Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 18, 2007, NeuStar, Inc. (the Company) was notified by the U.S. Department of Commerce (the DOC) that the Company has been awarded the contract (the .us Contract) to serve as the operator of the .us Internet domain registry. The Company has been serving as the operator of the .us Internet domain registry since October 2001 under a previously awarded contract by the DOC.

The .us Contract allows the Company to provide .us Internet domain name registration services to domain name registrars, who pay the Company on a per-name basis. The .us Contract will commence at the expiration of the Company's existing contract to serve as the operator of the .us Internet domain registry, which will occur on October 25, 2007. The .us Contract has an initial term of three years and has two one-year options exercisable by the DOC.

In addition to provisions regarding the contractual requirements for the operator of the .us Internet domain registry, the .us Contract also contains customary terms for a government contract of this type, including indemnification, confidentiality, dispute resolution provisions and the incorporation by reference of numerous provisions of the Federal Acquisition Regulation.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On October 22, 2007, NeuStar, Inc. issued a press release announcing that the company had been awarded the .us Contract. A copy of this press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
