On December 14, 2006 Constellation delivered to the Issuer a letter (the Initial Proposal Letter) containing a non-binding proposal to acquire all of the issued and outstanding Common Stock of the Issuer that Constellation does not currently own, at a valuation of US$ 9.00 per share in cash, in a merger transaction.

The proposal set forth in the Initial Proposal Letters was rejected by the Board of Directors of the Issuer on December 20, 2006.

On February 28, 2007, Constellation delivered to the Issuer a new letter (the Proposal Letter) containing a non-binding proposal to acquire all of the issued and outstanding Common Stock of the Issuer that Constellation does not currently own, at a valuation of U. S. $10.00 per share in cash, in a merger transaction (the Proposal). The Proposal Letter is filed herewith as Exhibit 1 and is incorporated herein by this reference.

The Proposal is conditioned upon, among other things, the negotiation of mutually acceptable definitive documents and satisfactory completion of confirmatory due diligence. The Proposal Letter shall not create any agreement, arrangement or understanding between Constellation or any other parties with respect to the Issuer or Manatron Common Stock for purposes of any law, rule, regulation, agreement or otherwise, until such time, if any, as definitive documentation and any agreement, arrangement or understanding has been approved and thereafter executed by Constellation, the Issuer and all other appropriate parties. Any proposed transaction would require the approval of the Issuer's board of directors and stockholders and Constellation's board of directors. If and when a final proposal from Constellation is submitted to the stockholders of the Issuer for their approval, Constellation intends to vote all share of Manatron Common Stock that are beneficially owned by it for such proposal.

If an acquisition of the Issuer is consummated by Constellation, Constellation contemplates that the Manatron Common Stock of the Issuer would be delisted from Nasdaq and deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. It is further contemplated that, subsequent to an acquisition, the composition of the Issuer's board of directors would be changed in a manner to be determined at a later date.

Constellation intends to review on a continuing basis its investment in the Issuer. Constellation may seek to influence management or the board of directors of the Issuer with respect to the business and affairs of the Issuer, including having the Issuer take action to facilitate consummation of the Proposal.

Depending upon the response of the Issuer's Board of Directors to the Proposal, and subject to compliance with applicable law, Constellation may decide to change its investment in the Issuer. Depending upon the price and availability of the Issuer's securities, subsequent developments regarding the Issuer and the Proposal, other investments and opportunities available to Constellation, general stock market and other conditions, tax and legal considerations, and other relevant factors, Constellation may elect to either purchase additional shares of the Issuer's Common Stock or may sell all or a portion of its securities of the Issuer. These transactions could occur in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions, through a public offering or otherwise.

The information set forth in response to this Item 4 is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Proposal Letter.

EXHIBIT 1 PROPOSAL LETTER

[LETTERHEAD OF CONSTELLATION SOFTWARE INC.]

March 2, 2007

Mr. Paul Sylvester
Chief Executive Officer and Co-Chairman
Manatron Inc.
510 East Milham Ave.
Portage, Michigan 49002

Dear Mr. Sylvester:

I am approaching you in your role as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Manatron Inc. (the Company) in order to propose the acquisition of the Company by Constellation Software Inc. We are willing to make a conditional proposal to acquire the Company's common stock in exchange for cash equal to US $10.00 per fully diluted common share. As you are aware the Company's share price, at the close of the NASDAQ yesterday, was US $8.40, so our proposal represents a premium of 19% for holders of the Company common stock.

This proposal is not binding on Constellation Software Inc. at this time but is extended in sincerity to advance a combination which we believe is in the best interests of the shareholders of both companies.

This proposal is conditioned on several factors some of which, without limitation, are:

acceptance of this bid as a basis for more detailed discussions by the Company's board no later than midnight on March 19, 2007;

a timely definitive agreement approved by the boards of both companies;

successfully obtaining all regulatory approvals including, without limitation, the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act; successful completion of due diligence by Constellation Software Inc. and its agents;

approval by the Securities and Exchange Commission of an appropriate proxy to be distributed to shareholders of the company;

favorable votes as required by applicable Michigan law by the shareholders of the Company; and such other terms and conditions as are usual and customary in transactions of this sort.

The Board of Directors of Constellation Software Inc. reserves the right to withdraw this proposal at any time with or without cause.

Mr. Sylvester, I sincerely hope that you and your Board will respond to this proposal in the constructive spirit in which it is offered. I and my Board believe that a combination of the Company and Constellation Software Inc. will be favorably viewed by the shareholders and customers of the Company.

If you and your Board have any questions about this proposal which would be helpful to you in reaching what we hope will be a favorable decision, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours very truly,

/S/ Barry Symons
