Item 4 Ownership:

- (a) As of December 8, 2006, MSD TCB, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (TCB), was the record and beneficial owner of $110,180,000.00 aggregate principal amount 1.25% Convertible Senior Notes due January 1, 2024 (the Notes), which, as of January 1, 2007, will be convertible into 2,500,510 shares (the Shares) of Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Common Stock), of Digital River, Inc. (the Issuer).

Pursuant to the terms of the Indenture, dated as of June 1, 2004, between the Issuer and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Trustee (the Indenture), which is filed as an exhibit to the Issuer's Form 8-K filed on July 13, 2004, the Notes shall be convertible upon the occurrence of one of the following events, each of which is described in further detail in the Indenture:

- i. during any fiscal quarter, if the sale price of the Common Stock exceeds 130% of the conversion price per share for each of any twenty consecutive trading days in the immediately preceding fiscal quarter;
- ii. if the Issuer has called the Notes for redemption;
- iii. at any time during the five trading days following any five consecutive trading-day period in which the average of the trading prices for the Notes during such five day period is less than 95% of the average of the conversion values for the Notes during that period;
- iv. the Issuer elects to distribute either: (i) rights or warrants entitling all stockholders to subscribe for or purchase the Common Stock at less than the current market price on the trading day immediately preceding the declaration date of the distribution; or (ii) cash, debt securities, or other evidence of indebtedness or other assets, which distribution, when aggregated with all other such distributions within the preceding year, has a per share value exceeding 10% of the current market price of the Common Stock as of the trading day immediately preceding the declaration of the distribution; or

v. in connection with certain transactions or events constituting a fundamental change to the Issuer.

With respect to the condition for convertibility described in section (i) above, the Indenture specifically provides that the Notes are convertible during any fiscal quarter commencing after June 30, 2004, if the closing per share sale price (as further described in the Indenture) of the Common Stock for each of any twenty consecutive trading days in the immediately preceding fiscal quarter exceeds 130% of the Conversion Price of the Common Stock on such trading day. The Conversion Price of the Notes is $44.063, subject to adjustment from time to time upon the occurrence of certain events described in the Indenture.

As of November 30, 2006, this condition for convertibility was satisfied, and, as a result, the Notes are convertible into the Shares as of January 1, 2007, and for the duration of the quarter ending March 31, 2007. The Indenture further provides that for each fiscal quarter, TCB must determine whether the Notes are convertible as a result of the satisfaction of the condition described in section (i) above. Therefore, the Notes are convertible for the first quarter of the 2007 fiscal year, but TCB's ability to convert the Notes pursuant to section (i) above (or any other condition to convertibility) may vary, depending on the then current facts and circumstances.

MSD Capital, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (MSD), is the general partner of TCB, and therefore may be deemed to be the indirect beneficial owner of the Shares during any such period in which the Notes are convertible. MSD Capital Management LLC is the general partner of MSD.
