Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

- a. Brantley Capital Corporation (Brantley Capital) has selected KPMG LLP to serve as its independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002. Brantley Capital will no longer engage Arthur Andersen LLP as its independent accountants effective upon completion of the December 31, 2001 audit and the March 31, 2002 quarterly review which were completed as of the date of this filing. The decision to change accountants was approved by Brantley Capital's Audit Committee and Board of Directors and will be submitted for ratification by its stockholders.
- b. In connection with its audits for the two most recent fiscal years and through the date hereof, (1) there were no disagreements with Arthur Andersen on any matter of accounting principle or practice, financial statement disclosure, auditing scope or procedure, whereby such disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Arthur Andersen, would have caused them to make reference thereto in their report on the financial statements for such years; and (2) there have been no reportable events (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K).
- c. The reports of Arthur Andersen on the financial statements of Brantley Capital for the past two years contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principle.
- d. Brantley Capital has not consulted with KPMG during the last two years or through the date hereof on either the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction either completed or proposed or the type of audit opinion KPMG might issue on Brantley Capital's financial statements.
- e. Brantley Capital has requested that Arthur Andersen furnish a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not Arthur Andersen agrees with the above statements.
