Board of Directors Compensation

On September 27, 2005, the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board of Directors") adopted a new compensation plan for the directors of the Company effective beginning January 1, 2006. Pursuant to such plan, each non-management director will be paid a retainer of $30,000 annually. Additionally, the chairman of the Audit Committee will be paid an additional $8,000 annual retainer and the chairmen of the Compensation Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee each will receive an additional $4,000 annual retainer. Each director will also receive a meeting attendance fee of $10,000 payable annually. At the first board meeting of each calendar year beginning in, 2006 each director will receive options to purchase 2,250 shares of the Company's common stock and 675 shares of restricted stock granted pursuant to the Company's Incentive Award Plan. The restricted stock is not transferable until the recipient is no longer serving as a director of the Company and is subject to forfeiture in the event the recipient terminates his service as a director for reasons other than death, disability or retirement prior to vesting. The restricted stock will vest in full on the earlier of the third anniversary of grant, the failure of the director to be reelected as a member of the board, or a change in control. Finally, each new director elected or appointed to the Board of Directors shall receive upon election or appointment an option to purchase 3,375 shares of the Company's common stock and 1,015 shares of restricted stock with the same terms applicable to the annual grants described above.
