PROXY STATEMENT
for Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on May 13, 2003

GENERAL

This Proxy Statement, which is first being mailed to the stockholders of the Company on approximately April 24, 2003, is furnished to you in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company for use at the Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting is to be held at the offices of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, 1285 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019-6064 on May 13, 2003 at 10:15 a.m., or at any subsequent time which may be necessary by any adjournment of the meeting.

Proxies in proper form received by the time of the meeting will be voted as specified. Stockholders may specify their choices by marking the appropriate boxes on the enclosed proxy card. If a proxy card is dated, signed and returned without specifying choices, the shares will be voted as recommended by the Board FOR proposal (1). Business transacted at the Annual Meeting is confined to the purposes stated in the Notice of Annual Meeting. The proxy does, however, convey discretionary authority to the persons named in it to vote on such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

Shares of the Company's common stock, par value $.20 per share (the "Common Stock"), cannot be voted at the meeting unless the holder is present or represented by proxy.

VOTING SECURITIES

The Board of Directors, in accordance with the Bylaws of the Company (the "Bylaws"), has fixed the close of business on April 2, 2003 as the record date (the "Record Date") for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournments thereof. At the close of business on that date, the outstanding number of voting securities of the Company was 5,238,015 shares of Common Stock, excluding shares held by the Company in treasury.

For each share held as of the Record Date, each holder of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. If you hold your shares through a broker, you should contact your broker to determine the procedure by which you can vote.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of stockholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the voting power represented by all outstanding shares constitutes a quorum. If a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting, the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast by the stockholders present (in person or by proxy) and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of each director (Proposal 1).

REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

A stockholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted by giving the Secretary of the Company a letter revoking the proxy or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by attending the meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute the revocation of a proxy.

PROPOSAL 1 -- ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

NOMINEES FOR THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

At the Annual Meeting, two directors are to be elected to Class III of the Company's Board of Directors for a term of three years. Unless a proxy shall specify that it is not to be voted for any particular director, it is intended that the shares represented by each duly executed and returned proxy will be voted in favor of the election as directors of Mr. Samson Bitensky and Mr. Frank Greenberg to Class III of the Board of Directors. Messrs. Bitensky and Greenberg are currently directors of the Company and were most recently elected as Class

Edgar Filing: FAB INDUSTRIES INC - Form DEF 14A

III board members at the 2000 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The Class III directors elected will hold office until the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. If any of such nominees is not a candidate for election at the Annual Meeting, an event which the Board of Directors does not anticipate, the proxies will be voted for a substitute nominee.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

It has been the policy of the Company to tie a significant portion of executive compensation to individual performance. For all principal executives, the key elements of compensation are (i) base salary and (ii) annual bonus. Previously, long-term incentive opportunities in the form of restricted stock and stock options were a key element of executive compensation.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION

Mr. Bitensky is one of the founders of the Company. He beneficially owns approximately 1,488,276 shares of Common Stock constituting approximately 28.41% of the total amount outstanding. Accordingly, his interest is very much aligned with the interest of all stockholders and the Company no longer considers it sensible to relate Mr. Bitensky's compensation to the Company's performance through long-term stock incentives such as restricted stock or stock options. Instead, Mr. Bitensky's compensation is tied to Company performance through the use of incentive compensation.

Mr. Bitensky entered into an employment agreement with the Company effective April 1, 1993, pursuant to which he is to perform the duties of its Chief Executive Officer. The agreement provided it would expire on March 31, 1998, subject to automatic successive one year renewals unless either party terminates on notice given not less than six months prior to the then expiration date. The current expiration date is March 31, 2004. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $350,000, or such greater amount as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine, and incentive compensation if the Company's annual pre-tax income exceeds $10,000,000 equal to 3% of the Company's annual pre-tax income up to $11,000,000 and 4% of such pre-tax income in excess of $11,000,000. In the event of disability (as defined in the employment agreement), compensation at the above rate is payable for the first year, and at one-half such rate for the second year of such disability. Upon termination of full-time employment other than by the Company for cause, Mr. Bitensky will be retained to provide advisory and consulting services for a period of five years for a fee of $250,000 per annum. In the event of the death of Mr. Bitensky while employed or providing such consulting services, an amount equal to the average one year total annual compensation paid to Mr. Bitensky, based upon the three most recent full-time employment years, is payable to his beneficiaries over a five-year period.

In the event of Mr. Bitensky's death while employed or within two years after termination of employment, the agreement provides an option to Mr. Bitensky's estate, exercisable during the period of six months after the appointment of Mr. Bitensky's personal representative, to sell to the Company such number of shares of Common Stock as may be purchased in an amount equal to (i) the lesser of (A) $7,000,000 or (B) 10% of the Company's net worth at the end of the fiscal year immediately prior to Mr. Bitensky's death, plus (ii) such amount as may be purchased with the proceeds of certain life insurance policies which the Company may purchase from time to time on Mr. Bitensky's life. Currently, the Company maintains several life insurance policies on Mr. Bitensky's life providing for the payment of an aggregate of $3,000,000 for such purpose. The purchase price of shares purchased pursuant to the option is the market price per share increased by an amount, if any, equal to one-half of the difference between the average market price per share and the book value per share.

POLICY AND PERFORMANCE MEASURES

As indicated above, the key elements of the compensation payable to the principal executives other than the Chief Executive Officer are base salary and annual bonus.

Adjustment of base salaries involves considerations of competitive data, assessment of performance, position tenure and internal comparability. The base salaries of the executives are considered to be average by industry standards and are adjusted modestly, the primary focus being on total compensation. Executives are eligible to receive annual cash bonuses based on a review of the Company's overall profitability, divisional profitability and such executives' performance during the year for which such a bonus is payable. For fiscal 2002, bonuses were paid to Messrs. Miller, Myers, Hiatt and Deese.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted and approved by the Board of Directors. As stated in the charter, the Audit Committee's job is one of oversight. Management is responsible for the Company's financial reporting process, including the system of internal controls, for the preparation, objectivity and integrity of the Company's financial statements and for the preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). The Company's independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements, expressing an opinion based on their audit as to the statements' conformity with GAAP, monitoring the effectiveness of the Company's internal controls and discussing with the Audit Committee any issues that the auditors believe should be raised with the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and review these processes. The members of the Audit Committee are not experts in the fields of auditing or accounting, or in respect of auditor independence issues, and they rely without independent verification on the information provided to them and on the representations made by management and the independent accountants, including management's representation that the financial statements have been prepared in conformity with GAAP and the auditors' representations included in their report on the Company's financial statements. Accordingly, the Audit Committee's oversight does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee's considerations and discussions referred to in this report do not assure that the audit of the Company's financial statements have been carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, that the financial statements are presented in accordance with GAAP, or that the Company's independent auditors are in fact "independent."

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with management the Company's audited financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2002. The Audit Committee also discussed with the Company's independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as modified or supplemented, regarding the scope and results of the annual audit. The Audit Committee also received the written disclosures and the letter from the Company's independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, as modified or supplemented, and has discussed with the independent accountants its independence. The Committee also considered the fees and services of the independent auditors, as disclosed under "Other Matters" below, and determined that such fees and services are compatible with maintaining the independence of the Company's auditors.

Based on the foregoing review and discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2002.

RELATIONSHIP WITH INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

By letter dated September 11, 2001, Ernst & Young, LLP ("Ernst & Young") resigned as the Company's independent accountant. Ernst & Young's resignation became effective on September 25, 2001, the date that the Company engaged BDO Seidman, LLP ("BDO") as its new independent public accountants. The Audit Committee made no recommendation or approval with respect to the resignation of Ernst & Young. There were no disagreements with the former accountants on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure in connection with the audits of the Company's two most recent fiscal years and preceding such resignation, which disagreements if not resolved to the satisfaction of the former accountants would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with their reports on the financial statements for such years. None of the principal accountants' reports on the financial statements for the previous two years preceding such resignation contained an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion or were qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the two most recent fiscal years and preceding such resignation, the Company was not advised of any of the matters referred to in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company has selected BDO as its independent accountants for the fiscal year ending November 29, 2003. Representatives of BDO will be present at the Annual Meeting.
