2005 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Express Scripts, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), to be voted at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company (the annual meeting or the meeting) and any adjournment or postponement of the meeting. The meeting will be held at the principal executive offices of the Company, 13900 Riverport Drive, Maryland Heights, Missouri 63043, on Wednesday, May 25, 2005, at 9:30 a.m. Central Time, for the purposes contained in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders and in this proxy statement. This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy will be first sent or given to stockholders on or about April 22, 2005.

ABOUT THE MEETING

Why Did I Receive This Proxy Statement?

Because you were a stockholder of the Company as of March 31, 2005 (the Record Date) and are entitled to vote at the annual meeting, the Board of Directors is soliciting your proxy to vote at the meeting.

This proxy statement summarizes the information you need to know to vote at the meeting. This proxy statement and form of proxy were first mailed to stockholders on or about April 22, 2005.

What Am I Voting On?

You are voting on two items:

1. Election of directors (see page 6)
2. Ratification of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as independent accountants for 2005 (see page 28)

How Do I Vote?

Stockholders of Record: If you are a stockholder of record, there are four ways to vote:
by toll-free telephone at 1-800-PROXIES (1-800-776-9437)

by Internet at www.voteproxy.com

by completing and returning your proxy card

by written ballot at the meeting

Street Name Holders: Shares which are held in a brokerage account in the name of the broker are said to be held in street name. If your shares are held in street name you should follow the voting instructions provided by your broker. You may complete and return a voting instruction card to your broker, or, in many cases, your broker may also allow you to vote via the telephone or internet. Check your proxy card for more information. If you hold your shares in street name and wish to vote at the meeting, you must obtain a legal proxy from your broker and bring that proxy to the meeting.

Regardless of how your shares are registered, if you complete and properly sign the accompanying proxy card and return it to the address indicated, it will be voted as you direct.

Table of Contents

What Are The Voting Recommendations of the Board Of Directors?

The Board recommends the following votes:

1. FOR each of the nominees as directors

2. FOR ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as independent accountants for 2005

Unless you give instructions on your proxy card, the persons named as proxy holders will vote your shares in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors.

Will Any Other Matters Be Voted On?

We do not know of any other matters that will be brought before the stockholders for a vote at the annual meeting. If any other matter is properly brought before the meeting, your signed proxy card gives authority to George Paz and David Lowenberg to vote on such matters in their discretion.

Who Is Entitled to Vote at the Meeting?

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to receive notice of and to participate in the annual meeting. If you were a stockholder of record on that date, you will be entitled to vote all of the shares that you held on that date at the meeting, or any postponements or adjournments of the meeting.

How Many Votes Do I Have?

You will have one vote for every share of Express Scripts common stock you owned on the Record Date.

How Many Votes Can Be Cast by All Stockholders?

74,045,868, consisting of one vote for each share of Express Scripts common stock outstanding on the Record Date. There is no cumulative voting.

How Many Votes Must Be Present to Hold the Meeting?

The holders of a majority of the aggregate voting power of the Express Scripts common stock outstanding on the Record Date, or 37,022,935 votes, must be present in person, or by proxy, at the meeting in order to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the meeting.

If you vote, your shares will be part of the quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted in determining the quorum. A broker non-vote occurs when a bank or broker holding shares in street name submits a proxy that states that the broker does not vote for some or all of the proposals, because the broker has not received instructions from the beneficial owners on how to vote on the proposals and does not have discretionary authority to vote in the absence of instructions.

We urge you to vote by proxy even if you plan to attend the meeting so that we will know as soon as possible that a quorum has been achieved.

What Vote Is Required to Approve Each Proposal?

In the election of directors, the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting is required. A proxy that has properly withheld authority with respect to the election of one or more directors will not be voted with respect to the director or directors indicated, although it will be counted for the purposes of determining whether there is a quorum.

For the proposal to ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent accountants, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the proposal will be required for approval. An abstention with respect to this proposal will not be voted, although it will be counted for the purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. Accordingly, an abstention will have the effect of a negative vote.

Can I Change My Vote or Revoke My Proxy?

Yes. Just send in a new proxy card with a later date, or cast a new vote by telephone or Internet, or send a written notice of revocation to the Company's Corporate Secretary at the address on the cover of this proxy statement. Also, if you attend the meeting and wish to vote in person, you may request that your previously submitted proxy not be used.

How Can I Access Express Scripts Proxy Materials and Annual Report Electronically?

This proxy statement and the 2004 annual report are available in the Investor Information section of our website at www.express-scripts.com. Information on our website does not constitute part of this proxy statement. Most stockholders can elect to view future proxy statements and annual reports over the Internet instead of receiving paper copies in the mail by registering at our website. By electing to receive these materials electronically, you can save the Company the cost of producing and mailing these documents.

Who Can Attend the Annual Meeting?

Any Express Scripts stockholder as of March 31, 2005 may attend the meeting. If you own shares in street name, you should ask your broker or bank for a legal proxy to bring with you to the meeting. If you do not receive the legal proxy in time, bring your most recent brokerage statement so that we can verify your ownership of our stock and admit you to the meeting. However, you will not be able to vote your shares at the meeting without a legal proxy.

If you return a proxy card without indicating your vote, your shares will be voted as follows: (i) for the nominees for director named in this proxy statement; (ii) for ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as independent accountants for the Company for 2005; and (iii) in accordance with the recommendation of management on any other matter that may properly be brought before the meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the meeting.

Selection of Nominees for the Board of Directors

The Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for evaluating potential candidates to serve on the Company's Board of Directors, and for selecting nominees to be presented for election to the Board at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders. In evaluating potential director candidates, the Corporate Governance Committee considers the skills and characteristics possessed by each candidate in the context of the perceived needs of the Board at that point in time. Among the factors considered by the Corporate Governance Committee in considering a potential nominee are the following:

the nominee's independence;

the nominee's relevant professional skills and depth of business experience;

the nominee's character, judgment, and personal and professional integrity;

the nominee's ability to read and understand corporate financial statements;

the nominee's willingness to commit sufficient time to attend to his or her duties and responsibilities as a member of the Board;

the nominee's qualifications for membership on certain committees of the Board;

any potential conflicts of interest involving the nominee; and the make up and diversity of the Company's existing Board.

In identifying potential candidates for the Board, the Committee relies on recommendations from a number of possible sources, including current directors and officers. The Corporate Governance Committee may also retain outside consultants or search firms to help in identifying potential candidates for membership on the Board. In the past, the Corporate Governance Committee has engaged the firm of Spencer Stuart to assist with director searches, including the search which resulted in the identification of Mr. Skinner and Ms. Breen. The Corporate Governance Committee will also consider candidates recommended by stockholders, and will consider them on the same basis as other candidates.

Any stockholder wishing to recommend a candidate for consideration by the Corporate Governance Committee to become a nominee for election to the Board may do so by submitting a written recommendation to the committee in accordance with the Company's procedures for the submission of Stockholder Proposals, as set out in the Company's Bylaws (See Stockholder Proposals beginning on page 29). For a nominee to be considered, the following information must be submitted in accordance with the required procedures: (i) the name, age, business and residence addresses, principal occupation or employment of both the nominee and the recommending stockholder; (ii) the nominee's general biographical information, including the identification of any other boards on which the nominee serves; (iii) with respect to the Common Stock, the current ownership information and trading history over the preceding 24 months for both the nominee and the recommending stockholder; (iv) a description of any transactions or relationships between the nominee and/or the recommending stockholder on one hand, and the Company or its management on the other hand; (v) a description of any material proceedings to which the nominee or the recommending stockholder, or either of their associates or affiliates, is a party that are adverse to the Company; (vi) a description of all arrangements and understandings between the stockholder and the nominee or any other person (including their names) pursuant to which the nomination is made; and (vii) any other information relating to the nominee or the recommending stockholder that is required to be disclosed in solicitations for proxies for election of directors pursuant to Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder. The request for nomination must also be accompanied by a written consent of the proposed nominee to being named as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected. The Company's Corporate Secretary will review all such stockholder recommendations, and will forward those that comply with the above-described requirements to the Corporate Governance Committee for evaluation and consideration.

The Company and New York Life are parties to a Stockholder and Registration Rights Agreement which, among other things, gives New York Life the right to nominate one candidate for election to the Board, subject to certain conditions as described in Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions Relationship with New York Life Stockholder and Registration Rights Agreement beginning on page 27. Mr. Sternberg has been nominated by New York Life.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee of Express Scripts, Inc. (the Committee) is composed of four directors who, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, meet the independence requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market. Since 1992 the Committee has operated under a Charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The Charter, as amended, is available through the Investor Information section of the Company's website at www.express-scripts.com. The primary function of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in its oversight of the Company's financial reporting processes. Management is responsible for the Company's financial statements and overall reporting process, including the system of internal controls. The independent auditors are responsible for conducting annual audits and quarterly reviews of the Company's financial statements and expressing an opinion as to the conformity of the annual financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Committee submits the following report pursuant to the Securities and Exchange Commission rules:

The Committee has reviewed and discussed with management and with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC), the Company's independent auditors, the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2004 (the Financial Statements).

DIRECTORS' COMPENSATION

Directors of the Company who are employed by the Company or its subsidiaries do not receive compensation for serving as directors. As of January 1, 2004, directors who were not employees of the Company, or its subsidiaries, were entitled to receive an annual retainer of $30,000 for Committee Chairpersons and $25,000 for the other non-employee directors, as well as a meeting fee of $2,000 for each meeting attended in person, and $1,000 for each meeting attended telephonically. In February 2004, the Corporate Governance Committee approved an increase in the annual retainer for the Company's non-employee directors. Under the new policy, eligible directors are entitled to receive an annual retainer of $35,000 for Committee Chairpersons and $30,000 for the other non-employee directors. The meeting fees did not change. The Company also reimburses non-employee directors for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attending Board and Committee meetings.

Under the Express Scripts, Inc. 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan, as amended (the 2000 LTIP), the Company's non-employee directors were entitled to receive (i) an option to purchase 6,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock on the date of the first Board of Directors meeting each such director attended as a non-employee director, and a like grant on each anniversary of such date, and (ii) an option to acquire 8,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock on the date of the first Board of Directors meeting each such director attended as a non-employee director, and a like grant each third year thereafter. As part of the change in the Company's non-employee director compensation policy first approved in May 2003 and further revised in February 2004, the equity component was reduced such that each non-employee director receives an option to purchase 4,500 shares of the Company's Common Stock on the date of the first Board of Directors meeting he or she attends as a non-employee director, and an option to acquire 6,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock on the date of the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders thereafter. The grants awarded on the date of the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders were prorated based on the amount of time that had passed since each non-employee director's most recent annual grant.

All of the options granted to the non-employee directors under the 2000 LTIP have a purchase price of 100% of the fair market value of the shares on the date they are granted, and a seven-year term. These options vest at the rate of one-third each year and terminate immediately at such time as the individual ceases to be a non-employee director for any reason other than death or disability or change in control (as defined in the 2000 LTIP) of the Company, provided that if the non-employee director is 65 or older at the time of such cessation, any unexercisable portion terminates immediately, and any exercisable portion terminates three months after such cessation. If the optionee ceases to be a non-employee director because of death or disability, all options are immediately exercisable and terminate three months after such cessation. In the event of a change in control (as defined in the 2000 LTIP) of the Company, the options fully vest.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation and Development Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee) administers the Company's compensation plans, including the Company's 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan and its Executive Deferred Compensation Plan. The Committee's overall recommendations regarding compensation are subject to approval of the Board of Directors.

Compensation Plan

The Company's general compensation policy for its executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), is to provide short-term compensation consisting of two components, a fixed base salary and a cash bonus that is awarded based upon achievement of specific short-term financial and non-financial objectives for the executive and the Company, and long-term compensation consisting of a mix of equity-based programs, primarily options to purchase the Company's stock and grants of restricted stock. The stock option and restricted stock awards are based upon the Committee's judgment as to the relative contribution of each executive to the long-term success of the Company as well as the then current marketplace for executive compensation. The Company has adopted a non-qualified deferred compensation plan for executives and has entered into employment agreements with certain key executives.

The CEO consults with the Committee regarding the compensation of the Company's senior executives. The Committee reviews executive compensation at least on an annual basis. The Company's policy is to combine short-term compensation, long-term incentive compensation and other components of the compensation package for executives to create a total compensation package that is above the median compensation level for executive officers of similarly sized companies in comparable businesses if the Company achieves its base work plan and financial objectives, and that can be at or above the 75th percentile of such compensation level if the Company achieves its stretch financial and work plan goals.

During 2004, the Company engaged a nationally recognized consulting firm to review compensation levels for the Company's executive officers. The study was based on a group of companies in health care and technology intensive businesses judged to be comparable to the Company, together with other companies with high-growth characteristics determined to be similar to those of the Company (the Comparable Companies). These companies included companies different from those in the peer group index in the Company's performance graph. The consultant compared total compensation for the Company's executive officers, including its CEO, against the total compensation received by executives in comparable positions at the Comparable Companies. After reviewing the consultant's report, the Committee determined that, in its judgment, compensation for the Company's senior executives was generally in line with compensation at the Comparable Companies.

The Committee continues to evaluate the impact of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code on the deductibility of executive officer compensation. The Committee endeavors to maximize the deductibility of compensation to the extent practicable while maintaining competitive compensation.

Components of Executive Compensation

Base Salary: The Committee determines the salary ranges for each executive officer position in the Company based upon the level and scope of responsibilities of the position and the pay levels of similarly positioned executive officers in companies deemed comparable by the Committee. The CEO's evaluation of the level of responsibility of each position (other than his own) and the performance of each other executive officer is of paramount importance when base salary is determined.

Annual Bonus Compensation: Each executive officer has a base bonus target which is stated as a percentage of the executive officer's base salary. These base bonus target percentages range from 50% to 100%. For any bonus amount to be paid, the Company must meet an annual financial goal which is based on budgeted EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) and earnings per share. If the corporate financial target is not met, then the corporate bonus pool is reduced to the extent necessary to enable the Company to meet its target.

If the Company has met its annual financial goal, then actual bonus awards for executive officers are determined based on the executive officers' respective bonus targets and an evaluation by the Committee (and in the case of senior executives also by the CEO) of the extent to which work plan goals were achieved. In addition, if the Company meets certain stretch financial and work plan targets, bonus targets may be increased by as much as 100%. The Committee reviews and approves the annual financial targets and the stretch work plan goals.

In determining the extent of the achievement of departmental work plan goals, the Committee and the CEO evaluate the executive's individual contribution to his or her departmental work plan and the extent to which the departmental work plan goals have been achieved. The departmental work plan goals are determined based upon the departmental function, and include such items as development and marketing of new products and programs within a specified time frame, systems enhancements to support new products and programs, improvements in mail service pharmacy processing costs and enhancements in the provider networks. In 2004, the Company did not achieve its stretch financial and work plan goals, and, accordingly, there was no enhancement of bonuses awarded to executive officers.

For 2004, actual aggregate bonuses paid to current executive officers, including the CEO, represented approximately 28% of the salaries and bonuses paid to these officers, compared to 35% for 2003. Actual aggregate bonuses paid to all current executive officers who received bonuses for 2004 represented approximately 60% of the total bonuses targets for these executive officers and approximately 13% of the total bonus amounts paid to all employees for 2004, compared to 85% and 13%, respectively, in 2003.

For 2005, the Company will continue its stretch bonus program.

Long Term Incentive Compensation: Long-term incentive compensation is provided in the form of grants of either stock options or restricted stock. These equity awards are designed to align the executive's compensation more directly with stockholder value by linking a substantial portion of the executive's compensation to the performance of the Company's stock. Long-term compensation also is designed to encourage executives to make career commitments to the Company.

Long-term compensation is granted under the Company's 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the 2000 LTIP), which was approved by stockholders in May 2001.

Each executive officer receives an option grant upon employment with the Company (or upon promotion to senior executive status), and typically receives an annual grant of additional stock options thereafter. In 2003 each executive officer also received a grant of restricted stock. The restrictions prohibit sale or transfer of the restricted stock for a period of five years for one-half of the shares and ten years for the remainder. These restrictions would lapse sooner, however, based on the Company meeting certain financial targets for the years 2003, 2004 and 2005. The restricted stock grants made in 2003 were in amounts intended to approximate the number of shares of restricted stock that would be awarded over a period of three years under a hypothetical annual restricted stock grant program that would be supplemental to the Company's annual option grant program. Financial targets for accelerated vesting of the restricted stock were achieved for 2003 and 2004, and, accordingly, two-thirds of the 2003 restricted stock grant has now vested. Several of the Company's senior executives have also received special grants of stock options and/or restricted stock in connection with their entering into employment agreements with the Company. See Executive Compensation Employment Agreements beginning on page 19 for additional information.

The size of an executive's equity compensation awards are based upon the CEO's and the Committee's evaluation of the contribution that the executive officer is expected to make to overall growth and profitability of the Company during the vesting period of the options. The Committee also considers long-term incentive compensation levels at the Comparable Companies. The actual number of options granted is determined utilizing the modified Black-Scholes methodology for valuing options.

Stock options are granted with an exercise price equal to not less than the market value of the underlying shares on the date of grant and constitute compensation only if the Company's stock price increases thereafter. The Committee has discretion to determine the vesting schedule for each option grant and generally makes grants that become exercisable in equal amounts over three years. Except in the cases of retirement, disability or death, in general, executives must be employed by the Company at the time of vesting in order to exercise their options. Reference is made to the text of the 2000 LTIP for detailed information on the terms of the plan.

Certain executives have also received stock option and/or restricted stock grants with performance based vesting provisions as part of their compensation packages under employment agreements with the Company. These grants generally have long-term vesting schedules of between five and ten years, with the opportunity of accelerated vesting if certain financial targets are achieved. See Executive Compensation Employment Agreements beginning on page 19 for additional information.

The Company does not currently expense the compensation element associated with its employee stock options, but will begin to reflect the expense associated with stock options in 2006 in accordance with statement FAS 123R issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board. In the footnotes to the Company's financial statements included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-k, the Company has disclosed the effect that fully expensing stock options would have on the Company's financial statements. The Company expenses the compensation represented by restricted stock awards.

Deferred Compensation Plan: The Company has adopted the Express Scripts, Inc. Executive Deferred Compensation Plan (the EDCP), which also serves as a supplemental retirement plan for senior executives. The EDCP provides eligible senior and vice-president-level executive employees of the Company and its subsidiaries the opportunity to (i) defer the receipt and taxation of up to 50% of the employee's annual base salary and 100% of his or her annual bonus, and (ii) receive certain contributions from the Company. Amounts deferred by participants and Company contributions are assumed to have been invested in one or more of a number of publicly available mutual funds and a Company Common Stock fund, and the returns that the Company will pay on the participants' accounts are equal to the gain or loss on such hypothetical market investments. The Committee believes, therefore, that the Company has not promised to pay an above-market return on any participant's account. Other than the EDCP and the Company's 401(k) Plan, the Company does not make available a pension or other retirement plan to its executive officers.

The Company's annual contribution to the EDCP for senior executives for 2004 was equal to six percent (6%) of each participating executive's cash compensation during the year. The purpose of the EDCP is to provide key executives with competitive retirement and capital accumulation benefits, to retain and provide incentive to the Company's key executives, and to increase the Company's ability to attract mid-career executives to senior executive positions with the Company. Any compensation deferred under the EDCP would not be included in the $1,000,000 limit provided for under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code until the year in which distributions from the EDCP are actually made to the participants.

Executive Officer Employment Agreements

The Company has entered into long-term employment agreements with certain key executives of the Company. See Executive Compensation Employment Agreements Employment Agreements with Other Executive Officers beginning on page 21 for additional information.

The Chief Executive Officer's Compensation

The Committee evaluates the performance of the CEO for purposes of recommending to the Board his annual base pay adjustment and annual bonus award. The Committee also determines his annual long-term incentive award. The factors considered in evaluating the CEO's salary in 2004 related to the overall performance of the Company, particularly the increase in revenues, net income and earnings per share, which were evaluated by the Committee.

Under his employment agreement with the Company, during 2004 the CEO could earn an annual bonus of up to 100% of his base salary for 2004 based upon achievement of performance objectives set by the Board upon recommendation of the Committee, plus up to an additional 100% based upon the achievement of stretch goals. Mr. Toan's bonus award for 2004 performance, which was equal to 50% of his base salary, was recommended by the Committee based upon the Company's attainment of its profitability goals and for the overall performance of the 2004 non-financial corporate work plan objectives.

Table of Contents

Mr. Toan retired from the Company effective March 31, 2005 and was succeeded as CEO by George Paz. The Company and Mr. Paz have entered into an Employment Agreement for a term ending March 31, 2008.

Based on the achievement of such targets for 2003 and 2004, vesting on two-thirds of the restricted stock granted in the May 2003 Grant was accelerated in March 2005, with the accelerated shares divided evenly from those originally scheduled to vest in 2008 and those scheduled for vesting in 2013. - (2) The values in these columns are based upon calculations assuming the 5% and 10% annual stock price appreciation rate specified by the Securities and Exchange Commission. These assumed rates are not intended to forecast future price appreciation of the common stock. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises are dependent upon the future market performance of the common stock and the date on which the options are exercised.

Afterwards, if there is no public market for the Company's stock, or the common stock for which the Company's common stock is exchanged, then any unexercised options will be repurchased by the Company based on the change in control price (as defined) for the underlying shares. The options become fully exercisable for one year upon termination of employment if the employee dies, becomes disabled, or retires. The options expire if the employee is terminated for cause, and if the employee is terminated for any other reason, the options are exercisable, to the extent that they were exercisable before termination, for one month. The foregoing terms are subject to the terms of the employment agreements of the Named Officers. See Employment Agreements below.

Employment Agreements*Employment Agreement with Mr. Toan*

Effective as of April 1, 1999, the Company entered into an employment agreement (the "Toan Employment Agreement") with Mr. Toan for an initial term extending through March 31, 2002, with optional one-year renewal periods thereafter, pursuant to which Mr. Toan served as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board of Directors. In November 2000, the Company entered into an amendment (the "2000 Amendment") to the Toan Employment Agreement, which extended the term of the Agreement from March 31, 2002 until March 31, 2005, at which time the agreement expired. See "Consulting Agreement with Mr. Toan" for a description of the current arrangement with Mr. Toan.

The Toan Employment Agreement provided for an initial annual base salary of $650,000, subject to increase in the discretion of the Board of Directors and which could not be reduced after any increase. Mr. Toan's base salary was $778,846 for 2004. Pursuant to the Toan Employment Agreement, Mr. Toan was also eligible to participate in the Company's Annual Bonus Plan for senior executives with target bonuses thereunder of a minimum of 100% of his annual base salary, payment of which depended upon the Company meeting certain targeted financial objectives determined each year by the Board of Directors in its discretion.

Pursuant to the 2000 Amendment, Mr. Toan received a special $3,500,000 Company contribution to his account in the EDCP which vested on March 31, 2005.

As part of the Toan Employment Agreement, on May 26, 1999, Mr. Toan received a one-time grant of nonqualified options to purchase 140,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of Common Stock on the date of grant, with such options vesting in five equal annual installments on each of the first five anniversaries of the date of grant. Pursuant to the 2000 Amendment, on November 7, 2000, Mr. Toan received an additional grant of nonqualified stock options to purchase 180,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of Common Stock on the date of grant, with the underlying stock relating to such options vesting in three equal increments on March 31 of 2003, 2004 and 2005, respectively. In addition, pursuant to the 2000 Amendment, Mr. Toan received a grant of 100,000 shares of restricted stock which vested on March 31, 2005.

Under the terms of the 2000 Amendment all of Mr. Toan's stock options and restricted stock (including grants made pursuant to the express terms of the Toan Employment Agreement and all grants prior to or after the 2000 Amendment) became fully vested on March 31, 2005, to the extent they had not already vested pursuant to their terms. Further, pursuant to the 2000 Amendment, all of Mr. Toan's vested options will remain exercisable until their respective expiration date.

Mr. Toan is also subject to certain post-employment non-solicitation, non-competition and non-disclosure restrictions.

Employment Agreements with Mr. Paz

On April 15, 2004, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Paz. The 2004 agreement was effective as of January 1, 2004 with an initial term through December 31, 2006. Effective April 1, 2005, the Company entered into a new agreement with Mr. Paz, as described below. The 2004 agreement provided for (i) an initial base salary of $550,000; (ii) a guaranteed minimum annual bonus target under the Company's bonus plan of 82% of Mr. Paz's annual base salary, with a bonus opportunity for each calendar year during the employment period of up to 200% of the executive's guaranteed minimum annual bonus in the event the Company achieves certain stretch financial and work plan goals; (iii) a grant under the 2000 LTIP of an option to purchase 18,002 shares of the Common Stock, vesting in three equal increments on December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006; and (vi) an award of 19,355 shares of restricted stock under the 2000 LTIP, vesting no later than December 31, 2006.

On April 1, 2005 the Company and Mr. Paz entered into a new employment agreement in connection with his promotion to the office of Chief Executive Officer (the Paz Employment Agreement). Pursuant to the Paz Employment Agreement, the 2004 agreement with Mr. Paz was terminated other than those terms addressing the stock option and restricted stock grants under the 2004 agreement, which terms were incorporated by reference into the Paz Employment Agreement.

The Paz Employment Agreement was effective as of April 1, 2005 with an initial term through March 31, 2008. The agreement provides for (i) an initial base salary of $650,000 (which may not be reduced after any increase); (ii) a guaranteed minimum annual bonus target under the Company's bonus plan of 100% of Mr. Paz's annual base salary, with a bonus opportunity for each calendar year during the employment period of up to 200% of the executive's guaranteed minimum annual bonus in the event the Company achieves certain stretch financial and work plan goals; (iii) participation in the Company's benefit and incentive plans and other arrangements in accordance with their terms; (iv) the crediting of a deferred bonus in the amount of $200,000 to the executive's retirement account in the EDCP, subject to the terms and conditions of the EDCP, which bonus generally vests at the end of the initial employment period except as described below; (v) a grant under the 2000 LTIP of an option to purchase 40,000 shares of the Common Stock, vesting in three equal increments on March 31, 2006, 2007 and 2008; and (vi) such perquisites and fringe benefits to which similarly situated Company executives are entitled and which are suitable for Mr. Paz's position.

If Mr. Paz's employment is terminated prior to expiration of the employment period, he is not entitled to receive any further payments or benefits that have not already been paid or provided (including any unvested portion of the option grant or restricted stock award) except as follows:

Mr. Paz will be entitled to all previously earned and accrued, but unpaid, annual base salary.

If Mr. Paz's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Disability, or by Mr. Paz for Good Reason (as those terms are defined in the agreement), Mr. Paz is entitled to receive: (i) a pro rata portion of the restricted stock award under the 2004 agreement based on the number of days worked during the employment period under the 2004 agreement; (ii) a severance benefit equal to 18 months of his base salary plus a specified portion of his bonus potential for the year based on the average percentage of the potential earned for the three prior years; (iii) reimbursement for the cost of continuing medical insurance for Mr. Paz, his spouse and any eligible dependents for 36 months after termination of employment; and (iv) a pro rata portion of the deferred bonus based on the number of days worked during the initial employment period.

If Mr. Paz's employment terminates on account of Disability or retirement (i.e., voluntary retirement on or after age 59^{1/2} but not within 90 days after a change in control (as defined in the employment agreement) of the Company) prior to the end of his employment period under the agreement, Mr. Paz generally is entitled to receive (i) a certain percentage of the restricted stock award calculated pursuant to the terms of the agreement, (ii) a pro rata portion of the deferred bonus, and (iii) reimbursement for the cost of continuing medical insurance for Mr. Paz, his spouse and any eligible dependents for 36 months after termination of employment.

If Mr. Paz's employment terminates on account of death prior to the end of his employment period under the agreement, Mr. Paz's estate generally is entitled to receive (i) 100% of the restricted stock award calculated pursuant to the terms of the agreement, (ii) 100% of the deferred bonus, and (iii) reimbursement for the cost of continuing medical insurance for Mr. Paz's spouse and any eligible dependents for 36 months after termination of employment.

If Mr. Paz's employment is terminated prior to expiration of the employment period (including any renewal period in effect) for any reason, then he is prohibited from competing against the Company for 18 months after such termination. If termination of employment occurs solely as a result of expiration of the employment agreement, Mr. Paz is prohibited from competing for one year after such termination. Mr. Paz is also subject to certain non-solicitation and non-disclosure limitations. Entitlement to the severance benefit described above (including any prorated portion) is contingent upon compliance with these restrictive covenants. The parties also agreed that in the event any severance or similar payments to be made to Mr. Paz following termination (other than payments under the EDCP) should be subject to the restrictions of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, then the parties would negotiate in good faith to amend the Paz Employment Agreement to the extent necessary to create payment terms with respect to such post-termination payments which are as close as possible to those originally set forth in the Paz Employment Agreement while not violating the terms of Section 409A.

In the event that any amount or benefit paid or distributed to Mr. Paz pursuant to the Paz Employment Agreement, taken together with any amounts or benefits otherwise paid or distributed to the executive by the Company pursuant to any other arrangement or plan (collectively, the Covered Payments), would result in the executive's liability for the payment of an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code (or any similar state or local tax) (collectively, the Excise Tax), the Company will make a gross-up payment to the executive to fully offset the Excise Tax provided the aggregate present value of the Covered Payments is equal to or exceeds 125% of the maximum total payment which could be made to the executive without triggering the Excise Tax. If the aggregate present value of the Covered Payments, however, exceeds such maximum amount, but is less than 125% of such maximum amount, then the Company may, in its discretion, reduce the Covered Payments so that no portion of the Covered Payments is subject to the Excise Tax, and no gross-up payment will be made.

Employment Agreements with Other Executive Officers

In an effort to facilitate the retention of key management, the Company has also entered into long-term employment agreements with several key executives, including each of the Named Officers other than Mr. Toan and Mr. Paz. The terms of the agreements are as follows:

Agreement with Mr. Lowenberg. On August 31, 2004, the Company entered into a long-term employment agreement with Mr. Lowenberg, replacing a previous agreement which was entered into in March 2001. The initial employment period under the agreement runs from the effective date through March 31, 2006, and the employment period is automatically extended for successive one-year renewal periods unless either party gives timely notice of non-renewal.

Mr. Lowenberg's employment agreement generally provides for: (i) the payment of an annual base salary of $450,000 (which may not be reduced after any increase); (ii) a guaranteed minimum annual bonus target of 70% of Mr. Lowenberg's base salary pursuant to the terms of the Company's bonus plan, with a bonus opportunity for each calendar year during the initial employment period of up to 200% of the Mr. Lowenberg's guaranteed minimum annual bonus in the event the Company achieves certain stretch financial and work plan goals; (iii) a grant under the 2000 LTIP of an option to purchase 17,554 shares of the Common Stock, scheduled to vest in full on December 31, 2010, but subject to accelerated vesting upon the achievement of certain financial goals;

- (iv) an award of 14,451 shares of restricted stock award under the 2000 LTIP, scheduled to vest in full on August 31, 2011, but subject to accelerated vesting upon the achievement of certain financial goals;
- (v) participation in Company employee benefit plans (other than bonus and incentive plans) on the same basis as such plans are generally made available to similarly situated senior executives of the Company; (vi) such perquisites and fringe benefits to which similarly situated executives of the Company are entitled and which are suitable for Mr. Lowenberg's position; (vii) the crediting of a deferred bonus of $600,000 (to be credited in two annual installments of $300,000 each) to Mr. Lowenberg's retirement account in the EDCP, subject to the terms and conditions of the EDCP, which bonus generally vests at the end of the Mr. Lowenberg's initial employment period under the employment agreement, subject to certain exceptions; and (viii) a one time bonus in the amount necessary to make his annual salary effective as of January 1, 2004.

If Mr. Lowenberg's employment is terminated prior to the expiration of the employment period (including any renewal period in effect) he is not entitled to receive any further payments or benefits that have not already been paid or provided (including any unvested portion of the option grant or restricted stock award) except as follows:

Mr. Lowenberg will be entitled to all previously earned and accrued, but unpaid, annual base salary.

If Mr. Lowenberg's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Disability, or by Mr. Lowenberg for Good Reason (as those terms are defined in the agreement), Mr. Lowenberg is entitled to receive: (i) a severance benefit equal to 18 months of his base salary plus a specified portion of Mr. Lowenberg's bonus potential for the year based on the average percentage of the potential earned for the three prior years; (ii) reimbursement for the cost of continuing medical insurance under COBRA for 18 months after termination of employment; (iii) if termination of employment occurs prior to the end of Mr. Lowenberg's initial employment period under the agreement, a pro rata portion of 83% of the restricted stock award based on the number of days worked during the initial employment period; (iv) if termination of employment occurs prior to the end of Mr. Lowenberg's initial employment period under the agreement, a pro rata portion of the previously credited installment(s) of the deferred bonus based on the number of days worked during the initial employment period.

If Mr. Lowenberg's employment terminates on account of Disability or retirement (i.e., voluntary retirement on or after age 59^{1/2} but not within 90 days after a change in control (as defined in the employment agreement) of the Company) prior to the end of Mr. Lowenberg's initial employment period under the agreement, Mr. Lowenberg generally is entitled to receive a pro rata portion of the previously credited installment(s) of the deferred bonus.

If Mr. Lowenberg's employment terminates on account of death prior to the end of his initial employment period under the agreement, he generally is entitled to receive: (i) 83% of the restricted stock award, and (ii) a pro rata portion of the previously credited installment(s) of the deferred bonus.

Mr. Lowenberg's rights with respect to the stock options granted under the employment agreement are generally governed by the terms and provisions of the 2000 LTIP. However, the employment agreement provides that stock options granted thereunder shall not vest or otherwise become exercisable solely as a result of Mr. Lowenberg's retirement.

If a change in control (as defined in the agreement) of the Company occurs prior to the end of the initial employment period under the agreement, Mr. Lowenberg, in certain instances, is afforded different rights with respect to the deferred bonus as follows: (i) if Mr. Lowenberg remains employed for 90 days following the change in control, he obtains a vested right to receive 50% of the deferred bonus, with the remaining 50% otherwise eligible for vesting pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement; and (ii) if, within 90 days before or at any time after a change in control, Mr. Lowenberg is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Disability, or by Mr. Lowenberg for Good Reason, or the agreement expires during the 90 days following the change in control, Mr. Lowenberg would generally obtain a vested right to receive 100% of the deferred bonus.

If Mr. Lowenberg's employment is terminated prior to expiration of the employment period (including any renewal period in effect) for any reason, Mr. Lowenberg is prohibited from competing against the Company for 18 months after such termination. If termination of employment occurs solely as a result of expiration of the employment agreement, Mr. Lowenberg is prohibited from competing for one year after such termination. Mr. Lowenberg is also subject to certain non-solicitation and non-disclosure limitations. Entitlement to the severance benefit and the deferred bonus described above (including any prorated portion) is contingent upon compliance with these restrictive covenants.

Table of Contents

In the event that any amount or benefit paid or distributed to Mr. Lowenberg pursuant to the employment agreement, taken together with any amounts or benefits otherwise paid or distributed to Mr. Lowenberg by the Company pursuant to any other arrangement or plan (collectively, the Covered Payments), would result in Mr. Lowenberg's liability for the payment of an Excise Tax, the Company will make a gross-up payment to Mr. Lowenberg to fully offset the Excise Tax provided the aggregate present value of the Covered Payments is equal to or exceeds 125% of the maximum total payment which could be made to Mr. Lowenberg without triggering the Excise Tax. If the aggregate present value of the Covered Payments, however, exceeds such maximum amount, but is less than 125% of such maximum amount, then the Company may, in its discretion, reduce the Covered Payments so that no portion of the Covered Payments is subject to the Excise Tax, and no gross-up payment would be made.

Agreement with Mr. Boudreau. On October 29, 2004, the Company entered into a long-term employment agreement with Mr. Boudreau, replacing a previous agreement which was entered into in March 2001. The initial employment period under the agreement runs from the effective date through March 31, 2006, and the employment period is automatically extended for successive one-year renewal periods unless either party gives timely notice of non-renewal.

Mr. Boudreau's employment agreement generally provides for: (i) the payment of an annual base salary of $350,000 (which may not be reduced after any increase); (ii) a guaranteed minimum annual bonus target of 64% of Mr. Boudreau's base salary pursuant to the terms of the Company's bonus plan, with a bonus opportunity for each calendar year during the initial employment period of up to 200% of the Mr. Boudreau's guaranteed minimum annual bonus in the event the Company achieves certain stretch financial and work plan goals; (iii) a grant under the 2000 LTIP of an option to purchase 9,655 shares of the Common Stock, scheduled to vest in full on December 31, 2010, but subject to accelerated vesting upon the achievement of certain financial goals; (iv) an award of 7,226 shares of restricted stock award under the 2000 LTIP, scheduled to vest in full on August 31, 2011, but subject to accelerated vesting upon the achievement of certain financial goals; (v) participation in Company employee benefit plans (other than bonus and incentive plans) on the same basis as such plans are generally made available to similarly situated senior executives of the Company; (vi) such perquisites and fringe benefits to which similarly situated executives of the Company are entitled and which are suitable for Mr. Boudreau's position; (vii) the crediting of a deferred bonus of $400,000 (to be credited in two annual installments of $200,000 each) to Mr. Boudreau's retirement account in the EDCP, subject to the terms and conditions of the EDCP, which bonus generally vests at the end of the Mr. Boudreau's initial employment period under the employment agreement, subject to certain exceptions; (viii) a one time bonus in the amount necessary to make his annual salary effective as of January 1, 2004; and (ix) a one time signing bonus in the amount of $100,000 (to be paid in two equal installments of $50,000 each).

If Mr. Boudreau's employment is terminated prior to the expiration of the employment period (including any renewal period in effect) he is not entitled to receive any further payments or benefits that have not already been paid or provided (including any unvested portion of the option grant or restricted stock award) except as follows:

Mr. Boudreau will be entitled to all previously earned and accrued, but unpaid, annual base salary.

If Mr. Boudreau's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Disability, or by Mr. Boudreau for Good Reason (as those terms are defined in the agreement), Mr. Boudreau is entitled to receive: (i) a severance benefit equal to 18 months of his base salary plus a specified portion of Mr. Boudreau's bonus potential for the year based on the average percentage of the potential earned for the three prior years; (ii) reimbursement for the cost of continuing medical insurance under COBRA for 18 months after termination of employment; (iii) if termination of employment occurs prior to the end of Mr. Boudreau's initial employment period under the agreement, a pro rata portion of 83% of the restricted stock award based on the number of days worked during the initial employment period; (iv) if termination of employment occurs prior to the end of Mr. Boudreau's initial employment period under the agreement, a pro rata portion of the previously credited installment(s) of the deferred bonus based on the number of days worked during the initial employment period.

If Mr. Boudreau's employment terminates on account of disability or retirement (i.e., voluntary retirement on or after age 59^{1/2} but not within 90 days after a change in control (as defined in the employment agreement) of the Company) prior to the end of Mr. Boudreau's initial employment period under the agreement,

Mr. Boudreau generally is entitled to receive a pro rata portion of the previously credited installment(s) of the deferred bonus.

If Mr. Boudreau's employment terminates on account of death prior to the end of his initial employment period under the agreement, he generally is entitled to receive: (i) 83% of the restricted stock award, and (ii) a pro rata portion of the previously credited installment(s) of the deferred bonus.

Mr. Boudreau's rights with respect to the stock option granted under the employment agreement are generally governed by the terms and provisions of the 2000 LTIP. However, the employment agreement provides that stock options granted thereunder shall not vest or otherwise become exercisable solely as a result of Mr. Boudreau's retirement.

If a change in control (as defined in the agreement) of the Company occurs prior to the end of the initial employment period under the agreement, Mr. Boudreau, in certain instances, is afforded different rights with respect to the deferred bonus as follows: (i) if Mr. Boudreau remains employed for 90 days following the change in control, he obtains a vested right to receive 50% of the deferred bonus, with the remaining 50% otherwise eligible for vesting pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement; and (ii) if, within 90 days before or at any time after a change in control, Mr. Boudreau is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Disability, or by Mr. Boudreau for Good Reason, or the agreement expires during the 90 days following the change in control, Mr. Boudreau would generally obtain a vested right to receive 100% of the deferred bonus.

If Mr. Boudreau's employment is terminated prior to expiration of the employment period (including any renewal period in effect) for any reason, Mr. Boudreau is prohibited from competing against the Company for 18 months after such termination. If termination of employment occurs solely as a result of expiration of the employment agreement, Mr. Boudreau is prohibited from competing for one year after such termination. Mr. Boudreau is also subject to certain non-solicitation and non-disclosure limitations. Entitlement to the severance benefit and the deferred bonus described above (including any prorated portion) is contingent upon compliance with these restrictive covenants.

In the event that any amount or benefit paid or distributed to Mr. Boudreau pursuant to the employment agreement, taken together with any amounts or benefits otherwise paid or distributed to Mr. Boudreau by the Company pursuant to any other arrangement or plan (collectively, the Covered Payments), would result in Mr. Boudreau's liability for the payment of an Excise Tax, the Company will make a gross-up payment to Mr. Boudreau to fully offset the Excise Tax provided the aggregate present value of the Covered Payments is equal to or exceeds 125% of the maximum total payment which could be made to Mr. Boudreau without triggering the Excise Tax. If the aggregate present value of the Covered Payments, however, exceeds such maximum amount, but is less than 125% of such maximum amount, then the Company may, in its discretion, reduce the Covered Payments so that no portion of the Covered Payments is subject to the Excise Tax, and no gross-up payment would be made.

Agreement with Mr. Tenholder. On October 7, 2002, the Company entered into a long-term employment agreement with Mr. Tenholder. The initial employment period under the agreement runs from the effective date through December 31, 2006, and the employment period is automatically extended for successive one-year renewal periods unless either party gives timely notice of non-renewal.

Mr. Tenholder's employment agreement generally provides for: (i) the payment of an annual base salary of $300,000 (which may not be reduced after any increase); (ii) a guaranteed minimum annual bonus target of 55% of Mr. Tenholder's base salary pursuant to the terms of the Company's bonus plan, with a bonus opportunity for each calendar year during the initial employment period of up to 200% of the Mr. Tenholder's guaranteed minimum annual bonus in the event the Company achieves certain stretch financial and work plan goals; (iii) a grant under the 2000 LTIP of an option to purchase 16,000 shares of the Common Stock, vesting in three equal increments on December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006; (iv) an award of 9,000 shares of restricted stock award under the 2000 LTIP, scheduled to vest in full on December 31, 2006, (v) participation in Company employee benefit plans (other than bonus and incentive plans) on the same basis as such plans are generally made available to similarly situated senior executives of the Company; (vi) such perquisites and fringe benefits to which similarly situated executives of the Company are entitled and which are suitable for Mr. Tenholder's position; and (vii) the crediting of a deferred bonus of $500,000 to Mr. Tenholder's retirement account in the EDCP, subject to the terms and conditions of the EDCP, which bonus generally vests at the end of the Mr. Tenholder's initial employment period under the employment agreement, subject to certain exceptions.

If Mr. Tenholder's employment is terminated prior to the expiration of the employment period (including any renewal period in effect) he is not entitled to receive any further payments or benefits that have not already been paid or provided (including any unvested portion of the option grant or restricted stock award) except as follows:

Mr. Tenholder will be entitled to all previously earned and accrued, but unpaid, annual base salary.

If Mr. Tenholder's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Disability, or by Mr. Tenholder for Good Reason (as those terms are defined in the agreement), Mr. Tenholder is entitled to receive: (i) a severance benefit equal to 18 months of his base salary plus a specified portion of Mr. Tenholder's bonus potential for the year based on the average percentage of the potential earned for the three prior years; (ii) reimbursement for the cost of continuing medical insurance under COBRA for 18 months after termination of employment; (iii) if termination of employment occurs prior to the end of Mr. Tenholder's initial employment period under the agreement, a pro rata portion of the restricted stock award based on the number of days worked during the initial employment period; (iv) if termination of employment occurs prior to the end of Mr. Tenholder's initial employment period under the agreement, a pro rata portion of the deferred bonus based on the number of days worked during the initial employment period.

If Mr. Tenholder's employment terminates on account of death, Disability or retirement (i.e., voluntary retirement on or after age 59¹/₂ but not within 90 days after a change in control (as defined in the employment agreement) of the Company) prior to the end of Mr. Tenholder's initial employment period under the agreement, Mr. Tenholder generally is entitled to receive (i) if termination of employment occurs prior to the end of Mr. Tenholder's initial employment period under the agreement, a pro rata portion of the restricted stock award based on the number of days worked during the initial employment period; and (ii) if termination of employment occurs prior to the end of Mr. Tenholder's initial employment period under the agreement, a pro rata portion of the deferred bonus based on the number of days worked during the initial employment.

Mr. Tenholder's rights with respect to the stock option granted under the employment agreement are generally governed by the terms and provisions of the 2000 LTIP. However, the employment agreement provides that stock options granted on or after the effective date of the employment agreement (including stock options granted under the employment agreement) which have vested as of the effective date of termination of employment will be exercisable until (i) expiration of the relevant option term if termination is on account of retirement, or (ii) 12 months after termination of employment if termination is solely on account of the Company's decision not to renew the employment agreement.

If a change in control (as defined in the agreement) of the Company occurs prior to the end of the initial employment period under the agreement, Mr. Tenholder, in certain instances, is afforded different rights with respect to the deferred bonus as follows: (i) if Mr. Tenholder remains employed for 90 days following the change in control, he obtains a vested right to receive 50% of the deferred bonus, with the remaining 50% otherwise eligible for vesting pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement; and (ii) if, within 90 days before or at any time after a change in control, Mr. Tenholder is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Disability, or by Mr. Tenholder for Good Reason, or the agreement expires during the 90 days following the change in control, Mr. Tenholder would generally obtain a vested right to receive 100% of the deferred bonus.

If Mr. Tenholder's employment is terminated prior to expiration of the employment period (including any renewal period in effect) for any reason, Mr. Tenholder is prohibited from competing against the Company for 18 months after such termination. If termination of employment occurs solely as a result of expiration of the employment agreement, Mr. Tenholder is prohibited from competing for one year after such termination. Mr. Tenholder is also subject to certain non-solicitation and non-disclosure limitations. Entitlement to the severance benefit and the deferred bonus described above (including any prorated portion) is contingent upon compliance with these restrictive covenants.

In the event that any amount or benefit paid or distributed to Mr. Tenholder pursuant to the employment agreement, taken together with any amounts or benefits otherwise paid or distributed to Mr. Tenholder by the Company pursuant to any other arrangement or plan (collectively, the Covered Payments), would result in Mr. Tenholder's liability for the payment of an Excise Tax, the Company will make a gross-up payment to

Mr. Tenholder to fully offset the Excise Tax provided the aggregate present value of the Covered Payments is equal to or exceeds 125% of the maximum total payment which could be made to Mr. Tenholder without triggering the Excise Tax. If the aggregate present value of the Covered Payments, however, exceeds such maximum amount, but is less than 125% of such maximum amount, then the Company may, in its discretion, reduce the Covered Payments so that no portion of the Covered Payments is subject to the Excise Tax, and no gross-up payment would be made.

Consulting Agreement with Mr. Toan

On March 24, 2005, the Company entered into a consulting agreement with Mr. Toan. Under the consulting agreement, Mr. Toan will serve as non-executive Chairman of the Board, and shall have duties and responsibilities commensurate with such position. He will also render consulting services to the Company on such matters as the Company may request. Annual compensation for services performed as non-executive Chairman of the Board will be in accordance with annual compensation at such times and in such amount as the Company pays under the policy generally in effect for non-employee directors on the Board from time to time. Compensation for up to thirty-five hours per month of consulting services will be in the amount of $30,000 per month; additional consulting services may be provided upon agreement by the parties, for additional compensation. Mr. Toan shall also be entitled to be reimbursed for all out-of-pocket expenses paid in connection with the services provided under the consulting agreement. The consulting agreement ends on the date of the Company's 2006 Annual Meeting, unless earlier terminated.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors and executive officers, persons who beneficially own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, and certain other persons to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and Nasdaq, and to furnish the Company with copies of the forms. Based solely on its review of the forms it received, or written representations from reporting persons, the Company believes that all of its directors, executive officers and greater than ten percent beneficial owners complied with all such filing requirements during 2004; provided, however that Edward Stiften did not timely file a report with respect to an aggregate grant of 43,126 stock options and an aggregate grant of 19,100 shares of restricted stock in April 2004, and Darryl Weinrich did not timely file a report with respect to the receipt of 10.64 phantom stock units under the EDCP in March 2004. In addition, pursuant to a review of previous filings it was discovered that Mr. Paz did not timely file a report with respect to the receipt of 673.2617 phantom stock units under the EDCP in March 2003; Agnes Rey-Giraud did not timely report her surrender of 1644 shares, and her spouse's surrender of 341 shares, to the Company to cover withholding obligations related to the vesting of restricted stock in August 2003; Ms. Rey-Giraud did not timely report her spouse's surrender of 507 shares of unvested restricted stock upon termination of his employment with the Company in September 2003; and Mr. Lowenberg did not timely report a disposition of 972.786 phantom stock units resulting from a reallocation of investments in the EDCP in December 2003.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONSRelationship with New York LifeStock Ownership*

New York Life is currently the beneficial owner of 12,000,230 shares (or approximately 16.21%) of the outstanding Common Stock.

In August 2001, New York Life and its subsidiary NYLIFE, LLC (NYLife) entered into a ten-year forward sale contract with an affiliate of Credit Suisse First Boston Corporation (CSFB) with respect to 4,500,000 of its shares of the Common Stock, and, in April 2003, New York Life entered into a five-year forward sale contract with CSFB and one of CSFB's affiliates with respect to 5,500,000 of its shares of the Common Stock (together, the Forward Sale Contracts). New York Life has reported that, absent the occurrence of certain accelerating events, it retains the right to vote the shares under the Forward Sale Contracts (the Forward Sale Shares) during the term of each Forward Sale Contract.

Table of Contents*Stockholder and Registration Rights Agreement*

New York Life and the Company are parties to a Stockholder and Registration Rights Agreement dated as of October 6, 2000, amended August 17, 2001 and further amended April 25, 2003 (the "Rights Agreement"). The Rights Agreement was originally entered into in connection with the November 2000 secondary offering of a portion of the shares of Common Stock then held by New York Life (the "November 2000 Offering"). The principal terms of this agreement are described below.

Rights Regarding the Board of Directors. New York Life has the right to designate for nomination one director to the Company's Board of Directors as long as the aggregate number of shares of the Common Stock held by New York Life and its non-investment subsidiaries is either (i) equal to or greater than 3,000,000 shares (excluding the Forward Sale Shares), or (ii) equal to or greater than both (a) 2,000,000 shares (excluding the Forward Sale Shares), and (b) a number of shares (including the Forward Sale Shares) representing at least 14.9% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock as of either April 25, 2003 or the date of determination (whichever is less). New York Life originally had the right to designate two directors for nomination to the Company's Board of Directors. However, as a result of a series of transactions involving Common Stock held by New York Life and its affiliates completed during 2003, which transactions temporarily reduced New York Life's holdings to below the minimum threshold for two director nominations, New York Life's nomination right was reduced to one. Under the terms of the Rights Agreement, New York Life's nomination right cannot be increased.

The Company is required to use the same efforts to cause the election of New York Life's designee to the Board of Directors as it uses with its other nominees for director. If a vacancy occurs with respect to the director which New York Life had the right to designate, and New York Life has the right at such time to designate a director for nomination, New York Life is entitled to designate a nominee to fill the vacancy. If the Company nominates for election the person designated by New York Life, New York Life and its non-investment subsidiaries that hold shares are required to vote their shares of voting stock in favor of all directors nominated for such election.

Registration Rights. So long as New York Life and its non-investment subsidiaries, in the aggregate, beneficially hold more than 3,000,000 shares of the Common Stock, New York Life may request that the Company effect up to three registrations of all or part of such shares under the Securities Act of 1933. One of these registrations may be requested to be effected as a shelf registration pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act, and two of these registrations may be requested to be effected as firm commitment underwritten offerings under the Securities Act of 1933. The Company is not obligated to file a registration statement at the request of New York Life: (1) within a period of 90 days after the effective date of any other registration statement of the Company (other than a registration statement on Form S-8 or its equivalent); or (2) while a registration statement relating to a shelf registration filed at the request of New York Life is effective under the Securities Act. In addition, so long as New York Life and its non-investment subsidiaries, in the aggregate, beneficially hold in excess of 3,000,000 shares of Common Stock, if the Company proposes to register shares of Common Stock for the Company's account under the Securities Act (other than a registration on Form S-8 or its equivalent), New York Life shall have piggy-back rights with respect to such registration. The underwriters of any such offering have the right to limit the number of shares included by New York Life in any such registration if the managing underwriter indicates that, in its opinion, the number of shares to be included by New York Life would adversely affect the offering. The Company will bear the expenses of any registration described in this paragraph.

Voting of Common Stock. New York Life and its subsidiaries have agreed to vote any shares of Common Stock held by them in favor of the slate of nominees for the Company's Board of Directors recommended by the Company. However, this voting requirement does not apply to any of the Forward Sale Shares held by third parties pursuant to the Forward Sale Contract and which New York Life would have to recall in order to vote, provided that (i) New York Life gives proper notice to the Company indicating that such shares are being held by third parties, and (ii) the Company does not require New York Life to nonetheless recall such shares. The Company does not presently intend to call for the recall of such shares to be voted at the meeting.

Term. The Stockholder and Registration Rights Agreement will terminate on the earlier of: (1) November 7, 2008 or (2) at such time as New York Life and its non-investment subsidiaries, in the aggregate, beneficially hold less than 3,000,000 shares of Common Stock.

Pursuant to agreements with New York Life, the Company provides pharmacy benefit management services to employees and retirees of New York Life and certain New York Life health insurance policyholders. During 2004, the total revenues that the Company derived from all services provided to New York Life were approximately $27,600,000, or 0.2% of the Company's total revenues for 2004.

New York Life Benefit Services, Inc., a subsidiary of New York Life, administers the Company's 401(k) and deferred compensation plans. The Company paid New York Life Benefit Services approximately $65,000 for such services during 2004.

Relationship with Putnam Investments

Putnam Investment Management LLC and The Putnam Advisory Company LLC, each a wholly-owned subsidiary of Putnam, LLC (Putnam Investments), beneficially own an aggregate amount of 4,715,765 (or approximately 6.37%) of the Common Stock. From time to time, the Company has obtained insurance brokerage and compensation related services from Putnam Investments' parent, Marsh & McLennan Companies, Inc. (M&MC) or certain other subsidiaries of M&MC. The total payments made to M&MC and its subsidiaries during 2004, was approximately $7,665,000, or 0.05% of the Company's total revenues for 2004. However, the preponderance of these payments represented insurance premiums which were paid to Marsh but forwarded to the individual carriers themselves, less a standard commission.

Pursuant to agreements with M&MC, a subsidiary of the Company provides pharmacy benefit management services to employees of M&MC and for a third party administrator owned by M&MC. During 2002, the total revenues that the Company derived from these services were approximately $6,657,000, or 0.03% of the Company's total revenues for 2004.

II. RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

The firm of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP served as the Company's independent accountants for the year ended December 31, 2004. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to act in that capacity for the year ending December 31, 2005. A representative of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is expected to be present at the annual meeting with the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so and to be available to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

Although the Company is not required to submit this appointment to a vote of the stockholders, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors continues to believe it appropriate as a matter of policy to request that the stockholders ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as principal independent auditors. If the stockholders do not ratify the appointment, the Audit Committee will investigate the reasons for stockholder rejection and consider whether to retain PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP or appoint another auditor. Even if the appointment is ratified, the Audit Committee in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent auditor at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

The following table presents fees for professional services rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2004, as well as fees billed for other services rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP during those periods:

The tax fees paid in 2003 and 2004 were for projects that began in 2002.
- (4) All other fees includes any fees earned for services rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP during 2003 and 2004 which are not included in any of the above categories. Policy Regarding Pre-Approval of Services Provided by the Independent Auditors

The Audit Committee Charter requires the Committee's pre-approval of all services, both audit and permitted non-audit, to be performed for the Company by the independent auditors. In determining whether proposed services are permissible, the Committee considers whether the provision of such services is compatible with maintaining auditor independence. As part of its consideration of proposed services, the Committee may (i) consult with management as part of the decision-making process, but may not delegate this authority to management, and (ii) delegate, from time to time, its authority to pre-approve such services to one or more Committee members, provided that any such approvals are presented to the full Committee at the next scheduled Audit Committee meeting.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR the ratification of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent accountants for the year ending December 31, 2005.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

In accordance with the amended Bylaws of the Company, a stockholder who, at any annual meeting of stockholders of the Company, intends to nominate a person for election as director or present a proposal must so notify the Secretary of the Company, in writing, describing such nominee(s) or proposal and providing information concerning such stockholder and the reasons for and interest of such stockholder in the proposal. Generally, to be timely, such notice must be received by the Secretary not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days in advance of the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, provided that in the event that no annual meeting was held the previous year or the date of the annual meeting has been changed by more than 30 days from the date of the previous year's meeting, or in the event of a special meeting of stockholders called to elect directors, not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or public disclosure of the date of the meeting was made, whichever occurs first. For the Company's annual meeting to be held in 2006, any such notice must be received by the Company at its principal executive offices between January 25, 2006 and February 24, 2006 to be considered timely for purposes of the 2006 annual meeting. Any person interested in offering such a nomination or proposal should request a copy of the relevant Bylaw provisions from the Secretary of the Company. These time periods also apply in determining whether notice is timely for purposes of rules adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission relating to the exercise of discretionary voting authority, and are separate from and in addition to the Securities and Exchange Commission's requirements that a stockholder must meet to have a proposal included in the Company's proxy statement.

Stockholder proposals intended to be presented at the 2006 annual meeting must be received by the Company at its principal executive office no later than December 23, 2005, in order to be eligible for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and proxy relating to that meeting. Upon receipt of any proposal, the Company will determine whether to include such proposal in accordance with regulations governing the solicitation of proxies.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY MATERIALS

The Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries such as brokers to satisfy delivery requirements for proxy statements with respect to two or more shareholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to those stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, potentially provides extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies. The Company and some brokers household proxy materials, delivering a single proxy statement to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected stockholders. Once you have received notice from your broker or the Company that they or we will be householding materials to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement, or if you currently receive multiple proxy statements and would prefer to participate in householding, please notify your broker if your shares are held in a brokerage account or the Company if you hold registered shares. You can notify the Company by sending a written request to Express Scripts, Inc., Attention: Investor Relations, 13900 Riverport Drive, Maryland Heights, MO 63043.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The Company will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies for the meeting.
