ING CEO Jan Hommen to speak at Goldman Sachs Conference

Today, ING CEO Jan Hommen will address the Goldman Sachs European Financials Conference in Paris, France. In his presentation, Jan Hommen will address ING's track record of delivery on the extensive restructuring of ING Group, including the actions that have been taken to separate Banking and Insurance in order to build strong businesses that are ready for the future.

In this context, Jan Hommen will evaluate the substantial measures ING has taken since the peak of the crisis to derisk and deleverage the balance sheet while maintaining loan growth to service our clients.

Mr Hommen will also address the decisive actions ING has taken to further build its capital position, enabling repayment of the second tranche of state support in May 2011. He will reiterate ING's ambition to repay the remaining EUR 3 billion core Tier 1 securities from own resources from ING Bank. Proceeds from the divestment of the insurance businesses will be used to reduce leverage in both ING Group and Insurance.

Jan Hommen will also provide an update on the progress to meet the restructuring demands of the European Commission. ING is decisively yet prudently preparing the base case of two IPOs of the Insurance businesses while progress is being made to meet the other restructuring requirements of the EC. We continue to explore strategic options for our Latin American insurance, and we are taking steps towards the divestment of ING Direct USA.

Mr Hommen will finish his presentation by painting the picture of ING Bank post restructuring: a liability driven bank that is well positioned for the future, using its strong deposit gathering capability for future growth while managing its balance sheet efficiently through further integration.
