Preliminary Prospectus Dated December 3, 2001

PROSPECTUS

737,790 Shares

Common Stock

The stockholder of Aether Systems, Inc. named in this prospectus is offering and selling up to 737,790 shares of Aether's common stock. The selling stockholder obtained its shares in connection with a strategic alliance that we entered into with the selling stockholder. We will receive none of the proceeds from the sale of shares of common stock by the selling stockholder pursuant to this prospectus. We have agreed to bear the expenses of registration of the shares in this prospectus.

The selling stockholder may offer its shares through public or private transactions, on or off the Nasdaq National Market at prevailing market prices or at privately negotiated prices. It may make sales directly to purchasers or to or through brokers, agents, dealers or underwriters. The selling stockholder will bear all commissions and other compensation paid to brokers in connection with the sale of its shares.

Our shares are traded on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol AETH. On November 30, 2001, the closing sale price of shares of our common stock was $7.48 per share.

Investing in the common stock involves risks that are described in the Risk Factors section beginning on page 4 of this prospectus.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or determined if this prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The date of this prospectus is December , 2001.

ABOUT AETHER SYSTEMS

Aether Systems helps enterprise customers improve efficiency and profitability by providing the services, software and support necessary to extend existing and future business applications from the desktop to any unwired device, whether it be mobile or real time wireless. Through Aether Fusion™, Aether's enabling technology foundation, Aether develops, deploys and manages mobile and wireless solutions built on industry standard technology and backed by Aether's expertise in wireless hosting, software and services. Aether provides the worlds of business and government with a single source for reliable, scalable and cost effective mobile and wireless solutions.

Aether's enabling technology foundation gives businesses, systems integrators and developers the ability to quickly create, deploy and manage wireless solutions across multiple carrier networks and types of devices. Customers may choose specific wireless products or services, or have Aether build and manage a comprehensive wireless solution. In every case, Aether's flexibility to adapt to a wide variety of systems protects businesses from betting on technologies in a rapidly changing wireless environment.

Our strategy. Our strategy is to be the dominant provider in the United States and internationally of wireless data services and systems to corporations by using our engineering expertise, our software products, our hosted solutions and our other resources. We believe our capabilities and experience have established us as an early market leader in wireless data services, and a key element of our strategy is to move quickly into new opportunities to extend our leadership position. Additionally, at the same time the competitive landscape has significantly weakened, Aether has identified a number of growth areas including:

Small and Medium Enterprise (SME);

Homeland Security;

Transportation and Logistics;

New products addressing opportunities such as SME and field force automation; and Licensable, comprehensive wireless technology foundation.

We will continue to monitor and evaluate new opportunities as they arise.

Other information. We are a Delaware corporation. Our principal executive offices are located at 11460 Cronridge Drive, Owings Mills, Maryland 21117, and our telephone number is (410) 654-6400. We maintain a Web site at www.aethersystems.com. Information contained in our Web site does not constitute a part of this prospectus. RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves risks. You should carefully consider the following risks together with the other information contained in this prospectus and all the information incorporated by reference before deciding to buy our common stock. A list of factors affecting our operating results is incorporated herein by reference to our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000. The risks below relate solely to this offering.

Our stock price, like that of many technology companies, has been, and may continue to be, volatile.

The market price of our common stock has been highly volatile and is likely to continue to be highly volatile. The trading price of our common stock has fluctuated from a high of $75.00 to a low of $5.25 in the one year prior to the date of this prospectus. We are involved in a highly visible, rapidly changing industry and stock prices in our industry and similar industries have risen and fallen in response to a variety of factors, including:

announcements of new wireless data communications technologies and new providers of wireless data communications; acquisitions of or strategic alliances among providers of wireless data communications; changes in recommendations by securities analysts regarding the results or prospects of providers of wireless data communications; and changes in investor perceptions of the acceptance or profitability of wireless data communications.

Shares eligible for future sale by our current stockholders may depress our share price.

As of November 15, 2001, we had outstanding 41,005,689 shares of common stock. Sales of a substantial number of our shares of common stock in the public market or the expectation of such sales could cause the market price of our common stock to drop. All the shares sold pursuant to this prospectus will be, and the shares sold in our initial public offering, our offering in March 2000, our September 2000 offering and the October 2000, February 2001 and June 2001 shelf registrations, are freely tradable. In addition to the shares covered by this prospectus and the shelf registrations referenced above, we have agreed to register the resale of 11,590,241 shares upon demand. 12,507,323 of our shares (including some of the shares subject to registration rights) are currently eligible for sale, subject to a limitation on the number of shares that can be sold in any three-month period.

We filed a registration statement to register all shares of common stock that were issued to our employees under our equity incentive plan and intend to file future registration statements registering shares of common stock issued under our equity incentive plan. Shares issued upon exercise of stock options will be eligible for resale in the public market without restriction. As of November 15, 2001, options and warrants to purchase 6,272,495 shares of our common stock and 584,869 shares of restricted stock were issued and outstanding and covered by the registration statement.

The stockholder agreement among certain of our major stockholders has the effect of allowing them to nominate five of our eight authorized directors, which limits the ability of new investors to influence control of Aether.

NexGen Technologies, L.L.C., Telcom-ATI Investors, L.L.C. and Reuters MarketClip Holdings Sarl, a subsidiary of Reuters Group Plc. who together hold 23.3% of the shares of our common stock entered into a stockholder agreement that governs voting for our directors. The agreement provides that each party will vote all of its shares for one director nominated by NexGen, two directors nominated by Telcom-ATI Investors, one director nominated jointly by NexGen and Telcom-ATI Investors and one director nominated by Reuters. As a result, five directors of our board may be nominated by these major stockholders, though Telcom-ATI Investors waived its rights in the most recent election of directors. As we currently have authorized only eight directors, the voting rights of our stockholders other than these major stockholders may effectively be meaningfully exercised only in connection with the election of three of our directors. In addition to its effect on the voting rights of our new investors, the stockholder agreement could have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control.

We have anti-takeover defenses that could delay or prevent an acquisition of Aether and could adversely affect the price of our common stock.

Provisions of our certificate of incorporation and bylaws and provisions of Delaware law could delay, defer or prevent an acquisition or change of control of Aether or otherwise adversely affect the price of our common stock. For example, our bylaws limit the ability of stockholders to call a special meeting. Moreover, our certificate of incorporation permits our board to issue shares of preferred stock without stockholder approval, which means that the board could issue shares with special voting rights or other provisions that could deter a takeover. In addition to delaying or preventing an acquisition, the issuance of a substantial number of preferred shares could adversely affect the price of our common stock.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act. We have based these forward-looking statements on our current expectations and projections about future events. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as may, will, should, could, pending, potential, continue, expects, anticipates, intends, believes, predicts, estimates and similar expressions, although not all forward-looking statements are identified by these words. These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions about Aether and our industry, including those we describe and incorporate by reference in the Risk Factors section of this prospectus. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the forward-looking events discussed in this prospectus might not occur. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

USE OF PROCEEDS

This prospectus relates to shares of our common stock being offered and sold for the account of the selling stockholder named in this prospectus. We will not receive any proceeds from the shares sold pursuant to this prospectus.

Table of ContentsSELLING STOCKHOLDER

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to beneficial ownership of our common stock by the selling stockholder as of November 15, 2001, as adjusted to reflect the issuance of 737,790 shares of common stock to the selling stockholder and the sale of those shares pursuant to this prospectus.

To our knowledge, the person named in the table shares with AOL Time Warner Inc. voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock covered by this prospectus. For the purposes of calculating percent ownership as of November 15, 2001, 41,005,689 shares were issued and outstanding.

Recently, we entered into a strategic alliance with the selling stockholder whereby Aether Fusion™ technology would extend the selling stockholder's Netbusiness, email and instant messaging to wireless platforms for small and medium enterprises. The selling stockholder purchased the shares offered by this prospectus in connection with the strategic alliance, and has agreed to purchase additional shares of our common stock, subject to certain conditions, upon our request. Under the terms of the agreement pursuant to which the shares covered by this prospectus were purchased, Ted Leonsis, Vice Chairperson, New Products of the selling stockholder, is expected to begin to serve on our board in early 2002.

The persons selling shares pursuant to this prospectus may include pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest of the person identified below as the selling stockholder.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We have been advised that the selling stockholder (and its pledgees, donees, transferees and other successors in interest) may offer shares of common stock from time to time depending on market conditions and other factors, in one or more transactions on the Nasdaq National Market, or any other national securities exchanges or over-the-counter markets on which the shares may be traded, or in negotiated transactions, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to those market prices, at negotiated prices or at fixed prices.

Sales of shares of common stock by the selling stockholder may involve (i) block transactions in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction, (ii) purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by such broker-dealer for its own account pursuant to this prospectus, (iii) ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker solicits purchasers or (iv) privately negotiated transactions. To the extent required, this prospectus may be amended and supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution. In connection with the distribution of the shares of common stock or otherwise, the selling stockholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions. In connection with such transactions, broker-dealers or other financial institutions may engage in short sales of the common stock in the course of hedging the position they assume with the selling stockholder. The selling stockholder may also sell the common stock short and redeliver the shares to close out such short positions.

The selling stockholder may also enter into option transactions (including call or put option transactions) or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions which require delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares offered hereby, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction, if necessary). The selling stockholder may also pledge shares to a broker-dealer or other financial institution and, upon a default, such broker-dealer or other financial institution may effect sales of the pledged shares pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction, if necessary). The selling stockholder may also sell the common stock through one or more underwriters on a firm commitment or best-efforts basis (with a supplement or amendment to this prospectus, if necessary). In addition, any shares that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

Brokers and dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholder and/ or purchasers of shares for whom they may act as agent and/ or to whom they may sell as principal (which compensation may be in excess of customary commissions). The selling stockholder and any broker or dealer that participates in the distribution of shares may be deemed to be underwriters and any commissions received by them and any profit on the resale of shares positioned by a broker or dealer may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. We have agreed to indemnify the selling stockholder, the officers, directors, partners, agents and employees of the selling stockholder, any underwriter (as defined in the Securities Act) for the selling stockholder, and each person, if any, who controls the selling stockholder or underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act. The selling stockholder may agree to indemnify any agent or broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving sales of the shares of common stock against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

We have advised the selling stockholder that Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of shares and to the activities of the selling stockholder or broker-dealers in connection therewith. We will bear all costs, expenses and fees in connection with the registration of the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus. The selling stockholder will bear any brokerage commissions and similar selling expenses, if any, attributable to the sale of the shares.

ITEM 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Under Section 145 of the General Corporation law of the State of Delaware, Aether Systems has broad powers to indemnify its directors and officers against liabilities they may incur in such capacities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). Aether Systems bylaws also provide for mandatory indemnification of its directors and executive officers, and permissive indemnification of its employees and agents, to the fullest extent permissible under Delaware law.

Aether s certificate of incorporation provides that the liability of its directors for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under Delaware law. Pursuant to Delaware law, this includes elimination of liability for monetary damages for breach of the directors fiduciary duty of care to Aether and its stockholders. These provisions do not eliminate the directors duty of care and, in appropriate circumstances, equitable remedies such as injunctive or other forms of non-monetary relief will remain available under Delaware law. In addition, each director will continue to be subject to liability for breach of the director s duty of loyalty to Aether, for acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct, for knowing violations of law, for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit, and for payment of dividends or approval of stock repurchases or redemptions that are unlawful under Delaware law. The provision also does not affect a director's responsibilities under any other laws, such as the federal securities laws or state or federal environmental laws.

Aether has entered into agreements with its directors and certain of its executive officers that require Aether to indemnify such persons against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred (including expenses of a derivative action) in connection with any proceeding, whether actual or threatened, to which any such person may be made a party by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of Aether or any of its affiliated enterprises, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Aether and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The indemnification agreements also set forth certain procedures that will apply in the event of a claim for indemnification thereunder.

Aether has a policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance that insures Aether's directors and officers against the cost of defense, settlement or payment of a judgment under certain circumstances.

ITEM 17. Undertakings

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act);

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement; and provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Company pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
