FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BRANTLEY CAPITAL CORPORATION HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Preliminary voting results expected next week

CLEVELAND, September 17, 2002 Brantley Capital Corporation (Nasdaq: BBDC) today announced that all proxy cards received at its Annual Meeting regarding the election of directors, two dissident stockholder proposals, and the ratification of KPMG as independent public accountants for the year ending December 31, 2002 were turned over to the independent inspectors of election, Independent Voting Services, who will tabulate the results. It is expected that the preliminary results will be provided to Brantley next week, after which both sides will have the opportunity to review the proxy tabulation. Brantley will publicly announce the final results once they are made available to the Company.

Robert P. Pinkas, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Brantley Capital, said, "We greatly appreciate the support of our stockholders during this process. We are confident that each member of our Board will be fully committed to helping Brantley's management ensure the Company's long-term success for the benefit of all Brantley stockholders."

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

The information contained in this press release contains forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are subject to inherent uncertainties in predicting future results and conditions. Certain factors could cause actual results and conditions to differ materially from those projected in these forward-looking statements, and these factors are enumerated in the company's periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
