Section 4 Matters Relating to Accountants and Financial Statements

Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

As of May 23, 2005, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PwC"), will no longer be engaged by Trinsic, Inc. (the "Company"), as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. PwC's reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 did not contain any adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, nor were such reports qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principle, except that PwC's report on the Company's financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2004 contained an explanatory paragraph expressing substantial doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. During the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 and through May 23, 2005, there have been no disagreements with PwC regarding any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements if not resolved to the satisfaction of PwC would have caused PwC to make reference thereto in their report on the Company's financial statements for such years. During the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 and through May 23, 2005, there have been no reportable events (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K). The Company's Audit Committee is in the process of interviewing replacement firms and expects to make a selection and announcement regarding a new audit firm in the near future. The Company has requested that PwC furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not PwC agrees with the above statements. That letter is unavailable at this time. It will be filed as promptly as possible with a subsequent report.
