Leap is filing materials contained in this Schedule 14A with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, in connection with its solicitation of proxies for the election of director nominees to its Board of Directors and four other proposals at its 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. In connection with the solicitation of proxies, Leap has filed a definitive proxy statement and other relevant documents with the SEC. You are urged to read the proxy statement and other information because they contain important information about Leap and the proposals to be presented at the 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. These documents are available free of charge at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov or from Leap at www.leapwireless.com. The contents of the websites referenced herein are not deemed to be incorporated by reference into the proxy statement.

Leap and its directors, executive officers and certain employees may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from Leap's stockholders in connection with the election of directors and other matters to be proposed at the 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Information regarding the interests, if any, of these directors, executive officers and specified employees is included in the proxy statement and other materials filed by Leap with the SEC.

July 18, 2011

Dear Fellow Stockholder:

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT!

The July 28th Annual Meeting of Stockholders is fast approaching and you have an important opportunity to keep your Company on its current path to success.

PLEASE VOTE FOR LEAP'S PROPOSALS USING THE ENCLOSED WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY

Your Board and management team have worked to build Leap into an industry leader in the prepaid wireless space, and we believe the Company is on the right trajectory to deliver significant additional value to stockholders.

As a result of the strategy we implemented through the introduction of new service plans, smartphone devices and nationwide coverage we now have more customers who are staying with us longer, upgrading to better handsets and migrating to higher-revenue service plans.

LEAP IS ON THE RIGHT TRACK

We believe we have made great strides over the last several quarters and we're pursuing additional initiatives to continue our momentum and position the Company for the future.

We are working to expand our core demographic to target customers who appreciate the value we deliver, we are expanding our retail presence and we're introducing exciting new products and services such as Muve Must[®], our innovative new unlimited music offering which recently gained its 100,000th customer. We're also focused on launching our next-generation LTE network to be in place when device prices reach attractive levels for our customers.

We are confident that we have the right value proposition in place, the right management team to take advantage of the opportunities before us and the right product offerings to attract more customers and accelerate growth.

DON'T LET PENTWATER DERAILED OUR PROGRESS

Unfortunately, Leap's successful strategy is under threat. Pentwater Capital Management LLC, an opportunistic investor with no long-term commitment to Leap and interests that differ from other stockholders, is attempting to nominate candidates to Leap's Board. You may have received a gold proxy card from Pentwater, which we urge you to simply discard. Leap welcomes stockholder input on all topics, including director nominations, but in our view Pentwater did not comply with our bylaws and its director nominations are not valid. As such, shares voted for Pentwater nominees will not be counted at the Annual Meeting, absent a contrary judgment by Delaware courts. However, it is still important that your shares are represented at the Annual Meeting in support of your Company.

PENTWATER IS ONLY INTERESTED IN SHORT-TERM GAIN AND ITS INTERESTS ARE NOT ALIGNED WITH LEAP'S OTHER STOCKHOLDERS

Based on a close review of its trading history and actions, we believe Pentwater is using this proxy fight as a way to make a short-term gain. Consider these facts, illustrated on the chart below:

As little as one year ago, Pentwater did not own any Leap shares.

Pentwater has sold almost 40% of its net position in Leap stock since announcing its proxy fight (even reducing its net position by 20,000 shares on the day it filed its initial proxy statement).

Pentwater established a short position covering more than 1.6M Leap shares, equal to ~67% of its 2.4M shares held as of June 20, 2011.

You should review the attached appendix which shows Pentwater's weekly net sales of Leap shares since announcing its proxy fight.

PENTWATER HAS NO ALTERNATIVE STRATEGY AND ITS CANDIDATES ARE NOT AS QUALIFIED AS LEAP'S

In its proxy filing Pentwater has set out an alternate plan for our business that we believe is vague, misinformed and to the extent it makes any sense at all suggests actions that Leap has already been taking for nearly a year. We believe its comments about Leap are backward-looking and ignore Leap's strong position, significant recent operating results and prospects for improved financial performance in 2011 and beyond.

Importantly, we also believe that Pentwater's nominees do not have the same level of experience and expertise as the directors they are trying to replace.

GLASS LEWIS AGREES AND RECOMMENDS VOTING FOR ALL OF LEAP S PROPOSALS

Respected, independent proxy advisory service Glass Lewis & Co. agrees that now is not the right time to change the Board and has recommended that Leap s stockholders vote FOR all of Leap s proposals.

Glass Lewis agrees that Pentwater has failed to articulate any specific plan for our business and that Pentwater is not interested in Leap s long-term success, indicating that:

[Pentwater] appears to offer considerably less in the way of concrete plans relative to those presented by the board. More concerning still is the brief, small and oddly-structured nature of Pentwater s investment. . . . We believe the nature of Pentwater s investment pattern in Leap raises significant doubts about the extent to which it shares an interest in the long-term value of the Company.

PLEASE SUPPORT YOUR COMPANY BY VOTING FOR LEAP S PROPOSALS TODAY USING THE ENCLOSED WHITE PROXY CARD

The Leap Board recommends that you vote FOR the slate of qualified Leap nominees named on the enclosed WHITE proxy card.

Remember, only your latest-dated proxy counts. If you have inadvertently submitted a gold proxy, you have every right to change your vote. Simply use the enclosed WHITE proxy card to vote TODAY by telephone, by Internet, or by signing, dating and returning the WHITE proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided. (Again, we urge you to simply discard any gold proxy card sent to you by Pentwater or its affiliates.)

We thank you for your continued support.

Very truly yours,

S .Douglas Hutcheson
President and Chief Executive Officer

Leap and its directors, executive officers and certain employees may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from Leap's stockholders in connection with the election of directors and other matters to be proposed at the 2011 Annual Meeting. Information regarding the interests, if any, of these directors, executive officers and specified employees is included in the definitive proxy statement and other materials filed by Leap with the SEC.

Forward-Looking Statements

This letter contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements reflect management's current expectations based on currently available operating, financial and competitive information, but are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated in or implied by the forward-looking statements. Our forward-looking statements include our discussions about our expected, future financial and operational performance, including as a result of our current and future product and service plan offerings, future plans to transition to LTE networks and expected contributions from management and from our proposed slate of nominees to Leap's Board of Directors and are generally identified with words such as believe, expect, intend, plan, could, may and similar expressions. Risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could affect our forward-looking statements include, among other things:

our ability to attract and retain customers in an extremely competitive marketplace;

the duration and severity of the current economic downturn in the United States and changes in economic conditions, including interest rates, consumer credit conditions, consumer debt levels, consumer confidence, unemployment rates, energy costs and other macro-economic factors that could adversely affect demand for the services we provide;

the impact of competitors' initiatives;

our ability to successfully implement product and service plan offerings, expand our retail distribution and execute effectively on our other strategic activities;

our ability to obtain and maintain roaming and wholesale services from other carriers at cost-effective rates;

our ability to maintain effective internal control over financial reporting our ability to attract, integrate, motivate and retain an experienced workforce, including members of senior management;

future customer usage of our wireless services, which could exceed our expectations, and our ability to manage or increase network capacity to meet increasing customer demand;

our ability to acquire additional spectrum in the future at a reasonable cost or on a timely basis;

our ability to comply with the covenants in any credit agreement, indenture or similar instrument governing any of our existing or future indebtedness;

our ability to effectively integrate, manage and operate our new joint venture in South Texas;

failure of our network or information technology systems to perform according to expectations and risks associated with the upgrade or transition of certain of those systems, including our customer billing system; and other factors detailed in the section entitled "Risk Factors" included in our periodic reports filed with the SEC, including our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2011, filed with the SEC on May 6, 2011.

All forward-looking statements included in this letter should be considered in the context of these risks. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Investors and prospective investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements.
