"There's been a lot of speculation about the demise of agency networks, but the essential concept is still a good one. The problem is that network management has focused way too much on financials and not nearly enough on providing great advertising for great clients," said Miles S. Nadal, Chairman, President & Chief Executive Officer of MDC. "We're building a new kind of network at MDC, one that embraces the fact that talent is and always will be the engine of this business."

MDC PARTNERS Acquires Majority Stake in kirshenbaum bond + partners
Seventeen Year Old Independent Agency Joins Network of Creative Agencies

TORONTO, Ontario (January 29, 2004) MDC Partners Inc. announced today that they have acquired a majority stake in kirshenbaum bond + partners. The firm, comprised of four units: kirshenbaum bond (New York and San Francisco), LIME Public Relations + Promotion, The Media Kitchen, which handles media buying and planning and Dotglu, an interactive and direct marketing unit, will use the official name of kirshenbaum bond + partners, using partners to signify the units.

Richard Kirshenbaum and Jon Bond founded the firm in 1987. Driven by a corporate philosophy to "invent, reinvent and inspire," they have built one of North America's preeminent independent agencies with revenues approaching US$50 million, billings of over US$525 million, and more than 200 employees and offices in New York and San Francisco. The company is widely recognized for creating highly acclaimed non-traditional marketing campaigns for Snapple, Kenneth Cole, Hennessy, Target, Coach and The Meow Mix Company. Current clients include Verizon SuperPages, The Andrew Jergens Company, Target and more.

MDC Partners purchased 60% of the firm. The purchase price will not be disclosed but will include a stock component.

"We are thrilled to partner with kirshenbaum bond + partners. They have established a solid franchise and have developed a wonderful reputation for delivering outstanding work to outstanding clients. We definitely believe that they will enhance the MDC Partner network," said Miles S. Nadal, Chairman and CEO, MDC Partners.

Edgar Filing: MDC CORP INC - Form 6-K

"Jon and I have always agreed never to partner with anyone unless the vision and relationship were harmonious," said Richard Kirshenbaum. "MDC's vision was intriguing and very much what we were looking for. Both parties agree there is a need in the marketplace for a "new new" network based solely on creativity and entrepreneurial spirit. Miles Nadal is the Patron Saint of Creative Agencies. Now that's the kind of partner we want to work with."

"Since the day our doors opened we've taken meetings with industry giants, but until meeting Miles, there weren't enough good reasons to make a sale," said Jon Bond. "The MDC vision is magnanimous. They are creating something entirely different from the rest and cultivating a portfolio of like-minded entrepreneurial companies that will allow our company and culture to remain unchanged. With MDC behind us we have the resources needed to expand the company and continue creating breakthrough creative work for great clients."
