For the second half of fiscal 2004, each member of the Board of Directors of the Company who was not an employee of the Company received a quarterly retainer of $6,000 and a fee of $3,000 for each meeting of the Board of Directors attended. Non-chair members of the Audit Committee also received fees of $3,000 for each Audit Committee meeting attended during the first half of fiscal 2004 and $6,000 during the second half of fiscal 2004. The Board members also received reimbursement for travel and lodging expenses incurred in connection with attending all such meetings. Such stock options vest after one year.

Table of ContentsEMPLOYMENT CONTRACT

Mr. Rubin's employment contract was amended and restated effective September 1, 2003. Mr. Rubin's employment contract has a term of five years, renews itself daily and provides for a base salary of $600,000, and a bonus payable based on the earnings achieved by the Company in any applicable fiscal year according to the following scale:

AMOUNT OF BONUS PAYABLE AS A PERCENT OF EARNINGS	AMOUNT OF EARNINGS ACHIEVED BY THE COMPANY IN THE APPLICABLE FISCAL YEAR
5%	$ to $30,000,000
6%	$30,000,001 to $40,000,000
7%	$40,000,001 to $50,000,000
8%	$50,000,001 to $60,000,000
9%	$60,000,001 to $70,000,000
10%	$70,000,001 or more

For the purposes of the bonus calculation, "earnings" means the sum of the consolidated earnings from continuing operations before all income taxes of the Company and its subsidiaries, minus extraordinary income, plus extraordinary expenses, minus capital gains, and plus capital losses. All components of the calculation are required to be determined in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The amount of the incentive bonus calculated above is then reduced by the salary paid to Mr. Rubin in the fiscal year. Mr. Rubin's incentive bonus also provides that Mr. Rubin's incentive bonus for any fiscal year may not exceed $15,000,000. The employment agreement also calls for the reimbursement of certain expenses and taxes. Under the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Rubin was entitled to receive options to purchase Common Stock that are immediately vested in the amount of 250,000 shares on the last business day of each of the Company's fiscal quarters. During fiscal 2004, pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Rubin received option grants of 250,000 each for the first two fiscal quarters. The employment agreement was amended effective September 1, 2003 to grant Mr. Rubin option grants of 125,000 shares on the last business day of the Company's fiscal quarters starting with the fiscal quarter beginning September 1, 2003. Under the amended employment agreement, Mr. Rubin received an option grant of 125,000 in the third fiscal quarter. In the fourth fiscal quarter, Mr. Rubin declined receipt of the balance of available options in order to allow the options in the plan to be used to reward selected members of the Company's management with an equity ownership interest in the financial success of the Company.

The terms of Mr. Rubin's employment agreement require that options continue to be granted subject to such options being available under the Company's stock option plans. In the event there are not a sufficient number of shares under the stock option plans to cause the grant of stock options to Mr. Rubin, the Company agrees to use its reasonable efforts to cause the Company's shareholders to approve additional shares of Common Stock to be subject to such stock option plans to enable such grants. In the event the Company's shareholders do not approve additional shares to be issued under such stock option plans, the Company is not obligated to Mr. Rubin to grant such options.

Should Mr. Rubin's employment with the Company be terminated by an occurrence other than death, disability or good cause, Mr. Rubin will receive payments, each in an amount equal to his monthly rate of basic compensation, which shall commence on the date of termination and shall continue until the date the employment contract would have expired but for said occurrence. Mr. Rubin would also receive payments, payable annually after the close of each fiscal year of the Company, each in an amount of incentive compensation and bonuses that would otherwise have been payable to him if he had continued in the employ of the Company for the same period, provided, however, the incentive compensation and bonus payable with respect to any fiscal year shall not be less than the highest annual incentive compensation and bonus award made to Mr. Rubin with respect to the Company's most recent three fiscal years ending prior to the date of termination.

Upon the occurrence of a change in control of the Company, Mr. Rubin may elect to terminate his employment with the Company, and upon such termination will receive a present-value lump sum payment of that amount due to him as basic compensation if his employment contract had continued until the date the employment contract would have expired but for said occurrence. In the event of a change in control, Mr. Rubin will also receive a lump sum payment in an amount equal to the amount of incentive compensation and bonuses that would otherwise have been payable to him under the employment agreement. Such lump sum payment shall be calculated using Mr. Rubin's highest incentive compensation and bonuses payable with respect to the Company's most recent three fiscal years ending prior to the date of the termination, with present value calculated using the applicable federal rate for the date of the termination of employment. Mr. Rubin's contract also provides for a gross-up for the excise tax on any amounts that are treated as excess parachute payments under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Table of Contents

If Mr. Rubin's employment is terminated by an occurrence other than by death, disability or good cause, including upon a change in control, Mr. Rubin will also receive: (1) all amounts earned, accrued or owing but not yet paid to him, (2) immediate vesting of all options granted to him, (3) removal of all restrictions on restricted stock awarded to him and immediate vesting of the rights to such stock, if any, (4) medical benefits for him and his wife for life and (5) paid premiums of his life insurance policies, required under his employment contract. Mr. Rubin will continue to participate in all employee benefits plans, programs or arrangements available to Company executives in which he was participating on the date of termination until the date the employment contract would have expired but for said occurrence or, if earlier, until he receives equivalent benefits and coverage by another employer.

In the event of Mr. Rubin's death, all unpaid benefits under these agreements are payable to his estate. Mr. Rubin's contract grants him the right to elect a cash payment of the remainder of his contract in the event of a merger, consolidation or transfer of all or substantially all of the Company's assets to any unaffiliated company or other person.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

All members of the Compensation Committee during 2004 were independent Directors, and none of them were employees or former employees of Helen of Troy. During 2004, no Helen of Troy executive officer served on the Compensation Committee (or equivalent), or the Board of Directors, of another entity whose executive officer(s) served on Helen of Troy's Compensation Committee or Board.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee has submitted the following report:

The Compensation Committee is responsible for developing the Company's executive compensation strategy and for administering the policies and programs that implement this strategy. The Committee is comprised entirely of independent, non-employee Directors.

The executive compensation strategy reflects the Company's fundamental philosophy of aligning the interests of management with Helen of Troy's long-term performance and offering competitive compensation opportunities based on each individual's contribution to the achievement of shareholder value. This strategy is designed to attract and retain employees with outstanding qualifications and experience.

The three elements of the Company's executive compensation strategy, all determined by corporate and individual performance, are:

Base salary;

Annual incentive compensation; and

Long-term incentive compensation.

The Compensation Committee has reviewed the compensation packages for Executives of the Company's primary competitors and those of other Companies that sell consumer products. Some of these competitors are privately held and are therefore not included in the accompanying stock performance graph. The performance of the selected companies was compared to that of Helen of Troy. Earnings performance, stock price, accretive acquisitions, and other criteria intended to increase shareholder wealth continue to be the primary considerations in crafting compensation packages for Company Executives to align their interests with that of the Company's shareholders.

The base salary for Gerald J. Rubin (Chief Executive Officer and President) for fiscal 2004 was based on his employment contract. See Executive Compensation Employment Contract.

The base salaries for the other executive officers during fiscal 2004 were determined by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company based on the skills and experience required by the position, the effect of the individual's performance on the Company and the potential of the individual.

Annual incentive compensation consists of cash bonuses. The amount of the cash bonus for Gerald J. Rubin is based upon the 1997 Cash Bonus Performance Plan, as amended, which has been approved by the Company's shareholders. For fiscal 2004, the Company awarded a bonus of $5,474,156 to Gerald J. Rubin under the 1997 Cash Bonus Performance Plan.

Table of Contents

The 2004 incentive bonuses for the other executive officers were determined based upon performance objectives set by the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

Long-term incentive compensation consists of the Company's stock option plans. Stock options are granted based on the performance and position of the executive officer, as well as the Company's performance. Executive officers are provided with opportunities for ownership positions in the Common Stock through the Company's stock option plans. This opportunity for ownership, combined with a significant performance-based incentive compensation opportunity, forges a strong link between the Company's management and shareholders. During fiscal 2004 the Company's Board of Directors granted to Gerald J. Rubin, Christopher L. Carameros, Thomas J. Benson and Vincent D. Carson stock options to purchase 625,000, 300,000, 56,883 and 5,000 shares of the Common Stock, respectively.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Tax Code"), places a limit of $1,000,000 on the amount of compensation that Helen of Troy may deduct in any one year with respect to each of its five most highly paid executive officers. Certain performance-based compensation approved by shareholders is not subject to the deduction limit. Helen of Troy's shareholder-approved 1998 Stock Option and Restricted Stock Plan, in which awards under such plans constitute performance-based compensation, is not subject to Section 162(m) of the Tax Code. To maintain flexibility in compensating executive officers in a manner designed to promote varying corporate goals, the Committee has not adopted a policy that all compensation must be deductible.

As stated above, the compensation to the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Gerald J. Rubin, during fiscal 2004 consisted of base salary, annual incentive compensation, and long-term incentive compensation. All of the factors discussed above in this report were taken into consideration by the Compensation Committee in determining the total compensation for Mr. Rubin for fiscal 2004.

Respectfully submitted,

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF DIRECTORS

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

During fiscal 2004, the Company continued an agreement (the Lease) under which it leases a 108,000 square foot warehouse facility in El Paso, Texas, from a real estate partnership (the Partnership) in which Gerald J. Rubin and Stanlee N. Rubin are limited partners. The Company entered into the Lease in order to expand its inventory storage capacity in El Paso, Texas. Under the terms of the Lease, the Company pays $29,250 in monthly rent. The Company also pays certain expenses associated with the operation of the facility. The Company leased the warehouse facility for the entire fiscal year and made a total of $454,000 in payments for associated rent and operating expenses during fiscal 2004. The Company has obtained an appraisal from a third party confirming that the amount of rent under the Lease is comparable to that being paid by other companies for similar facilities in El Paso. The Company obtained comparable rental information on similar properties from an unaffiliated real estate company at the time of the Lease. This information was used to establish the rental rate for this facility. The Lease is a month-to-month agreement. Either the Company or the Partnership may cancel the Lease by providing the other party with notice 30 days in advance of terminating the Lease.

For the first half of fiscal 2004, the Company was the occupant of offices in various locations throughout the United States under three separate informal reimbursement arrangements (collectively, the informal arrangements) with the Partnership. The Company entered into the informal arrangements in order to facilitate contact with customers. Under the informal arrangements, the Company paid rent and certain operating expenses in amounts equal to the rent and operating expenses paid by the Partnership under its leases of these facilities. During fiscal 2004, the Company paid $64,163 under these informal arrangements. During the third fiscal quarter of 2004, the informal arrangements were cancelled and the underlying leases were transferred to one of the Company's subsidiaries. Accordingly, after October 2004 no further payments were made under the previous informal arrangements with the Partnership.

Table of Contents

In July 1999, the Company entered into an agreement with the Partnership under which the Company leases 3,325 square feet of office space in El Paso, Texas to the Partnership. The agreement calls for the Company to receive $3,879 in monthly rent. During fiscal 2004, the Company recorded $46,550 in rental income associated with this agreement. The Company has obtained an appraisal from a third party confirming that the amount of rent under such agreement is comparable to that being paid by other companies for similar facilities in El Paso, Texas.

Byron H. Rubin, a member of the Company's Board of Directors, earns ordinary insurance agent's commissions in connection with the Company's group health, life and disability insurance policies as well as in connection with certain life insurance policies on its officers. During fiscal 2004, he received commissions of approximately $30,000 from policies sold to the Company.

All of the above transactions have been reviewed, approved and ratified by the Company's Audit Committee.

Prior to July 2003, the Company had paid premiums for Survivorship life insurance policies on the lives of Gerald J. Rubin and Stanlee N. Rubin in the aggregate insured amount of $29,000,000. The Company and a trust established for the benefit of Gerald J. Rubin and Stanlee N. Rubin, which was the beneficiary of the life insurance policies (the Trust), entered into a Split Dollar Insurance Agreement dated March 1994 whereby the Trust agreed to repay the Company all of the premiums paid under the policies from the proceeds of the policies. The Trust owned the policies and collaterally assigned the proceeds from these policies as collateral for the obligation to repay the aggregate premiums paid by the Company under these policies. In July 2003, the Trust and the Company entered into a Life Insurance Agreement under which the Trust transferred ownership of the policies to the Company. The Company agreed to pay annual premiums up to $360,000 on the policies and upon the death of the second to die of Gerald J. Rubin or Stanlee N. Rubin, the Company shall receive the cash surrender value of the policies and the Trust shall receive the balance of the policies. As of March 2, 2004, the total aggregate death benefit of the policies was $31,348,972, and the aggregate cash surrender value of the policies was $3,782,125. Under the split dollar agreement for this policy, entered into in June 2000, the Company is entitled to reimbursement for all premium payments it has made on the policy out of any death benefits paid on the life of Gerald J. Rubin. The Company last paid a $43,431 annual premium on the policy in fiscal 2002. No premiums were paid on the policy in fiscal 2003 and fiscal 2004.
