The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Forrester Research, Inc. (the Company) has conducted an investigation into the Company's stock option granting practices. The Company has been assisted in the investigation by the law firms of Ropes & Gray LLP and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and the consulting firm of Huron Consulting Group.

The Audit Committee has identified option grants that had exercise prices lower than the fair value of the common stock on the appropriate accounting measurement dates that were not appropriately accounted for. Based on the results of the investigation, management concluded, and the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors agreed, that the Company would need to restate its historical financial statements to record additional non-cash charges for compensation expense relating to past stock option grants and related tax impacts. As a result of the investigation and the required restatements of its historical financial statements, the Company did not file Forms 10-Q for the periods ending June 30, 2007 and March 31, 2007 and Form 10-K for the period ending December 31, 2006, and filed corresponding Forms 12b-25 on August 9, 2007, May 10, 2007 and March 16, 2007, respectively.

On November 5, 2007, the Company filed its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2006. As a result of the considerable time and effort that the Company devoted to completing the restatement process and to filing Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2006, the Company was unable to complete the work necessary to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ending September 30, 2007 by the required filing date of November 9, 2007, without unreasonable effort or expense.
