardo, Inverness, with Cardo's consent, assumed that such Forecasts were prepared in good faith on reasonable bases reflecting management's then-current best estimates and judgments of the Division's future financial performance were it not to be sold to Arthrex. Inverness also assumed, with Cardo's consent, that the financial results reflected in such Forecasts would be realized in the amounts and at the times projected, and Inverness assumed no responsibility for and expressed no view as to such Forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. Inverness was also informed by the senior management team of Cardo that the ability to realize such results would require Cardo to raise additional financing in an amount that exceeds the amount of financing readily available to Cardo as of the date of the opinion. Further, without limiting the foregoing, Inverness, with Cardo's consent, assumed, without independent verification, that the historical and projected financial information provided by Cardo accurately reflected the historical and projected operations of Cardo and the Division, and that there had been no material change in the assets, financial condition, business or prospects of Cardo or the Division since the respective dates of the most recent financial statements made available to Inverness.

Inverness made no independent investigation of any legal matters involving Sellers or Arthrex, and has assumed the correctness of all statements with respect to legal matters made or otherwise provided to Cardo and Inverness by Cardo's counsel or by Arthrex's counsel.

The opinion did not constitute a recommendation to our Board of Directors or any other person with respect to the Transaction, and did not address the relative merits of the Transaction over any other alternative transactions which may have been available to Cardo. Inverness expressed no opinion as to the underlying business decision of Cardo to effect the Transaction, the structure, or accounting treatment or taxation consequences of the Transaction or the availability or the advisability of any alternatives to the Transaction. Inverness expressed no opinion with respect to any other reasons, legal, business, or otherwise, that may have supported the decision of the Board of Directors of Cardo to approve or cause Cardo to enter into the asset purchase agreement or consummate the Transaction. No opinion was expressed with respect to the fairness (financial or otherwise) of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of Cardo, or class of such persons, whether independently or relative to the Consideration, including whether such compensation is reasonable in the context of the Transaction, and Inverness also expressed no opinion as to the price at which the common stock of Cardo would trade upon announcement of the Transaction or at any future time. Inverness made no independent investigation of any legal, accounting or tax matters affecting Cardo, and assumed the correctness of all legal, accounting and tax advice given to Cardo and its board of directors. The opinion did not address the fairness of any specific portion of the Consideration or any other particular component of the Transaction, did not address the fairness of the allocation of the Consideration between Sellers, and did not address the fairness to the stockholders of Cardo of the portion of the Consideration that may ultimately become distributable to such stockholders following consummation of the Transaction.

Inverness's opinion was based on market, economic, financial and other circumstances and conditions as they existed as of January 24, 2011. Inverness's opinion can be evaluated only as of January 24, 2011, and any material change in such circumstances and conditions would require a reevaluation of its opinion, which Inverness is under no obligation to undertake. Inverness assumed no responsibility to update or revise its opinion based upon events or circumstances occurring after the date thereof.

The following is a brief summary of the material financial analyses performed by Inverness in connection with the preparation of its opinion. The various analyses summarized below were based on market data as it existed on or before January 21, 2011, and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions. Inverness conducted three primary analyses, as described below, in connection with arriving at its opinion, including Selected Public Companies Analysis, Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis and Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Although each financial analysis was provided to the Board of Directors of Cardo in connection with arriving at its opinion, Inverness considered all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis described below. These summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. To fully understand the financial analyses used by Inverness, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

Table of Contents

Principal Assumptions Related to Consideration to be Received by Cardo for the Division.

Cardo's senior management does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance and is especially wary of making projections for extended periods due to the unpredictability of the underlying assumptions and estimates. Certain of Inverness's analyses were based on our estimates for three cases:

one which assumed that we would receive zero value from the Royalty (the No Royalty Case);

one which assumed that the net present value of the Royalty was approximately $12.0 million (the Management Case); and one which assumed that the net present value of the Royalty was approximately $5.5 million (the Adjusted Management Case).

Inverness discounted the value of the projected cash flows received from the Royalty, less $250,000 in assumed annual administrative expenses, by a discount rate of 17.5% per annum, which discount rate was selected based upon a weighted average cost of capital analysis for Cardo and other selected public companies with similar operating profiles plus a small cap premium. The Management Case reflected 20 years of projected cash flows from the Royalty, and the Adjusted Management Case reflected 10 years of projected cash flows from the Royalty.

In addition, Inverness assumed, with Cardo's consent, that the estimated Closing Asset Value, as defined in the asset purchase agreement, totaled approximately $4.7 million. With respect to each of such analyses, Inverness noted that the projected consideration to be received by Cardo in the Transaction is the sum of the cash proceeds of approximately $10.0 million, plus the estimated Closing Asset Value of approximately $4.7 million plus the projected net present value of the Royalty of $0, approximately $5.5 million and approximately $12.0 million in the No Royalty Case, Adjusted Management Case and Management Case, respectively.

Table of Contents

With respect to each of such analyses, Inverness noted that the projected consideration to be received by Cardo in the Transaction was approximately $14.7 million, $20.2 million and $26.7 million in the No Royalty Case, Adjusted Management Case and Management Case, respectively, and compared such expected consideration to the implied enterprise values derived from each such analysis.

Selected Public Companies Analysis.

Inverness, using publicly available information, compared certain historical and projected financial and operating information of a group of selected orthopedic companies deemed to be relevant to analyzing the historical and projected financial and operating information of Cardo's Division. The companies used in this comparison included the following companies:

Alphatec Holdings, Inc.

ArthroCare Corporation

Exactech Inc.

Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation

NuVasive, Inc.

Orthofix International NV

Symmetry Medical, Inc.

Wright Medical Group Inc.

For purposes of this analysis, Inverness analyzed the following statistics of each of these companies for comparison purposes:

the ratio of enterprise value, defined as market capitalization plus total debt less cash and cash equivalents, to last twelve months (LTM) revenue;

the ratio of enterprise value to estimated calendar year (CY) 2010 revenue; and the ratio of enterprise value to estimated CY 2011 revenue.

Based on the analysis of the relevant metrics for each of the selected public companies, Inverness selected a representative range, comprised of the value calculated from the first quartile to the third quartile, of financial multiples of the selected public companies and applied this range of multiples to the relevant financial statistic of Cardo's Division. Estimated financial data of the selected publicly traded companies were based on consensus estimates reported by Capital IQ, a business of Standard & Poor's, calculated as the mean of independent research analyst estimates. Estimated financial data for Cardo's Division were based on management projections provided to Inverness. Using this information, Inverness estimated the implied enterprise value of the business being sold in the Transaction as follows:

All $ in thousands.

Enterprise Value to:	1st Quartile	Median	3rd Quartile	Cardo's Division Operating Statistic	Implied			Implied Median Enterprise Value
					Enterprise Value (1st - 3rd Quartile)
LTM Revenues	1.2x	1.4x	2.3x	$2,213	$2,740	$5,086	$3,035
Estimated CY 2010 Revenues	1.3x	1.3x	2.3x	$2,213	$2,825	$5,078	$2,937
Estimated CY 2011 Revenues	1.2x	1.2x	2.2x	$5,860	$6,937	$12,692	$7,134

Inverness noted that the earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, or EBITDA, for Cardo's Division for LTM and estimated 2010 and 2011 were negative and, therefore, not meaningful in determining the implied enterprise value for Cardo's Division relative to the selected public companies. Such analyses were therefore not included. Inverness did not include every company that could be deemed to be a participant in the same industry as Cardo's Division, or in any specific sectors of this industry. No company used in this analysis is identical or directly comparable to Cardo's Division. Rather, this analysis involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading or other values of the companies to which Cardo's Division was compared.

Table of Contents

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis.

Inverness also analyzed the Consideration to be payable in the Transaction as compared to the consideration payable in other publicly-announced transactions. In connection with this analysis, Inverness reviewed the following transactions involving target companies in the orthopedic industry that were announced since January 1, 2006 that it deemed relevant.

Announcement Date	Name of Acquiror	Name of Target
08/17/10	Medtronic, Inc.	Osteotech, Inc.
12/17/09	Alphatec Holdings, Inc.	Scient X Groupe
09/14/09	Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation	Innovative Spinal Technologies, Inc.
04/22/09	Zimmer, Inc.	Abbott Spine, Inc.
04/22/09	Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation	Theken Spine, LLC
04/22/09	NuVasive, Inc.	Cervitech, Inc.
07/27/07	Medtronic, Inc.	Kyphon Inc.
03/12/07	Smith & Nephew plc	Plus Orthopedics Holding AG
12/18/06	Investor Syndicate	Biomet, Inc.
12/04/06	Kyphon Inc.	St. Francis Medical Technologies, Inc.
08/07/06	Orthofix International N.V.	Blackstone Medical, Inc.
07/11/06	Smith & Nephew plc	OsteoBiologics, Inc.

The information analyzed by Inverness for the precedent transactions analysis included the ratios of enterprise value to LTM revenue, and enterprise to estimated next twelve months (NTM) revenue. Inverness selected a representative range of financial multiples of the precedent transactions, as shown in the following table, and applied this range of multiples to the relevant financial statistic:

All $ in thousands.

	Cardo's			Implied Enterprise		Implied Median Enterprise Value
	1 st Quartile	Median	3 rd Quartile	Division Operating Statistic	Value (1 st - 3 rd Quartile)
Enterprise Value to:
LTM Revenues	3.0x	3.8x	5.1x	$2,213	$6,644 - $11,319	$ 8,307
NTM Revenues	1.5x	3.3x	5.3x	$5,860	$8,597 - $31,083	$ 19,136

Inverness noted that the projected EBITDA for Cardo's Division for LTM and NTM were negative and, therefore, not meaningful in determining the implied enterprise value for Cardo's Division relative to the selected precedent transactions. Such analyses were therefore not included.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

Inverness used cash flow forecasts of Cardo's Division for fiscal years 2011 through 2013 provided by Cardo management to perform a discounted cash flow analysis. In conducting this analysis, Inverness assumed that the Division would perform in accordance with these forecasts. Inverness also assumed for purposes of this analysis, based on the guidance of Cardo management, that Cardo's ability to continue as a going concern and achieve the results reflected in the financial and operating forecasts was dependent on Cardo raising approximately $10 million in the near future, and that Cardo's ability to raise such capital within the necessary time frame was unlikely. Inverness first estimated the discounted value of the projected cash flows of the Division using discount rates ranging from 15.0% to 25.0% per annum, which range of discount rates was selected based upon a weighted average cost of capital analysis for Cardo and other selected public companies with similar operating profiles plus a small cap premium. Inverness then calculated a terminal value based on EBITDA exit multiples of 9.0x to 11.0x (based on the trading multiples of selected public companies). These terminal values were then discounted to present value using discount rates ranging from 15.0% to 25.0% per annum. This analysis indicated a range of enterprise values. Inverness also assumed that if Cardo was able to raise the necessary additional capital to achieve management projections, the existing shareholder base as of January 21, 2010 would be diluted by 21.9% in order to raise such capital at Cardo's stock price as of January 21, 2010. Inverness accounted for such dilution when calculating the implied enterprise value accruing to existing shareholders of $16.4 million to $28.1 million.

In connection with its opinion, Inverness performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, of which the analyses deemed most pertinent by Inverness are summarized above. The foregoing is not a comprehensive description of all analyses undertaken by Inverness in connection with its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Inverness considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor it considered, Inverness believes that selecting any portion of its analyses, without considering all analyses as a whole, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. In addition, Inverness may have given various analyses and factors more or less weight than other analyses and factors, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be Inverness's view of the actual value of Cardo's Division. In performing its analyses, Cardo made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters. Many of these assumptions are beyond the control of Cardo. Any estimates contained in Inverness's analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the ranges of valuations resulting from, any particular analysis described above are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty and should not be taken to be Inverness's view of the actual value of the Division.

The Consideration was determined through arm's-length negotiations between Cardo and Arthrex and was approved by Cardo's Board of Directors. Inverness provided advice to Cardo during these negotiations. Inverness did not, however, recommend any specific Consideration to Cardo or that any Consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the Transaction.

Inverness's opinion and its presentation to Cardo's Board of Directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by Cardo's Board of Directors in deciding to adopt and declare advisable the Transaction and to determine that the Transaction was in the best interests of Cardo. Consequently, the analyses as described above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of Cardo's Board of Directors with respect to the Consideration or of whether Cardo's Board of Directors would have been willing to agree to a different Consideration.

Inverness, as part of its investment banking services, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers, acquisitions, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. In selecting Inverness as Cardo's financial advisor in connection with the asset sale, Cardo considered Inverness's qualifications, reputation and experience in the valuation of businesses, assets and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and strategic transactions generally. Inverness and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business provides and in the future may continue to provide investment banking or financial advisory services to Cardo and may receive fees for the rendering of such services.

In addition, in the ordinary course of its businesses, Inverness and its affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of Cardo or Arthrex for its own account or for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities.

Table of Contents

Inverness has been engaged by Cardo as its financial advisor pursuant to the engagement and indemnity agreement dated October 31, 2010, by and between Inverness and Cardo (the Inverness Engagement Letter). In connection with the Transaction, Inverness will receive a fee for the rendering of the opinion and certain additional fees for its services in connection with the Transaction. Cardo has agreed to pay Inverness an aggregate fee of $400,000, a substantial portion of which is payable at closing, and Inverness is entitled to additional payments of up to 5% of the royalty payments received by us. In addition, Cardo has agreed to indemnify Inverness against and exculpate Inverness from certain liabilities that may arise out of Inverness's engagement, all as more fully described in the Inverness Engagement Letter.

Dissenters' Rights

In accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law, our stockholders do not have dissenters' or appraisal rights in connection with the Asset Sale or Name Change.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences

The Asset Sale will be treated by the Company as a taxable transaction for federal income tax purposes. It is anticipated that any gain resulting from the Asset Sale will be offset against the Company's net operating loss carryforwards. However, utilization of these carryforwards generates an alternative minimum tax for federal income tax purposes. At this time, we are unable to determine the alternative tax liability generated due to the utilization of these carryforwards.

If the Spine Division Sale is consummated in the future, the Spine Division Sale will be treated by the Company as a taxable transaction for federal income tax purposes. It is anticipated that any gain from the Spine Division Sale will be offset against the Company's net operating loss carryforwards. As noted above, the utilization of these carryforwards generates an alternative minimum tax for federal tax purposes. At this time, we are not able to estimate the alternative tax liability which will be generated due to the utilization of these carryforwards in connection with the Spine Division Sale.

Accounting Treatment

Upon completion of the Asset Sale, we will remove from our consolidated balance sheet all of the assets of our Reconstructive Division sold to Arthrex and will reflect therein the effect of the receipt and the use of the proceeds of the Asset Sale. We will record a gain on the sale of assets to Arthrex equal to the difference between the purchase price received and the book value of the assets sold in our consolidated statement of operations.

If the Spine Division Sale is consummated in the future, we will remove from our consolidated balance sheet the assets of our Spine Division and will reflect therein the effect of the receipt and the use of the proceeds of the Spine Division Sale. We will record a gain or loss, as applicable, on the sale of the assets of our Spine Division equal to the difference between the purchase price received and the book value of the assets sold in our consolidated statement of operations.

Government Approval

Except for compliance with the applicable regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with this Information Statement and of the Delaware General Corporation Law in connection with the Asset Sale, the Spine Division Sale, and the Name Change, we are not required to comply with any federal or state regulatory requirements, and no federal or state regulatory approvals are required in connection with Asset Sale, the Spine Division Sale, or the Name Change.

ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT

This ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT (Agreement) is entered into as of January 24, 2011, by and among Cardo Medical, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Cardo Medical), Cardo Medical, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (together with Cardo Medical, Sellers and each a Seller) and Arthrex, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Buyer)

RECITALS

Sellers own and operate an orthopedic medical device company specializing designing, developing and marketing reconstructive joint devices (as such business is conducted by Sellers as of the date hereof, the Business). Buyer desires to purchase and Sellers desire to sell the Purchased Assets (as hereinafter defined), on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement. Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the meanings set forth in Exhibit A. In consideration of the mutual representations and agreements herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

TERMS OF AGREEMENT

ARTICLE I

PURCHASE AND SALE OF ASSETS; ASSUMPTION OF LIABILITIES

1.1 Purchased Assets. At the Closing, each Seller agrees to sell, convey, transfer, assign and deliver to Buyer, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, all right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Assets, free and clear of all Liens, except for Permitted Liens.

1.2 Excluded Assets. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in Section 1.1 or elsewhere herein, the Purchased Assets shall exclude all Excluded Assets.

1.3 Asset Transfer.

(a) At the Closing, the Sellers shall transfer all right, title and interest in and to all of the Purchased Assets to Buyer, and Sellers shall deliver to Buyer possession of all of the Purchased Assets. Sellers shall further deliver to Buyer proper assignments, conveyances and bills of sale sufficient to convey to Buyer good and valid title to all the Purchased Assets free and clear of all Liens, except for Permitted Liens, as well as such other instruments of conveyance necessary to effect or evidence the transfers contemplated hereby.

(b) To the extent that any of the Purchased Assets or any claim, right or benefit arising under or resulting from such Purchased Assets (collectively, the Rights) is not capable of being transferred without the approval, consent or waiver of any third person, or if the transfer of a Right would constitute a breach of any obligation under, or violation of, any applicable Law unless the approval, consent or waiver of such third person is obtained, then, except as expressly otherwise provided in this Agreement and without limiting the rights and remedies of Buyer contained elsewhere in this Agreement, this Agreement shall not constitute an agreement to transfer such Right unless and until such approval, consent or waiver has been obtained. After the Closing Date and until all such Rights are transferred to Buyer, each Seller shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to: assist Buyer in obtaining such approvals, consents and waivers with respect to all Rights not so transferred; maintain such Seller's existence and hold the Rights in trust for Buyer; comply with the terms and provisions of the Rights as agent for Buyer for Buyer's benefit; cooperate with Buyer in any commercially reasonable and lawful arrangements designed to provide the benefits of such Rights solely and exclusively to Buyer; and not waive, alter or amend any obligations of third parties with respect to such Rights not so transferred, whether expressly or impliedly without the written consent of Buyer.

(c) From and after the date hereof until the Closing, Buyer shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to designate additional Contracts as Purchased Assets, excluding Contracts that are Spinal Assets or used exclusively in either Seller's business related to the Spinal Assets. Upon such designation, Schedule 1.2(i) shall be updated accordingly.

1.4 Assumed Liabilities. At the Closing, Buyer agrees to assume, pay, discharge and perform when required and lawfully due, only the Assumed Liabilities.

1.5 Excluded Liabilities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the parties expressly agree that Buyer shall not assume or otherwise become liable for any Excluded Liabilities. Each of the Sellers, jointly and severally, shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Buyer, its Affiliates and successors and assigns (each, an Indemnified Party), from and against any and all losses, damages, costs, expenses (including court costs, amounts paid in settlement, judgments, reasonable attorneys' fees or other expenses for investigating and defending), suits, actions, claims, deficiencies, liabilities or obligations (Losses) related to, caused by or arising from any of the Excluded Liabilities. Any such indemnification shall be subject to the procedures set forth in Section 10.13, notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein. The fact that a particular matter or circumstance does or does not, or may or may not, constitute a breach by the Sellers of their representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement shall not have any relevance to the determination of whether any liability or obligation related thereto is, or is not, an Excluded Liability. Furthermore, disclosure of a liability or potential liability to Buyer in the Disclosure Schedules hereto or otherwise shall not have any relevance to the determination of whether any liability or obligation is, or is not, an Excluded Liability. Notwithstanding the foregoing but subject to Section 10.13(c), in the event Buyer determines that it is reasonably necessary to satisfy an Excluded Liability in order to obtain products or services from any supplier to the Business, Buyer shall have the right, after reasonable consultation with Sellers, to satisfy such Excluded Liability without prejudice to its rights under this Section 1.5.

ARTICLE II

PURCHASE PRICE

2.1 Purchase Price. The consideration for the Purchased Assets being acquired by Buyer hereunder shall be (i) the assumption by Buyer of Assumed Liabilities, (ii) the payment of the Royalty (as hereafter defined) to Cardo Medical and (iii) the Cash Consideration, payable to Cardo Medical on behalf of both Sellers, subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 2.5 (collectively, Purchase Price). For purposes of this Agreement, the Cash Consideration shall mean (i) Nine Million Nine Hundred Sixty Thousand Dollars ($9,960,000) plus (ii) the Closing

Table of Contents

Asset Value. As of the date hereof, Buyer shall deliver to Seller a $250,000 deposit to be credited against the Cash Consideration at Closing (the Deposit).

2.2 Royalty.

(a) As partial consideration for the purchase of the Purchased Assets hereunder, Buyer shall pay Cardo Medical an amount (the Royalty) equal to 5 percent (5%) of Net Sales of (i) the products identified on Schedule 2.2 hereof and (ii) any successor products thereto or any improvements, alterations or derivations thereof, in each case of any such successor products, improvements, alterations or derivations that (A) utilize any patents, patent applications, or provisional patents included in the Purchased Assets or (B) utilize, to a material extent, any inventions, trade secrets, or other confidential or proprietary information, including design drawings or product descriptions (whether or not such drawings, descriptions or information remain confidential or proprietary following the Closing) (but not solely trademarks or trade names) included in the Purchased Assets (collectively, the Subject Products), in cash on a quarterly basis, for a period up to and including the 20th anniversary of the Closing (the Royalty Term). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Subject Products shall not include any products developed by or on behalf of Buyer without use of any of the Purchased Assets. Such quarterly royalty payments shall be due forty-five (45) days following the end of each calendar quarter or the end of the Term, as applicable. As used herein, Net Sales means the consolidated net sales of Buyer and its subsidiaries (including any licensing fees and/or royalties) attributable to the Subject Products less commissions, returns, customer allowances and rebates, collection losses and customer discounts attributable to the Subject Products, in each case determined in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis. Buyer shall provide reasonable documentation supporting the calculation of the Royalty hereunder, including a quarterly report providing reasonable detail of Net Sales and the calculation of the Royalty for such quarter that shall accompany each payment hereunder. Upon at least five (5) days prior written notice, Buyer shall also grant Cardo Medical reasonable access to its books and records to verify such calculation subject to a customary confidentiality agreement. In the event of a sale, transfer or other disposition, directly or indirectly (including by merger, asset sale, equity sale, consolidation, reorganization or otherwise) by Buyer of the right to sell or manufacture any of the Subject Products to a third party purchaser (an Asset Purchaser) in one transaction or series of related transactions (an Asset Sale Transaction), Buyer (or such successor or assign) shall cause any such Asset Purchaser to assume the obligations of Buyer (or such successor or assign) set forth in this Section 2.2 with respect to the Subject Products (or rights relating thereto) directly or indirectly transferred in connection with such Asset Sale Transaction (which shall include all Subject Products in the event of an Asset Sale Transaction that is a merger of Buyer or a sale of a controlling interest in its equity). Buyer shall provide Sellers with at least ten (10) days written notice of any Asset Sale Transaction.

(b) Buyer shall have a right to set-off against the payment of the Royalty due to Cardo Medical hereunder solely to the extent of any and all out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including amounts paid in settlement and reasonable attorneys fees and expenses) incurred in good faith after consultation with counsel and paid by Buyer, arising out of claims by unaffiliated third parties alleging infringement of intellectual property rights, including, without limitation, patents, trade secrets, copyrights, or other intellectual property rights, by any Subject Product to the extent based on Intangible Property contained in the Purchased Assets (Infringement Claims). In no event shall Buyer have any other right of set-off against any amounts due to any Seller or its Affiliates hereunder. Neither the exercise nor the failure to exercise such right of set off will constitute an election of remedies or limit Buyer in any manner in the enforcement of any other remedies that may be available to it pursuant to Section 1.5 hereof. If it is ultimately determined that such amounts were not due to Buyer, then any Royalty to which Buyer exercised its right of set-off under this Section 2.2 shall be paid to Cardo Medical and shall bear interest from (i) the date such Royalty was payable pursuant to this Section 2.2 until (ii) the date on which such Royalty is paid by Buyer to Cardo Medical, at a rate equal to 8% per annum.

(c) Until such time as the Royalty has achieved a Net Present Value of $3,000,000, Buyer agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to promote the sale of Subject Products during the Royalty Term; provided that commercially reasonable efforts shall mean efforts and resources consistent with those used by Buyer and its subsidiaries in promoting their other products of a similar stage of product life and of similar market potential, taking into account the competitiveness of the Subject Products and alternative products, the profitability of the Subject Products and alternative products, and other factors deemed relevant by Buyer in exercising its business judgment. Sellers understand and acknowledge that control of all business decisions concerning the Business and the Subject Products (including, without limitation, sales and marketing, capital expenditures, product pricing, employee hiring and retention, subcontracting authority, facilities and employee management and acquisitions or dispositions of assets (and the timing thereof)), from and after the Closing Date shall be the absolute right of the Buyer, and that Buyer may operate its business and the business of its subsidiaries (including Buyer) in the manner it deems appropriate in its sole discretion. In no event shall Sellers have any claim regarding Buyer's failure to use commercially reasonable efforts if the Royalty has achieved a Net Present Value of $3,000,000. For purposes of this Agreement, Net Present Value means the aggregate present value of the Royalty payments received, with each payment discounted from the date of payment to the Closing Date using a discount rate of 8% per annum.

2.3 Allocation of Purchase Price; Tax Treatment. The Purchase Price will be allocated among the Sellers and among the Purchased Assets consistent with the allocation set forth on a schedule to be mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto prior to the Closing (the Allocation Schedule). The Allocation Schedule shall be reasonable and shall be prepared in accordance with Section 1060 of the Code and the regulations thereunder. Buyer and Sellers each agree to file Internal Revenue Service Form 8594, and all federal, state, local and foreign Tax Returns, in accordance with the Allocation Schedule; and in that event, Buyer and Sellers each agree to provide the other promptly with any other information reasonably required to complete Form 8594. The parties hereto intend that the transaction contemplated hereby be treated for tax purposes as taxable under Section 1001 of the Code.

2.4 Escrow Account. At the Closing, Buyer shall withhold Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars ($900,000) (the Escrow Amount) from the Purchase Price and shall deposit the Escrow Amount for a period of 12 months pursuant to the Escrow Agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the Escrow Agreement). The funds held pursuant to the Escrow Agreement shall be available (a) to fund the amount of any adjustment pursuant to Section 2.5(c) hereunder and (b) to indemnify Buyer pursuant to Section 1.5 or Section 6.3.

Table of Contents2.5 Adjustment of Purchase Price.

(a) Estimated Closing Asset Value Statement. At least two (2) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the Sellers and Buyer shall agree upon a written statement (the Estimated Closing Asset Value Statement) setting forth in reasonable detail its good faith estimate of (i) the Closing Asset Value as of the Closing (the Estimated Closing Asset Value) and (ii) based on such amount, the estimated Cash Consideration (Estimated Cash Consideration). The Estimated Closing Asset Value Statement will be prepared in accordance with GAAP (with respect to each item included within Closing Asset Value). With respect to Property, Plant and Equipment, Sellers and Buyer have agreed that the Closing Asset Value will be the net book value of such assets as of the Closing, prepared in accordance with GAAP. With respect to Inventory, Sellers and Buyer have agreed that the Closing Asset Value will be the gross cost value of the saleable and non-obsolete finished goods inventory, work in process and packaging material of the Business as of the Closing, without inclusion of a reserve for slow moving inventory.

(b) Closing Asset Value Statement. Within sixty (60) days after the Closing Date, Buyer will prepare or cause to be prepared, and will provide to Sellers, a written statement (the Closing Asset Value Statement) setting forth in reasonable detail its determination of the Closing Asset Value as of the Closing. The Closing Asset Value Statement will be prepared in accordance with GAAP (with respect to each item included within Closing Asset Value), and shall be consistent with the methodology used in the calculation of the Estimated Cash Consideration.

(c) Dispute Notice. The Closing Asset Value Statement (and the calculation of the Closing Asset Value contained therein) will be final, conclusive and binding on the parties unless Sellers provides a written notice (a Dispute Notice) to Buyer no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Closing Asset Value Statement setting forth in reasonable detail (i) any item Sellers dispute on the Closing Asset Value Statement (each, a Disputed Item) and (ii) the correct amount of such item in accordance with GAAP. Any item or amount to which no dispute is raised in the Dispute Notice shall be final, conclusive and binding on the parties.

(d) Resolution of Disputes. If the Sellers have delivered the Dispute Notice within the 30-day period, then Buyer and Sellers will attempt to resolve each Disputed Item. In the event all such Disputed Items are not resolved within five (5) Business Days after delivery of the Dispute Notice, either Buyer or Sellers may provide written notice to the other that it elects to submit the Disputed Items to an accounting firm of national or regional recognition mutually agreed upon by the parties (the Accounting Firm). If the parties cannot so agree, each of Buyer and Cardo Medical shall select an accounting firm of national or regional recognition and such two accounting firms shall select a third accounting firm of national or regional recognition to serve as the Accounting Firm. The Accounting Firm will promptly review Disputed Items submitted to it for resolution and objected to in the Dispute Notice and resolve the dispute with respect to each such Disputed Item in accordance with GAAP. The fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm will be paid by the Party whose estimate of the Disputed Items, in the aggregate, is furthest from the final determination of such Disputed Items, in the aggregate, by the Accounting Firm; otherwise such fees and expenses shall be paid 50% by Buyer and 50% by Sellers. The decision of the Accounting Firm with respect to the Disputed Item(s) submitted to it

(and the determination of the Closing Asset Value resulting therefrom) will be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Each of the Parties agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Accounting Firm and to cause the Accounting Firm to resolve all Disputed Items no later than thirty (30) Business Days after submission of the dispute to the Accounting Firm.

(e) Adjustment Payment. No later than the fifth (5th) Business Day after final determination of the Closing Asset Value in accordance with this Section 2.5:

(i) if the Closing Asset Value as finally determined pursuant to this Section 2.5 exceeds the Estimated Closing Asset Value, then Buyer will pay to the Sellers such excess by wire transfer of immediately available funds; and

(ii) if the Closing Asset Value as finally determined pursuant to this Section 2.5 is less than the Estimated Closing Asset Value, then an amount equal to such shortfall will be paid by the Sellers to Buyer from the Escrow Account, and the Sellers shall promptly execute a joint written instruction to the Escrow Agent to release such amount from the Escrow Account.

The closing (Closing) of this Agreement and the purchase and sale of the Purchased Assets shall take place at 10:00 a.m., Miami time on the date that is thirty (30) days following the date hereof (Closing Date), unless each of the conditions of each party's obligations to close as set forth herein (excluding such conditions that, by their terms, are to be satisfied at the Closing) have not been satisfied or waived in accordance with this Agreement by such date, in which case the Closing Date shall be the date that is two (2) days after the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions in accordance with this Agreement. Neither Seller shall take any action that is designed or intended to have the effect of discouraging any lessor, licensor, customer, supplier, or other business associate of the Business from maintaining the same business relationships with the Business after the Closing as it maintained with the Business prior to the Closing.

6.2 Conduct of Business Prior to the Closing. From the date hereof until the Closing, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement or consented to in writing by Buyer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), Sellers shall: (a) conduct the Business in the ordinary course of business; and (b) use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain and preserve intact its current organization, business and franchise and to preserve the rights, franchises, goodwill and relationships of its employees, consultants, customers, lenders, suppliers, regulators and others having business relationships with such Seller in respect of the Business. From the date hereof until the Closing Date, except as consented to in writing by Buyer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), Sellers shall not take any action that would cause any of the changes, events or conditions described in Section 5.8 to occur.

6.3 Certain Tax Returns and Indemnity. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, all transfer, documentary, sales, use, registration and other such Taxes (including all applicable real estate transfer or gains Taxes and stock transfer Taxes), all penalties, interest and additions to Tax, and any and all fees incurred in connection with the sale or transfer of the Purchased Assets shall be paid 50% by Buyer and 50% by Sellers. Each Party to this Agreement will cooperate in the timely making of all filings, returns, reports and forms required in connection with this Agreement. Each Seller shall be liable for the payment of all Taxes of such Seller. Each Seller shall also be liable for the payment of all Taxes applicable to the Purchased Assets for all taxable periods on or before the Closing Date, regardless of when assessed, and including any interest or penalties thereon. For the purpose hereof, any taxable period which ends after the Closing Date, but includes a period of time before the Closing Date, shall be deemed to be two taxable periods, the first ending on the Closing Date and the second beginning the next day. For purposes of determining the amount of Taxes attributable to the portion of any such period ending on the Closing Date and the portion of any such period ending after the Closing Date, the total amount of Taxes payable with respect to any such period shall be apportioned in equal amounts among all days during said period.

6.4 Publicity. Except as required by applicable Law, any exchange or organization on which Cardo Medical's securities trade, or any Governmental Authority (in which case Buyer will be provided with an advance copy), no press release or other public announcement related to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be issued by any party hereto without the prior approval of the other parties hereto, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

6.5 Employee Matters. Prior to the Closing Date, Buyer shall have offered employment or consulting arrangements to certain employees and/or consultants of Sellers set forth on Schedule 6.5 (the Transferred Employees) to perform services in connection with the Business on such terms and conditions as such employees and/or consultants and Buyer shall have agreed. Effective as of the Closing, the respective Seller hereby releases and consents to the employment and/or engagement by Buyer of the Transferred Employees on such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreeable between Buyer and each such Transferred Employee, provided that in the case of Andrew Brooks, Mikhail Kvitnitsky, Derrick Romine, John Kuczynski and Dina Weissman, such terms shall not be exclusive to Buyer, and Buyer agrees to allow such Transferred Employees to consult with, continue employment with or otherwise be associated with Cardo Medical and/or its subsidiaries (as a director, holder of equity securities (including stock options) or otherwise) in connection with the disposition by Cardo Medical and/or its subsidiaries of any Excluded Assets or of all or any part of their remaining business after the Closing, so long as such services to Cardo Medical are (a) in compliance with the confidentiality obligations of such person as set forth in their Consulting/Employment Agreement with Buyer and (b) do not materially interfere with the performance of such person's duties pursuant to such Consulting/Employment Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer shall have no obligation to continue the engagement or employment of any such individual after the Closing and, except as otherwise expressly agreed to by such individuals and Buyer, such engagement or employment shall be on an at-will basis.

6.6 Use of Name. From and after the Closing Date, no Seller shall (nor shall it permit its Affiliates to) use the name Cardo Medical or any similar name or any logo, trade dress, trade name, trademark, service mark or the like similar to or confusing therewith for any business purpose or otherwise; provided, however, that Sellers shall be permitted to use the name Cardo Medical in connection with (a) the satisfaction of its obligations hereunder or the satisfaction of any Excluded Liabilities, (b) collections of the Retained Receivables and (c) the administration and sale of existing Contracts and other existing rights related to the Excluded Assets for the period of time following the Closing until the sale of such assets. Immediately after the Closing, each Seller shall change its name to a name that does not include the words Cardo or any variation thereof and that is reasonably satisfactory to Buyer.

6.7 Information Statement. Promptly upon execution of this Agreement (and in no event more than five days following the date hereof (or the next business day after such fifth day, if such fifth day is not a day upon which the SEC accepts such filings)), Cardo Medical will file with the SEC an Information Statement on Schedule 14C relating to the Stockholder Approval and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and that is in compliance with all applicable SEC rules and regulations (the Information Statement). Cardo Medical will provide Buyer and its counsel with a reasonable opportunity to review the Information Statement prior to its filing and shall include in such document or response all comments reasonably proposed by Buyer. Seller will (a) provide a copy of the Information Statement to Buyer when filed with the SEC, (b) use reasonable best efforts, after consultation with Buyer, to promptly respond to and resolve any comments or requests made by the SEC, (c) keep Buyer informed on a current basis regarding all communications and correspondence with the SEC and promptly provide to Buyer copies of all written correspondence or telephonic notice of oral communications between Cardo Medical or any of its representatives and the SEC, and (d) send the Information Statement to Cardo Medical's stockholders as soon as possible under all applicable SEC rules and regulations (but no later than three days after the SEC either declines to review the Information Statement or all comments are satisfied).

6.8 [Reserved]

6.9 Transition. From the Closing until Sellers have divested substantially all of the assets of its spinal surgical device business, but in no event longer than six (6) months after the Closing Date, Buyer shall permit Sellers reasonable access to and use of computer hardware and software included in the Purchased Assets as needed to facilitate and administer the sale of such spinal surgical device business.

6.10 Confidentiality.

(a) Buyer acknowledges and agrees that the Confidentiality Agreement remains in full force and effect and, in addition, covenants and agrees to keep confidential, in accordance with the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement, information provided to Buyer pursuant to this Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreement. If this Agreement is, for any reason, terminated prior to the Closing, the Confidentiality Agreement and the provisions of this Section 6.10 shall nonetheless continue in full force and effect. At Closing, the Confidentiality Agreement shall automatically terminate and be of no further force or effect with respect to the Business and the Purchased Assets, but shall remain in full force and effect with respect to other businesses of the Sellers and the Excluded Assets.

(b) From and after the Closing, each Seller will treat and hold as confidential all of the Confidential Information, refrain from using or authorizing the use of any of the Confidential Information, and deliver promptly to Buyer or destroy, at the request and option of Buyer, all tangible embodiments (and all copies) of the Confidential Information, including electronic, that are in his, her, or its possession or control. In the event that either Seller is requested or required pursuant to written or oral question or request for information or documents in any legal proceeding, interrogatory, subpoena, civil investigation demand, or similar process to disclose any Confidential Information, such Seller will notify Buyer promptly of the request or requirement so that Buyer may seek an appropriate protective order or waive compliance with the provisions of this Section 6.10(b). If, in the absence of a protective order or the receipt of a waiver hereunder, such Seller is, on the advice of counsel, compelled to disclose any Confidential Information to any tribunal or else stand liable for contempt, such Seller may disclose the Confidential Information to the tribunal; provided, however, that such Seller shall use his or its reasonable best efforts to obtain, at the request and expense of Buyer, an order or other assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to such portion of the Confidential Information required to be disclosed as Buyer shall designate. For purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information shall mean any information or data concerning the Business, Purchased Assets or Assumed Liabilities not already generally available to the public.

6.11 Governmental Approvals and Other Third-Party Consents.

(a) Each party hereto shall, as promptly as possible, use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain, or cause to be obtained, all consents, authorizations, orders and approvals from all Governmental Authorities that may be or become necessary for its execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance of its obligations pursuant to this Agreement. Each party shall cooperate fully with the other party and its Affiliates in promptly seeking to obtain all such consents, authorizations, orders and approvals.

(b) Sellers shall use commercially reasonable efforts to give all notices to, and seek all consents from, all third parties that are described in Schedule 6.11(b) (the Consents); provided, however, that Sellers shall not be obligated to pay any consideration to any third party from whom such Consent is requested. With respect to Consents required to transfer Contracts or Permits hereunder, the condition set forth in Section 7.2(c)(viii) shall not be deemed satisfied to the extent that such Consent contains any material modification of or other material changes to the terms and conditions of such Contracts or Permits.

6.12 Books and Records.

(a) In order to facilitate the resolution of any claims made against or incurred by Sellers prior to the Closing, or for any other reasonable purpose, for a period of seven (7) years after the Closing, Buyer shall:

Table of Contents

(i) retain the books and records (including personnel files) of each Seller relating to periods prior to the Closing in a manner reasonably consistent with the prior practices of such Seller; and

(ii) upon reasonable notice, afford the representatives, advisors and consultants of Sellers reasonable access (including the right to make, at Sellers' expense, photocopies), during normal business hours, to such books and records.

(b) No party shall be obligated to provide any other party with access to any books or records (including personnel files) pursuant to this Section 6.12 where such access would violate any Law or order of any Governmental Authority.

6.13 Warranty Obligations. Sellers shall be responsible for all warranties issued by the Sellers with respect to products and services sold by the Business prior to the Closing Date and shall timely perform such warranty services at its own cost. Buyer will reasonably cooperate with Seller at Seller's expense in the handling of any warranty claims. Prior to Closing, Sellers shall, at their sole cost and expense, obtain and carry in full force and effect for the three year (3) year period following the Closing, prepaid product liability insurance in respect of the manufacture and sale of all products and services of the Business prior to the Closing, in the amount of at least $5 million in the aggregate, and name Buyer and its Affiliates as additional insureds (the Seller Product Liability Insurance).

6.14 [Reserved.]

6.15 Collection of Accounts Receivables. The parties acknowledge and agree that accounts receivable of the Business for periods up to the Closing (Retained Receivables) are not part of the Purchased Assets, and as such, Sellers shall have the right to collect such Retained Receivables following the Closing Date; provided that, in collecting such Retained Receivables from customers, Sellers (and its representatives) shall act in accordance with its past practice of the Business in collecting such receivables and shall not institute any suit or proceeding against a customer of the Business without the prior written consent with Buyer, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. All amounts received by Buyer in respect of the Retained Receivables shall be promptly remitted to Sellers. Any amounts received in respect of any customer shall be applied first to the oldest then outstanding receivable owed by the applicable customer to Sellers, unless the customer designates the payment to a newer invoice.

6.16 Exclusivity. From the date hereof until the earlier of the date this Agreement is terminated and the Closing Date, the Sellers, and their respective Affiliates, employees, agents and representatives will not (i) initiate or encourage the initiation by others of, or engage in discussions or negotiations with, any Person or respond to solicitations by any Person relating to any sale or other disposition of all or any material part of the Purchased Assets or the Business, or (ii) enter into any agreement or commitment (whether or not binding) with respect to any of the foregoing transactions. The Sellers will immediately notify Buyer if any third party attempts to initiate any solicitation, discussion or negotiation or present any offer with respect to any of the foregoing transactions.

6.17 Material Vendors. Prior to or at the Closing, Sellers shall satisfy all amounts due and owing as of the Closing Date to the vendors identified on Schedule 6.17 (the Material Vendors). The aggregate amount required to satisfy all amounts due and owing to the Material Vendors as of the Closing Date (including, but not limited to, any prepayment premium or penalty, accrued interest and costs and expenses) shall constitute the Vendor Payment Amount and shall be deducted from the Purchase Price at Closing and paid to the Material Vendors on behalf of the applicable Seller. At least two business days prior to Closing, Sellers shall deliver to Buyer an updated schedule setting forth the Vendor Payment Amount.

8.1 Non-Survival of Representations and Warranties. None of the representations or warranties set forth herein or in any certificate delivered in connection herewith with respect to such representations or warranties shall survive the Closing, provided however that this Section 8.1 shall not limit any covenant or agreement of any party hereto that by its terms is to be performed after the Closing.

ARTICLE IX
TERMINATION

9.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing:

- (a) by the mutual written consent of Sellers and Buyer;
- (b) by Buyer by written notice to Sellers if:
 - (i) there has been a material breach, inaccuracy in or failure to perform any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement made by Sellers pursuant to this Agreement that would give rise to the failure of any of the conditions specified in Section 7.2 and such breach, inaccuracy or failure is incapable of being cured by Sellers by the End Date (unless the failure results primarily from Buyer itself breaching any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement made by them pursuant to this Agreement); or
 - (ii) any of the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 or 7.2 shall not have been fulfilled or waived by the End Date, unless such failure shall be due to the failure of Buyer to perform or comply with any of the covenants, agreements or conditions hereof to be performed or complied with by it prior to the Closing;

(unless the failure results primarily from Sellers themselves breaching any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement made by them pursuant to this Agreement); or

(ii) any of the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 or 7.3 shall not have been fulfilled by the End Date, unless such failure shall be due to the failure of Sellers to perform or comply with any of the covenants, agreements or conditions hereof to be performed or complied with by them prior to the Closing; or

In the event this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 9.1 (other than as a result of a material breach by Buyer of any of its obligations under this Agreement), the Deposit shall be refunded to Buyer in full within two business days after the date of termination. In the event of a termination of this Agreement as a result of a material breach of this Agreement by Buyer of its respective obligations under this Agreement, the Deposit shall be forfeited to and retained by Sellers; provided that such forfeiture shall not limit Sellers' remedies for any damages either of them may have incurred in respect of such breach by Buyer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, following termination of this Agreement, neither Buyer on the one hand, nor the Sellers on the other, shall be entitled to recover any monetary damages in respect of any breach of this Agreement prior to such termination in excess of $750,000.

10.5 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. (a) Third-Party Claims. If an Indemnified Party receives notice of the assertion or commencement of any action, suit, claim or other legal proceeding, other than an Infringement Claim, made or brought by any Person who is not a party to this Agreement (a Third-Party Claim) against such Indemnified Party with respect to which Sellers (the Indemnifying Parties) are subject to indemnification under Section 1.5, the Indemnified Party shall give the Indemnifying Parties prompt written notice thereof. The failure to give such prompt written notice shall not, however, relieve the Indemnifying Parties of their indemnification obligations, except and only to the extent that the Indemnifying Parties forfeit rights or defenses by reason of such failure. Such notice by the Indemnified Party shall describe the Third-Party Claim in reasonable detail, shall include copies of all documents received with respect thereto, and shall indicate the estimated amount, if reasonably practicable, of the damages that have been or may be sustained by the Indemnified Party. The Indemnifying Parties shall have the right to participate in, or by giving written notice to the Indemnified Party, to assume the defense of any Third-Party Claim at the Indemnifying Parties expense and by counsel selected by the Indemnifying Parties that is reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party, and the Indemnified Party shall cooperate in good faith in such defense; provided, that the Indemnifying Parties shall only have the right to assume the defense of such Third-Party Claim if (i) the Indemnifying Party notifies the Indemnified Party in writing within 15 days after the Indemnified Party has given notice of the Third-Party Claim that the Indemnifying Party will indemnify the Indemnified Party from and against the entirety of any Losses the Indemnified Party may suffer resulting from, arising out of, relating to, in the nature of, or caused by the Third-Party Claim, (ii) the Indemnifying Party provides the Indemnified Party with evidence reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party that the Indemnifying Party will have the financial resources to defend against the Third-Party Claim and fulfill its indemnification obligations hereunder, (iii) the Third-Party Claim involves only money damages and does not seek an injunction or other equitable relief, and (iv) the Indemnifying Party conducts the defense of the Third-Party Claim actively and diligently. In the event that the Indemnifying Parties assume the defense of any Third-Party Claim, subject to Section 10.13(b), they shall have the right to take such action as they deem necessary to avoid, dispute, defend, appeal or make counterclaims pertaining to any such Third-Party Claim in the name and on behalf of the Indemnified Party. The Indemnified Party shall have the right, at its own cost and expense, to participate in the defense of any Third-Party Claim with counsel selected by it subject to the Indemnifying Parties' right to control the defense thereof. If the Indemnifying Parties (A) elect not to compromise or defend such Third-Party Claim, (B) fail to promptly notify the Indemnified Party in writing of its election to defend as provided in this Agreement or (C) fails to actively and diligent conduct the defense of the Third-Party Claim, the Indemnified Party may, subject to Section 10.13(b), pay, compromise, defend such Third-Party Claim and seek indemnification for any and all Losses based upon, arising from or relating to such Third-Party Claim. Sellers and Buyer shall cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects in connection with the defense of any Third-Party Claim.

(b) Settlement of Third-Party Claims. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Indemnifying Parties shall not enter into settlement of any Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), except to the extent that the settlement offer (a) does not result in any liability or the creation of a financial or other obligation on the part of the Indemnified Party and (b) provides, in customary form, for the complete and unconditional release of each Indemnified Party from all claims, liabilities and obligations of any kind or nature arising out of, or related to, the events, facts, conditions or circumstances underlying such Third-Party Claim. If the Indemnified Party has assumed the defense pursuant to Section 10.13(a), it shall not agree to any settlement without the written consent of the Indemnifying Parties (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

(c) Direct Claims. Any claim by an Indemnified Party pursuant to Section 1.5 that does not result from a Third-Party Claim (a Direct Claim) shall be asserted by the Indemnified Party giving the Indemnifying Parties prompt written notice thereof. The failure to give such prompt written notice shall not, however, relieve the Indemnifying Parties of their indemnification obligations, except and only to the extent that the Indemnifying Parties forfeits rights or defenses by reason of such failure. Such notice by the Indemnified Party shall describe the Direct Claim in reasonable detail, shall include copies of all material written evidence thereof and shall indicate the estimated amount, if reasonably practicable, of the damages that has been or may be sustained by the Indemnified Party. The Indemnifying Parties shall have twenty (20) days after their receipt of such notice to respond in writing to such Direct Claim. If the Indemnifying Parties do not so respond within such twenty (20)-day period, the Indemnifying Parties shall be deemed to have accepted responsibility for such claim, in which case the Indemnified Party shall be free to pursue such remedies as may be available to the Indemnified Party to enforce such responsibility on the terms and subject to the provisions of this Agreement.

5. Escrow Agent. (a) The Escrow Agent shall have only those duties as are specifically and expressly provided herein, which shall be deemed purely ministerial in nature, and no other duties shall be implied. The Escrow Agent shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of, nor have any requirements to comply with, the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument or document between the Parties, in connection herewith, if any, including without limitation the Asset Purchase Agreement, nor shall the Escrow Agent be required to determine if any person or entity has complied with any Asset Purchase Agreement, nor shall any additional obligations of the Escrow Agent be inferred from the terms of any Asset Purchase Agreement, even though reference thereto may be made in this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms and provisions of this Agreement, those of the Asset Purchase Agreement, any schedule or exhibit attached to this Agreement, or any other agreement among the Parties, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall control. The Escrow Agent may rely upon and shall not be liable for acting or refraining from acting upon any written notice, document, instruction or request furnished to it hereunder and reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper Party or Parties without inquiry and without requiring substantiating evidence of any kind. The Escrow Agent shall not be liable to any Party, any beneficiary or other person for refraining from acting upon any instruction setting forth, claiming, containing, objecting to, or related to the transfer or distribution of the Fund, or any portion thereof, unless such instruction shall have been delivered to the Escrow Agent in accordance with Section 11 below and the Escrow Agent has been able to satisfy any applicable security procedures as may be required thereunder. The Escrow Agent shall be under no duty to inquire into or investigate the validity, accuracy or content of any such document, notice, instruction or request. The Escrow Agent shall have no duty to solicit any payments which may be due it or the Fund, including, without limitation, the Escrow Deposit nor shall the Escrow Agent have any duty or obligation to confirm or verify the accuracy or correctness of any amounts deposited with it hereunder.

(b) The Escrow Agent shall not be liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith except to the extent that a final adjudication of a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the Escrow Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct was the primary cause of any loss to either Party. The Escrow Agent may execute any of its powers and perform any of its duties hereunder directly or through affiliates or agents. The Escrow Agent may consult with counsel, accountants and other skilled persons to be selected and retained by it. The Escrow Agent shall not be liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in accordance with, or in reliance upon, the advice or opinion of any such counsel, accountants or other skilled persons. In the event that the Escrow Agent shall be uncertain or believe there is some ambiguity as to its duties or rights hereunder or shall receive instructions, claims or demands from any Party hereto which, in its opinion, conflict with any of the provisions of this Agreement, it shall be entitled to refrain from taking any action and its sole obligation shall be to keep safely all property held in escrow until it shall be given a direction in writing by the Parties which eliminates such ambiguity or uncertainty to the satisfaction of Escrow Agent or by a final and non-appealable order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The Parties agree to pursue any redress or recourse in connection with any dispute without making the Escrow Agent a party to the same. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in no event shall the Escrow Agent be liable for special, incidental, punitive, indirect or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Escrow Agent has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

6. Succession. (a) The Escrow Agent may resign and be discharged from its duties or obligations hereunder by giving thirty (30) days advance notice in writing of such resignation to the Parties specifying a date when such resignation shall take effect. If the Parties have failed to appoint a successor escrow agent prior to the expiration of thirty (30) days following receipt of the notice of resignation, the Escrow Agent may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor escrow agent or for other appropriate relief, and any such resulting appointment shall be binding upon all of the Parties hereto. Escrow Agent's sole responsibility after such thirty (30) day notice period expires shall be to hold the Fund (without any obligation to reinvest the same) and to deliver the same to a designated substitute escrow agent, if any, or in accordance with the directions of a final order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, at which time of delivery Escrow Agent's obligations hereunder shall cease and terminate, subject to the provisions of Sections 7 and 8 hereunder.

(b) Any entity into which the Escrow Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any entity to which all or substantially all the escrow business may be transferred, shall be the Escrow Agent under this Agreement without further act.

7. Compensation and Reimbursement. The Parties agree jointly and severally (a) to pay the Escrow Agent upon execution of this Agreement and from time to time thereafter reasonable compensation for the services to be rendered hereunder, along with any fees or charges for accounts, including those levied by any governmental authority which the Escrow Agent may impose, charge or pass-through, which, in each case, unless otherwise agreed in writing, shall be as described in Schedule 2 attached hereto, and (b) to pay or reimburse the Escrow Agent upon request for all expenses, disbursements and advances, including, without limitation reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, incurred or made by it in connection with the performance, modification and termination of this Agreement. The obligations set forth in this Section 7 shall survive the resignation, replacement or removal of the Escrow Agent or the termination of this Agreement. Such compensation, fees, charges, expenses, disbursements, and advances payable to the Escrow Agent shall be borne 50% by Purchaser and 50% by Seller.

8. Indemnity. The Parties shall jointly and severally, indemnify, defend and save harmless the Escrow Agent and its affiliates and their respective successors, assigns, agents and employees (the Indemnitees) from and against any and all losses, damages, claims, liabilities, penalties, judgments, settlements, litigation, investigations, costs or expenses (including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of outside counsel and experts and their staffs and all expense of document location, duplication and shipment)(collectively Losses), arising out of or in connection with (i) the Escrow Agent's execution and performance of this Agreement, tax reporting or withholding, the enforcement of any rights or remedies under or in connection with this Agreement, or as may arise by reason of any act, omission or error of the Indemnitee, except in the case of any Indemnitee to the extent that such Losses are finally adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to have been primarily caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee, or (ii) its following any instructions or other directions, whether joint or singular, from the Parties, except to the extent that its following any such instruction or direction is expressly forbidden by the terms hereof. The indemnity obligations set forth in this Section 8 shall survive the resignation, replacement or removal of the Escrow Agent or the termination of this Agreement.

Schedule of Fees for Escrow Agent Services

Account Acceptance Fee $Waived
Encompassing review, negotiation and execution of governing documentation, opening of the account, and completion of all due diligence documentation. Payable upon closing.

Annual Administration Fee $2,500
The Administration Fee covers our usual and customary ministerial duties, including record keeping, distributions, document compliance and such other duties and responsibilities expressly set forth in the governing documents for each transaction. Payable upon closing and annually in advance thereafter, without pro-ration for partial years.

Extraordinary Services and Out-of Pocket Expenses

Any additional services beyond our standard services as specified above, and all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses including attorney s or accountant s fees and expenses will be considered extraordinary services for which related costs, transaction charges, and additional fees will be billed at the Bank s then standard rate. Disbursements, receipts, investments or tax reporting exceeding 25 items per year may be treated as extraordinary services thereby incurring additional charges.

Disclosure & Assumptions

Please note that the fees quoted are based on a review of the transaction documents provided and an internal due diligence review. JPMorgan reserves the right to revise, modify, change and supplement the fees quoted herein if the assumptions underlying the activity in the account, level of balances, market volatility or conditions or other factors change from those used to set our fees.

The escrow deposit shall be continuously invested in a JPMorgan Chase Bank money market deposit account (MMDA) or a JPMorgan Chase Bank Cash Compensation account. MMDA and Cash Compensation Accounts have rates of compensation that may vary from time to time based upon market conditions. The Annual Administration Fee would include a supplemental charge up to 25 basis points on the escrow deposit amount if another investment option were to be chosen.

The Parties acknowledge and agree that they are permitted by U.S. law to make up to six (6) pre-authorized withdrawals or telephonic transfers from an MMDA per calendar month or statement cycle or similar period. If the MMDA can be accessed by checks, drafts, bills of exchange, notes and other financial instruments (Items), then no more than three (3) of these six (6) transfers may be made by an Item. The Escrow Agent is required by U.S. law to reserve the right to require at least seven (7) days notice prior to a withdrawal from a money market deposit account.

Payment of the invoice is due upon receipt.

Compliance

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person or entity that opens an account. We may ask for information that will enable us to meet the requirements of the Act.

If Consultant prevails in any legal proceeding, he shall be entitled to recover from Company the costs of proceedings, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(f) Reformation. Although Company and Consultant consider the restrictions and covenants contained herein to be reasonable for the protection of Company, if any of the restrictions set forth in this Section 2 are found by a court to be unreasonable because they are overly broad as to time period, geographic area or otherwise, then and in that case such restriction shall nevertheless remain effective but shall be considered amended in such manner so as to make the restriction reasonable in scope as determined by such court and shall be in force as amended.

(g) Invalidity. Invalidity of any one or more of the provisions of this Section 2 shall in no way affect any of the other provisions hereof which shall remain in full force and effect.

Subject to Section 3, hereof, Sub-Sublessee shall be bound by the Master Lease Documents and all rights of Owner and PTI thereunder, shall not permit any act or thing in or about the Premises or grant, create or suffer any rights in respect thereof which if done, permitted, granted, created or suffered by Sub-Sublessor would constitute a breach of the Master Lease Documents, unless otherwise permitted hereunder.

If a proceeding under any section or chapter of the Bankruptcy Code or similar law is filed by or against Sub-Sublessor, Sub-Sublessor hereby acknowledges and agrees that Sub-Sublessee will pay Rent and other charges hereunder directly to Owner.

15. No Liability. Sub-Sublessor explicitly acknowledges and agrees that, except to the extent caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Sub-Sublessee, Sub-Sublessee shall have no liability for any act or omission of Sub-Sublessor or any other party (excluding any employee, agent, vendor, contractor or invitee of Sub-Sublessee) or any costs, expenses, liabilities or damages imposed upon any of Sub-Sublessee, Sub-Sublessor, Owner or PTI in any way related to acts, omissions or obligations of Sub-Sublessor or any other party (excluding any employee, agent, vendor, contractor or invitee of Sub-Sublessee) or which occurred or accrued prior to the Effective Date, and Sub-Sublessor hereby indemnifies Sub-Sublessee for all such liability, costs, expenses and damages and agrees to hold Sub-Sublessee harmless therefrom. Sub-Sublessee explicitly acknowledges and agrees that, except to the extent caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Sub-Sublessor, Sub-Sublessor shall have no liability for any act or omission of Sub-Sublessee or any employee, agent, vendor, contractor or invitee of Sub-Sublessee or any costs, expenses, liabilities or damages imposed upon any of Sub-Sublessee, Sub-Sublessor, Owner or PTI in any way related to acts, omission or obligations of Sub-Sublessee or any employee, agent, vendor, contractor or invitee of Sub-Sublessee, and Sub-Sublessee hereby indemnifies Sub-Sublessor for all such liability costs, expenses and damages and agrees to hold Sub-Sublessor harmless therefrom.
