AVENEL VENTURES INC. AND SUBSIDIARY
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
For Period from June 6, 2000 (date of incorporation) through December 31, 2000

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

NATURE OF BUSINESS AND PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION - The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Avenel Ventures, Inc. ("Ventures") and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Avenel Alliance, Inc. ("Alliance"), a Florida corporation incorporated on August 8, 2000. Ventures was incorporated on June 6, 2000 in Nevada. Operations for Alliance and Ventures (collectively, "the Company") are included from the respective dates of incorporation through December 31, 2000 ("the Period"). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The Company provides e-commerce and business development services to clients implementing innovative strategies in e-commerce internet marketing throughout the United States. These services are provided pursuant to one-year contracts that contain renewal options. The contracts provide for monthly payments and, in some cases, advance deposits. Services are provided at relatively constant levels throughout the year and therefore revenue is recognized ratably. Deferred revenue consists of advanced payments for consulting services and is recognized over a one year period from the date of the consulting agreement.

Edgar Filing: ERESOURCE CAPITAL GROUP INC - Form 8-K/A

CASH AND CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK - The Company maintains its cash accounts at one financial institution. At times throughout the year, the Company may have balances in excess of FDIC insured limits. Due to the strong credit rating of this financial institution, management believes there is no significant credit risk related to these accounts.

INVESTMENTS - Investments, consisting of certificates of deposit with maturities of greater than three months and not readily marketable equity securities, are classified as available for sale. Investment securities that are not readily marketable include securities (a) for which there is no market on a securities exchange or no independent publicly quoted market, (b) that cannot be publicly offered or sold unless registration has been effected under the Securities Act of 1933, or (c) that cannot be offered or sold because of other arrangements, restrictions, or conditions applicable to the securities or the Company. Certificates of deposit are recorded at cost plus accrued interest. Not readily marketable equity securities are recorded at estimated values based on quoted market values for marketable securities of the investee discounted for trading restrictions. If there is no quoted market value, the recorded values are based on the most recent transactions in the securities discounted for lack of marketability. Investment securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. The difference between cost and fair value is recorded as unrealized gain or loss on available for sale securities.

STOCK PURCHASE WARRANTS - The Company periodically receives stock purchase warrants which are considered derivatives from companies with publicly traded common stock as part of its compensation for services. The Company recognizes revenue at the fair value of such stock purchase warrants when earned based on the Black-Scholes valuation model. The Company recognized unrealized gains or losses in the statement of operations based on the changes in value in the stock purchase warrants as determined by the Black-Scholes valuation model subsequent to the date earned. Unrealized losses for the period aggregated $262,887.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT - Property and equipment are recorded at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided for principally by an accelerated methods over the estimated useful lives of the related assets.

DEFERRED REVENUE - Deferred revenue consists of advanced payments for consulting services and is recognized over a one year period from the date of the consulting agreement.

INCOME TAXES - The Company utilizes the liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement and tax bases of existing assets and liabilities. For the Company, these temporary differences result primarily from net operating loss carryforwards. A valuation allowance is provided when it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax asset will not be realized.

COMPREHENSIVE INCOME - Components of comprehensive income are net loss and all other non-owner changes in equity. The only component of other comprehensive income consists of unrealized holding losses on securities available for sale.

ADVERTISING - The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. Advertising expenses amounted to $5,405 for the Period.

ESTIMATES - The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U. S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. INVESTMENTS

Investments at December 31, 2000 are summarized as follows:

	-----	-----	-----
Equity securities	$1,074,500	$(242,382)	$832,118
Certificates of deposit	81,041	--	81,041
	-----	-----	-----
	$1,155,541	$(242,382)	$913,159
	=====	=====	=====

The Company's certificates of deposit are pledged as collateral security for the Company's letters of credit for building leases.

3. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

A summary of property and equipment at December 31, 2000 is as follows:

Computer equipment	$ 36,064
Office furniture	34,865

Edgar Filing: ERESOURCE CAPITAL GROUP INC - Form 8-K/A

5. LEASES

The Company leases two office facilities under long-term non-cancelable operating leases expiring in June 2002 and August 2002.

Future minimum lease payments are as follows:

2001	$ 82,704
2002	47,264

	$129,968

Rent expense under these leases was approximately $36,200 for the Period.

In conjunction with these lease agreements the Company has furnished the landlords irrevocable standing letters of credit from a financial institution in the aggregated amount of $79,633.

10

6. INCOME TAXES

The Company has net operating loss carryforwards ("NOL's") of approximately $460,000 which can be used to offset future regular Federal income tax liability through the year 2020. Approximately $140,000 and $320,000 of state NOL's expire through years 2015 and 2020, respectively. Because of the loss during the Period, there is no current income tax expense. Deferred tax benefits of $96,000 resulting from the NOL's and deferred tax benefits of $55,000 resulting from unrealized losses on stock purchase warrants have been fully reserved. Therefore, there is no income tax expense or benefit on the consolidated statement of operations.

No income tax payments were made during the Period.

7. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company recognized approximately $500,000 in consulting revenue from four entities in which the Company and or the Company's stockholders own equity securities. Accounts receivable include $13,327 from these entities.

Other receivables from related party consists of expenses paid on behalf of an entity in which a stockholder of the Company owns equity securities.

8. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

On November 8, 2000 the Company entered into a definitive share exchange purchase agreement with eResource Capital Group, Inc. ("eRCG"). As of that date, the former president and former vice president of the Company resigned and became officers of eRCG. At the same time eRCG assumed operating responsibility for the Company. The agreement provides that stockholders exchange all of their shares in the Company for a like number of shares of eRCG. This exchange was completed on February 13, 2001.
